Merrill Schedules Fireworks Show

MERRILL—A fireworks display to be sponsored again this year by the Merrill Volunteer Fire Department. The event will be held on Friday, July 4, at the Merrill Athletic Field.

The first of a series of 167 aerial displays will be fired off at dusk. The display, which cost the fire department $500, will last from one to one-and-a-half hours. It is requested by the volunteer fire department that the fireworks display follow parking directions offered by the fire department members at the athletic field to eliminate confusion. Those who do not wish to sit in their cars will find adequate seating in the bleachers on the field.

To help defray the cost, voluntary contributions will be accepted during the mid-show intermission. Volunteer members will be identified by the wearing of official fire badges.
