Upstarts Close Gap On PCL Top Three

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The top three clubs in the Pacific Coast League fell on hard times Wednesday night as second division upstarts closed the wide gap between them by one notch.

Fifth-place Portland went 15 innings to turn back the pace-setting Vancouver Mounties, 6-5, for the second night in a row.

Phoenix remained three games behind the leaders, dropping its fourth straight, 6-1, as Sacramento's strikeout artist, Marshall Bridges, spun a three-hitter.

San Diego found that among the certainties of life are death, taxes and the end of winning streaks. The Padres had their victory string cut at 10 as Spokane won 4-3.

Salt Lake City, in fourth, moved within five games of the top by thumping Seattle, 8-6.

Portland and Vancouver became deadlocked at 5-5 in the seventh inning and then hung up goose eggs for seven more frames before the Beavers pushed across the winning run in the 15th on Bob DiPietro's sharp single with two men on the sacks.

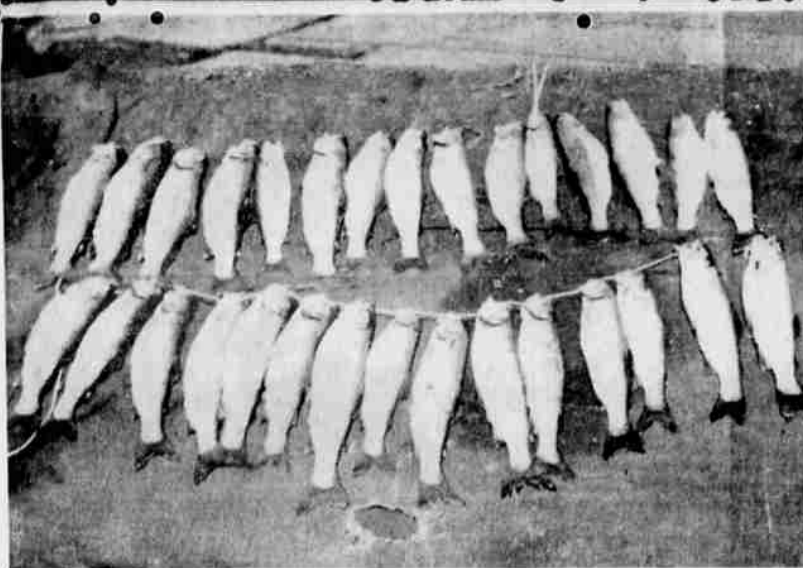

The Mounties finished the game under protest after the second Portland runner, outfielder Willy Moore, got aboard when the umpires ruled interference by Vancouver pitcher George Bamburger in fielding Moore's bunt.

Bridges ran his league-leading strikeout total to 87 by whiffing five in Sacramento's conquest of Phoenix. The Giants' only run came in the opening frame on Andre Rodgers' ninth homer. Bob Rosell's three-run circuit clout was the big blow of the Solons' attack.

San Diego was rocking along with a 4-3 lead and had visions of an 11th straight triumph when the roof fell in the ninth inning. Before the air cleared Spokane had rammed across six runs on four hits, two walks and two Padre bobbles. Five of the tallies came on singles by Tony Roig, pinchhitter Lyle Olsen and Norm Sherry. Hal Naragon had put San Diego in front in the eighth on a two-run triple.

Seattle, despite a vote of confidence by general manager Dewey Soriano, continued to suffer from the miscue plague which has cost many a game. A seventh inning bobbly by second baseman Eddie Basinski opened the door for five Salt Lake City runs, and the fat was in the fire. Dick Barone's first homer of the year was the clincher.

The last-place Rainiers, whom Soriano called "a good ball club which should get rolling," produced homers by Basinski and Vada Pinson, four doubles and a LAKE OF THE WOODS CATCH — Here's proof that Lake of the Woods' fishing isn't over and done with. The above limit was taken by three Medford anglers a week ago. The three, Lou and Horace Brittle and Paul Cramer, landed these nice rainbows while trolling spinners and worms.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By Clayton Hannon

Contrary to all reports that have been circulating throughout the state the past few weeks, Lake of the Woods is producing some very fine fishing, and the trout being taken there are as good as any others as far as eating quality is concerned.

Oregon State Game Commission fish biologist Art Gerlach reports rumors have reached his office that many anglers are bypassing Lake of the Woods because of stories that "the fish are dead" and "the fish that are still alive are no good and poor eating."

These stories are wrong.

First of all, the fish are not all dead, not even a measurable number. Gerlach added that lots of dead fish were sighted at the first of the year because the lake was just free of ice and the winter's kill came into view. Some of these fish died of natural causes, others were found to have suffered from a parasite tapeworm that is found in the fish's organs.

Secondly, the fish which contain this tapeworm—not all the fish in the lake are affected—are just as good eating as those caught in other waters. The worm does not enter the skin or flesh of the fish, but the inner organs. In no way does this worm harm the meat of the trout.

Gerlach remarked that the stories of dead fish are greatly exaggerated and the lake's fishing has been above normal in both size and production. "The percentage of limit catches is way above that in past years," Gerlach added, "and all the fish we have checked have been in real good condition."

The average catch at Lake of the Woods has been ranging from 10 to 12 inches with some rainbows as big as 18 inches reported. Trolling with spinners and worms usually presents the best results.

The local fishery biologist also shattered the rumors that indicate the game commission is thinking of backing out of Lake of the Woods. "The commission isn't and wouldn't think of backing out of the Lake of the Woods picture," Gerlach remarked, "we feel we have a good supply of trout started in the lake after the recent poisoning and think the fishing there will be good for years to come. We think Lake of the Woods is a good investment for us and will do everything possible to provide the best fishing available," the biologist explained.

The regional office of the state game commission at Bend announced this week that unless further checking shows additional stocking not necessary, an allotment of Eastern Brook trout has been budgeted for Lake of the Woods later this summer. Commission officials think the brooks will give the lake some additional very fine fishing.

The weekend's forecast: Willamson River has been slow for most anglers. But fly fishermen have been continuing to pull out a few limits. Angling at Collier Park has been poor. A few boats trolling the lower part of the river have been getting a big rainbow or two on spinner and worm or flat-fish.

Wood River is beginning to pick up and the stream is going down with the recent turn of good weather. Spinning lures and night-crawlers have been the best in the deep holes.

Sevensmile and Spring creeks have been holding steady, with single egg fishermen doing the best. Some late evening fly fishing has also been productive for a few.

Both forks of the Sprague River have lowered greatly in the past week or so and fishing on the North Fork has been good. Fly fishing patrons have been doing very well in number and size on the north branch of the stream. The South Fork was filled with plenty of plant and animal food after the wind and rain storms this week, which managed to keep the fish in a food supply and out of the hungry mood.

Diamond Lake is still holding about the same as the past week or so. It has slowed down from the tremendous opening weekend pace, but limit catches of the "over 12 inches" kamloops are still being taken. Almost every type of fishing known to man is working—fly, still, trolling and spin casting from the shore.

Four-Mile Lake on the Klamath-Jackson County line was red-hot again last week with most anglers taking their limits of 10 per day or 20 in possession. Single egg and worm fishermen had plenty of fun. These fish—kokanee or bluebacks if you prefer—are not any great size, but wonderful eating.

Getter Reservoir cooled down a little, but many reports of good crappie fishing came out of the reservoir this past week. The Go-Getter and badger fly are the best combination of producers.

A note from the NEA shows how popular wildlife is to the American way of life.

The Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of the Interior reports that sport fishing and wild game hunting soared to a new high in 1952.

During the year, 19,276,787 licenses were issued for fishing, 14,918,415 for hunting. The total paid for all licenses was $90,617,039 of which more than 42 million dollars went for angling permits.

That states attracting the greatest number of nonresident anglers were Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, Florida, Tennessee and Colorado.

NCAA Tilt Ends In Duel

OMAHA, Neb., (UPI) — Teen-aged sophomore Bruce Gardner of Southern California tries for his third win of the NCAA College World Series tonight in a sudden-death final duel with Missouri.

Wednesday night, Southern California's lanky Bill Thom tossed a three-hit shutout and doubled home three runs to lead the Trojans to a 7-0 win over Missouri and force the tourney into tonight's showdown.

Elmer Harbin, who hurled only 6 2-3 innings for Missouri during the regular season but threw a five-hitter against Holy Cross in the tourney's third round, was scheduled to face Gardner.

Gardner tossed a six-hitter when Southern Cal beat Arizona, 4-0, in the second round and won in relief when the Trojans eliminated Holy Cross, 6-2, on Friday.

In Wednesday night's game, Thom put down the first 14 Missouri batters, then gave a single to shortstop Ralph Hochgrebe.

Southern Cal scored all its runs in the ninth. Ron Fairly, leading USC slugger with a dozen doubles and eight home runs, singled to open the inning. John Werhas bunted safely and Fred Scott walked to fill the bases.

Missouri starter John O'Donoghue then walked Don Biasotti to force in Fairly. Bill Heath singled in Werhas and Thom doubled to clear the bases.

The Trojans then collected two final runs off reliever Bob Cooper.

Aside from Hochgrebe's hit, Missouri's lone other safeties came in the sixth, on Hank Kuhlmann's single and the seventh, on Bo Toff's single.

San Diego was rocking along with a 4-3 lead and had visions of an 11th straight triumph when the roof fell in the ninth inning. Before the air cleared Spokane had rammed across six runs on four hits, two walks and two Padre bobbles. Five of the tallies came on singles by Tony Roig, pinchhitter Lyle Olsen and Norm Sherry. Old Hands Win For Yanks; Traded Bum Wins For Reds

Big Newk Collects First Win

Big Newk still can hum that pea.

The winless Don Newcombe, whom the Los Angeles Dodgers gave up on last Sunday, became a winner again last night for Cincinnati, shrugging off a first-inning home run by Stan Musial and blanking St. Louis on five hits the rest of the way for a 6-1 victory.

It was Newk's first start for the Redlegs, who climbed back into third place in the National League with the big right-hander's first victory in seven decisions.

It was a night for good pitching in the NL. Second place San Francisco defeated Pittsburgh 2-1 in 10 innings on the four-hit pitching of young Paul Giel and the clutch relief of veteran Marv Grissom. Rookie Stan Williams gained his second major league victory and shutout with a four-hitter as Los Angeles defeated Philadelphia 3-0.

Rain idled Milwaukee and the Chicago Cubs, with the Braves leading 1-0 in the second inning. That cut Milwaukee's lead over San Francisco to two games.

In the American League, the New York Yankees defeated Cleveland 3-2. Boston smacked the Chicago White Sox 13-9 and Baltimore spilled Kansas City 5-3. Detroit and Washington were rained out, but the Tigers moved up for a third place tie with Kansas City.

Poor old Casey Stengel. His New York Yankee pitching staff was so thin he had to get some help with a trade. So what happens?

Southpaw Whitey Ford spun a three-hit shutout at Cleveland Tuesday. Then Case hauled Art Ditmar out of the bullpen last night and the right-hander pitched a no-hitter for 5 1-3 innings in his first start before getting reliever Ryne Duren's help for a 3-2 success over the Indians.

All of which leaves Duke Maas and Virgil Trucks, picked up in a deal with Kansas City, and Zack Monroe, recalled from Denver, still sittin' on their pinstripes.

Second place Boston, eight games back, blasted a 33-inning shutout string by Chicago pitching, hammering five home runs in a 13-9 victory over the White Sox. Baltimore defeated Kansas City 5-3. Detroit and Washington were idled by rain, but the Tigers moved into a third place tie with Kansas City.

Ditmar was breezing with a 3-0 lead, on first-inning homers by Hank Bauer and Elston Howard. Then an error and singles by Minnie Minoso and Mickey Vernon cracked his no-hit spell and scored two unearned runs in the sixth. When he gave up a double by loser Jim (Mudcat) Grant in the seventh, Casey brought in

The true old-style Kentucky bourbon
