

LIWANAG PAS CRUZ, second from the left, is a visitor in the United States from the Philippines, where she is a resident of San Juan, Rizal, and a faculty member of St. Scholastica Conservatory of Music, Santa Isabel School of Music and Philippine Women's University College of Music. She has written two musical compositions, "We Will Go No More A-Roving" and "Garden Scene," published in Manila, 1952 and 1953. Her knowledge of English is extensive and she is interested in furthering her knowledge of America in general. The picture was taken at the Conger Avenue home of Mrs. Julian Eccles, standing right, during an AAUW tea. Seated with Miss Cruz are Mrs. Eugene Favell, left, and Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, right. Standing in front of her mother is Jill Eccles. —Photo by Otto Ellis

Surprise 'Aloha' Party Fetes Captain Everett Peery, CAP
A surprise "Aloha" party was given for Capt. Everett Peery, commanding officer of the Klamath Falls Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol, Friday evening, June 13, in the Peery home, 5020 South Sixth, by Mrs. Peery and members of the CAP. Captain Peery is one of two officers chosen from Oregon squadrons to attend the Aviation Education Workshop in the University of Hawaii. The workshop is sponsored by the CAP, the U.S. Air Force and the University of Hawaii and will last five weeks. Captain Peery, who is being flown to Hawaii by the Air Force, will join the university staff as a group leader. The Hawaiian motif, used in decorating the Peery home, and a beautifully trimmed cake with the words "Aloha, Everett!" set the scene for the party which was a complete surprise to Captain Peery. CAP members and guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Newlin, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stern, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Adamson, Jesse Barker, Lois Glenn and Walter Casebeer. CAP cadets included Bill French, Walter Polson, Jerry Uhlig, Allen Jackson, Jim Cramer, Judy Shearer and Faith Nadine Peery.

Nassau, capital of the Bahamas, began as a pirate town. Buccaneer Henry Jennings made it his headquarters.

Women Of Moose Chapter No. 467

Women of the Moose, Chapter No. 467, met on June 3 at 8 p.m. in the Moose Hall, with Elaine Attichson, membership chairman, and committee members Arabelle LaMeris, Thelma Litzemberger, Betty J. Swift and Donna Burt were in charge of the chapter night program and refreshments. Kay Parker and Ronnie Boothby entertained the co-workers with several accordion selections, courtesy of the Klamath Music center.

Candidates initiated in honor of the committee were Betty Davidson sponsored by Ethel Rylander, Ester Coon sponsored by Nina Sawyer, Lois LaMeris sponsored by Jennie Brown, Fern Musgrove, Patricia Boleyn and Wanda Fanning sponsored by Vanesa Butler. Senior Regent Jerry Asher announced the state convention will be held June 27, 28 and 29 at Tillamook.

New officers for the 1958-59 year were elected and installation is scheduled for June 21. Refreshments were served the 61 members following the meeting.

Drizzling Rain No Damper To Party

A drizzling rain did not dampen the spirits of a group of young people who gathered at the Klamath Agency home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chase on Sunday, June 1, to help the Chases' twin daughters, Sharon and Karen, celebrate their 12th birthday anniversary. After the gifts were opened, several games were played. Then the party went to Agency Park for a wiener roast.

Sharing the festivities were Billie J. Parker, Wilma Rentz, Reda Jack, Cynthia Sargeant, Valerie Mitchell, Miki Wolff, Phyllis Sisson, Donna Kircher, Cynthia Martinez, Rocky Evans, Peter Smith, Helen Nelson, Ian Wilder and Caroline Smith.

Most young couples have to cut corners somewhere. And quite often this means the bride sweeps her rugs and carpets. Besides encouraging callouses this also spreads dirt and dust to other furnishings. This is why a vacuum cleaner is a practical first item for the home.
