

Ambers-Hand Vows Said In Klamath Lutheran

At a 2 p.m. ceremony in the Klamath Lutheran Church on Sunday, June 1, Betty Marie Hand was united in marriage to Clifford L. Ambers Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Hand, Stewart Addition, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Ambers, Wocus District.

The church was decorated with pink peonies and white stock. The Rev. Leroy M. Redal read the ceremony before an assemblage of approximately 100 guests. Nora Dammond was solo vocalist, and Myrna Leitzke was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white slipper satin gown with a lace bodice fashioned with a long cathedral train which had been worn by her sister, Mrs. Fred Feiss. Her fingertip veil was edged with lace insets, and she wore a string of pearls. The bridal bouquet was of pink elf roses and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Fred Feiss, Lakeview, was matron of honor for her sister. Her gown was a princess style of blue nylon in ballerina length, and she carried a nosegay of daisies.

Artalea Brassfield and Farley Matson were bridesmaids. Their pink dresses were identical in style to that of the matron of honor. They carried nosegays of daisies, and all three attendants wore bandeaus of flowers in their hair.

Little flower girls were Marilyn Feiss, niece of the bride, and Valerie Robertson, niece of the bridegroom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Robertson. They wore nylon dresses. Marilyn in blue and Valerie in pink, and bandeaus of flowers. They carried baskets of rose petals.

Robbie Robertson, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer. Thomas Ivie was best man, and ushers were Wayne Anderson and Ronald Faganello.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hand wore a pink and gray tulle and lace afternoon dress and a pink rosebud corsage. The senior Mrs. Ambers wore a pink net and lace afternoon dress and a pink rosebud corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception arranged by Mrs. Kenneth Norton was held in the church parlors. Cake was served by Mrs. Al Glassley, sister of the bride; coffee was poured by Mrs. Charles Carty, aunt of the bridegroom, and punch was served by Mrs. Robert Robertson, sister of the bridegroom. Assisting were Mrs. Donald Ambers, Mrs. Walter Ambers, Mrs. John Lloyd and Mrs. Jack Dawson.

Patty Ambers handled the bride's book, and Mrs. Delmar Hand and Mrs. Norman Hand were in charge of the gift table. Shirley and Mary Lenninger handed out small packages of rice.

The bride will be a senior at Klamath Union High School in the fall where she is an active participant in the orchestra. Future Teachers of America, Honor Society, Delta Chi and is vice president of Future Business Leaders of America. A KUHS graduate with the class of '54, the bridegroom is employed by Weyerhaeuser Timber Company.

Following a wedding trip to Portland, the young couple is at home at Route 3, Box 431, Klamath Falls.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feiss, Lakeview; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Hand, Summer Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carty, Albany; Douglas Ambers, Walla Walla, Washington; Nancy Ambers, Portland; Robert Hall, Corvallis, and Beverly Lloyd, Eugene.

The bride-elect was honored at two bridal showers before the wedding, one given by Mrs. Robert Robertson and Mrs. Donald Ambers at the latter's home, with approximately 25 guests. The other was given by the Stewart and Lenox Fire Belles at the home of Mrs. Rose Mainers, with approximately 18 guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson entertained with a buffet dinner at their home for the bridal party and parents of the bride and bridegroom on Saturday evening before the rehearsal.
