

THE NATURAL GROWTH is a surprise to many on their first visit to Klamath Circle, just off the mile-high campus at OTI.

The foursome, from the left, are Mrs. Walter Thielman, Mrs. Dalton Johnson, Mrs. Clifford Jackson and Mrs. Lewis Walls.

THE OUTSTANDING CENTERPIECE on the tea table for the OTI Faculty Wives and Women's Club annual tea for OTI women graduates on June 7, was an unusual and artistic arrangement of vantage orchids on a silvered manzanita branch, illuminated with florist lights.

Guests were invited to the Winston D. Purvine home for the afternoon tea hours, 2 to 5 p.m.

In the picture, Natalie Apperel pours for Anna Marie Eck. Already served are Joanne Schmitz, center; and Betty Mulder, right.

YREKA

Mrs. Almon Burgess was installed as new president of the Federated Women's Club at the annual spring luncheon recently held at the Yreka Methodist Church.

Mrs. Adam Miller of Dorris was installing officer. Following the installation ceremony was the dedication of chairmen and members and presentation of the president's pin to Mrs. Burgess by Mrs. J. H. Evett.

Mrs. John Sutherland presented the club with a certificate of appreciation on behalf of the Girl Scout Troop No. 237 for the club's sponsoring of the troop.

A program was presented by Mrs. Sutherland which included her recitation of a poem and a reading by Mrs. Lester Newton. The Rev. H. C. Coleman of the Yreka Methodist Church sang two songs, with Mrs. Nathan McNamee as accompanist at the piano.

Vincennes, founded in 1731, was the first permanent white settlement in Indiana.

YREKA

AURORA TEMPLE NO. 33 Five candidates were initiated into the Aurora Temple No. 33, Pythian Sisters, during the recent meeting of the organization, conducted by Mrs. Helena Schlueter, most excellent chief.

Mrs. Arlene Asher, Mrs. Dorothy Bishoberger, Mrs. Althen Smith, Mark Ager and Harold Thomas were the new members initiated.

Mrs. Schlueter, who attended the recent state meeting of Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters at Long Beach, announced that Mrs. Quinter (Edith) Harris, a former Yreka now of Sacramento, was elected grand guard of the Grand Temple during the state meeting. Lee Morford, member of the Knights of Pythias, named last month as the Yreka "Man of the Year" by the Yreka Chamber of Commerce, was honored with a standing vote of applause.

Final plans were made for the Pythian sponsored dance for the graduating eighth graders following their graduation.

Following the business session, dance numbers were performed by pupils of Karen Adele's Dance Studio: Candy Holman, Marcia Landon, Markota Haraden and Juliana Haraden, three tap dance routines; Cress, Hayak, Carolyn Butler, Kay Christensen, Debbie Guenther, Connie Kendall, Robin Lawrence, Ann Maginnis, Maureen TeVogt, Kim Warcker and Mary Ann Weinzinger, ballet numbers.

Modern dances were presented by Arlene Behnke, Marjory James, Judy Moore, Jennifer Moore, Tana Shelton and Marsha Simpson.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the evening by committee chairman, Mrs. Ray Penney, assisted by Mrs. Del Black, Mrs. Arthur Pedersen, Mrs. Lester Simonson, Mrs. Deseey Sullivan and Mrs. Glen Thomas.
