Fearless Reflects On Sports In Toto

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fearless Fraley's reflections on sports in general:

Weight lifters spent more time in front of mirrors than barbers.

At last I'm convinced Sam Snead will never win the Open.

Track men say the 440 is the toughest race of all.

Only the top minor leagues can survive the greed of the major leagues.

Stand inside the rail at the head of the stretch and you'll believe jockeys earn every dime they're paid.

Willie Mays has a long way to go to match Joe DiMaggio.

Billy Welu is the most graceful bowler I ever saw.

Bahama Belts Ex-Champion

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) —

Young Yama Bahama considered a campaign in the welterweight boxing ranks today after belting out a solid victory over former welter king Kid Gavilan.

Bahama, 25, a former fishing guide from Bimini, took a quick early lead over Gavilan in their televised fight last night in the Miami Beach Auditorium and the Cuban Hawk, a slowed-down battler at 32, had nothing with which to rally.

Judge Eddie Thal gave Bahama the most one-sided score, 100-92. Referee Jimmy Peeler scored it 98-94 and Judge Stu Winston 99-93. Bahama was a 98-93 winner on The Associated Press card.

Bahama, who has campaigned fairly successfully as a middleweight, said after the fight he might have a go at the welters, in view of his easy night against Gavilan. It'll be no trouble to make the weight, he added.

The victory was the 29th for Bahama against eight losses and one draw. At 151 1/2 pounds, he was just a half pound heavier than the Cuban Kid. Gavilan's career record now is 106-30-6.

Every race driver I ever knew was scared riding on the highways with somebody else at the wheel.

What the women pro golfers need above anything else is a lot more femininity.

I always feel like a tourist looking at skyscrapers when I interview pro basketball players.

The surest way to start a locker room argument is to pick Ben Hogan over Bobby Jones, or vice versa.

Only moving men or track stars should marry women weight lifters.

Tennis players on the international circuit are as amateur as a croupier, merely using the other side of the table.

Loan sharks love long-shot players.

Learn to divide by two and you can get a fight manager's license.

Duren. The rookie right-hander fanned two in a hitless 2-1-3 innings of relief.

Mudcat (5-4) allowed only six hits, blanking the Yankees the last eight innings. A walk came ahead of the clinching home run by Howard, who was behind the plate instead of Yogi Berra, who had an eye test in effort to explain his 211 average.

Ditmar, Duren (7) and Howard. Grant (5-4) and Nixon. Winner—Ditmar (1-0). HR—Bauer, Howard.

Young Milt Pappas (4-1) gave up only five hits and two runs in his seven innings and produced the lead run with a double for the Orioles. A two-run homer by Gus Triandos, his 14th, triggered a three-run Baltimore sixth, junking Murrey Dickson's shut out bid. Dickson now is 5-3.

Washington at Detroit, ppd, rain.

Charged with Parks-Moyina's loss was starting hurler Ron Yonck who gave up six hits, while striking out 12 men and walking six. Winner, Bobby Graham, struck out five and walked six.

Both hurlers were relieved in the seventh stanzas as league rules preclude a pitcher from working more than six innings in any one game. Billy Crain relieved Yonck while Jerry Thomas came in for Graham.

Hitting honors for the contest were shared between P-M players, Yonck and Duane Singleton and Johns-Manville's Larry Binney, who each collected two hits. Yonck counted the longest, a triple in the torrid seventh, while Binney registered a double.

Giants 2, Bucs 1

The Giants, benching the slumping Willie Mays, made it on singles by Bob Schmidt and Whitey Lockman that sandwiched a walk by Bob Friend, who had pitched shut out ball after giving up a first inning run on a balk.

Giel, 25, whose only other decision was a 2-1 loss to Pittsburgh last week, gave up three singles and the tying run in the third last night. Then he blanked the Bucs without a hit, retiring 16 in order, before giving up a single in the 10th. Grissom, 40, saved it.

Mays, 3-for-40 after grounding out as a pinch-hitter, still leads the NL with a .382 average. Musial, the runnerup, has .376.
