Yellow and White Chosen By Joan Adelle Taylor For Her Wedding Colors

Yellow and white was the color schema chosen by Joan Adelle Taylor for her wedding to William Lee Gibson on May 30 in the Mt. Laki Community Church. The church was decorated with yellow mums, white gladioli, stock and lighted candles in the church windows for the 8 p.m. candlelight ceremony read by the Rev. Andrew Jarvis in the presence of 150 guests.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron M. Taylor, Spring Lake Road, Joan was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Gibson, 3004 Bisbee.

For her wedding the bride wore a ballerina length gown of imported Chantilly lace with nylon net and lace appliques over the tiered skirt with an illusion neckline in a vee. The long sleeves were pointed at the wrists. Her nylon fingertip veil was held by a carried out in decorations in the church parlor where a reception followed the ceremony. Bouquets of yellow iris and white snowballs were placed about the room, and a centerpiece made by the bride was on the punch and coffee table. It was a bride and groom doll, the first of a collection of her miniature dolls, placed behind the groom's cake.

The bride's cake was served by Martha Tubach and Norma Lyon. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Jack V. Taylor, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Ann Gibson, the bridegroom's sister, served punch. Sharlene Finchum and Mrs. Gerald Arant were in charge of the guest book, and Judy Woodruff and Hazel DeLamater took charge of the gifts.

The bride's table was covered with a hand crocheted lace table cloth loaned by Mrs. Lawrence Myers, cousin of the bride. The bride wore the traditional blue garter and a penny in her shoe dated the year of her birth, 1940.

For the wedding trip to San Francisco, the new Mrs. Gibson wore a gray fleeced linen suit with yellow and white accessories and the corsage from the center of her bridal bouquet.

A 1938 graduate of Henley High School, Joan was a member of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 51.

AT THE RECEPTION in the church parlors, the new Mr. and Mrs. Gibson cut the traditional first slice of their wedding cake.

Motschenbachers Gather For 1958 Family Reunion

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jack V. Taylor and Paula Sue, Pasco, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Crapo and family, aunt and uncle of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas Schubert, all of Eureka; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Myers, cousins of the bride; Merrill, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wesson, Omaha, Nebraska.

A community shower on May 17 at the Mt. Laki Church for the bride-elect was attended by about 50 guests. Hostesses were Mrs. Don Johnson, Mrs. Irvin White, Mrs. Ralph Benoit, Mrs. Bryant Williams and Susie, Mrs. William M. Williams, Mrs. Dale Williams, Mrs. J. D. Finchum, Mrs. John Taylor and Ann, Mrs. Henry Semmon and Mrs. A. R. Dickson.

A no-hostess kitchen shower was held for Joan on May 28 at the home of Mrs. Henry Waldrep on Hilyard Avenue.

The newlyweds were houseguests

This year's annual family reunion of the Motschenbacher family in Southern Oregon was at the home of Mrs. Clarence Motschenbacher in Dorris.

The reunion dates back many years—and the Motschenbacher name has been identified with the Klamath Basin since Michael Motschenbacher brought his family here over half a century ago.

Members gathered in Dorris for the recent Sunday get-together were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Motschenbacher, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Motschenbacher, Shady Cove;

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Motschenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Motschenbacher, Medford; and Mr. and Mrs. Rhinehart Motschenbacher, Klamath Falls.

When shopping for broccoli, look for stalks with tightly closed, dark green buds. A healthy head of cauliflower should be firm and heavy. The flowerets should be clean, compact, white or creamy and the jacket of leaves bright green and fresh looking.

Wedding News Learned Here

Local friends of Carol Ann Minton, former Klamath Falls resident, were recently told of her June 7 wedding in Reno to Robert J. Le Vine.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Minton of Klamath Falls.

In Reno for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Minton and Mr. and Mrs. William Chilcote, all of this city. Robert Minton is Carol Ann's brother, and Mrs. Chilcote is her sister.

The newlyweds are now at home in San Francisco, where Le Vine is a well-known hair stylist.

F. Scott Fitzgerald, the novelist, was born September 2, 1896.
