

All-Star Squad Selected; Ted Williams Misses Spot

NEW YORK (AP)—Ted Williams failed to make the starting lineup for the July 4 All-Star Game today in the team selected for the first time by the major league players, coaches and managers.

The 39-year-old Boston Red Sox slugger who has played 13 previous All-Star Games undoubtedly will be named to the squad for the Baltimore contest when the managers announce the remainder of their 25-man teams Sunday.

"Well, I didn't expect to make it. I haven't been going too well," Williams said in Detroit, where the Red Sox play tonight.

Pittsburgh placed three starters on the National League side where only Stan Musial of St. Louis, Willie Mays of San Francisco and Hank Aaron of Milwaukee are repeaters from the 1957 lineup.

The sanction and certificate of the National Little League, Incorporated was received Friday by Gene Favell, president of the local group of 10, 11 and 12-year-olds who may now be officially called "Klamath Falls Little League."

Basin citizens should be proud of the fact that they have joined the hundreds of other communities across the nation who share the joy of "doing, rather than talking" for their youngsters.

We have six teams of Little Leaguers now; by this time next year the other 350 hopefuls that were turned away for the lack of time, coaches, sponsors and a suitable place to play may swell the current league to three times its size . . . as they did in Redding.

The Redding people felt that they owed the little baseballers something . . . they must have—at any rate Redding has a Little League Park, as such.

As readers of this column must know by now, Klamath Falls will have one—soon.

The "beard" is only seven days old and already a group of prominent KF business men have banded together to figure the ways and means to make our "Little League Park" a reality. . . . Help where you can . . . and when you can, think back a few years and try to picture just how much it would have meant to you to have been able to wear one of these sharp, snappy, Little League suits when you were a kid. We all would have been better players, don't you think?

Never mind how long is the "beard" . . . some boys just naturally grow these things faster than others.

Klamath baseball fans, despite the fact that they may have seen a lot of games this season, missed something if they didn't see the Henley Sporting Goods-Chillicothe Babe Ruth League game at Gem Stadium this last Tuesday night . . . now, there was a ball game. . . .

Henley won it . . .

MEDFORD — Klamath Falls scored with two outs in the ninth inning of a scheduled seven-inning game against the Crater Lake Motors team to win a 3-2 decision and cushion its second place standing in Southern Oregon Jr. League play.

Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Klamath hosts Prineville in a single non-counting league game at Gem Stadium. Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Lakeview will be at Gem Stadium for a doubleheader with the first game counting towards league standings.

Manager Hi Hatfield's visiting legion team from Klamath and the local Crater Lake Motors team put on one of the tightest baseball games seen here in a long time Thursday night as they knocked heads over nine full innings before one of the clubs had the advantage.

Thursday night's Klamath-Medford game was highlighted by a brilliant pitching duel between Klamath's Blake Griggs and Medford's Dennis Barr. Griggs was touched for six scattered hits while he struck out 13 and walked three. Barr gave up only two hits to Klamath batters, struck out 18 and walked four. Medford errors—two in the ninth inning including one by Barr—didn't help the Crater Lake Motors cause.

After a Medford threat in the eighth inning was snuffed out by Griggs, Klamath came up in the Only Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees and Nelson Fox of the Chicago White Sox were named from the 1957 starters in the American, which will be missing such familiar names as Yogi Berra of New York, Harvey Kuenn and Al Kaline of Detroit and Williams.

The result of the voting was announced by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick at a press conference after Frank Slocum of the commissioner's office had toured the majors, distributing and collecting the ballots. He reported 235 votes in the American and 231 in the National.

Musial, who will be playing his 15th All-Star Game, received 201 of the 231 votes.

Top man in the American League was Boston's Frank Malzone at third base, with 186 votes. Williams, batting only .299, gave way to Bob Cerv, the thumping left fielder of the Kansas City Athletics who has been leading the league in runs batted in and home runs most of the time.

The closest fight was for second base in the American, where Fox nosed out Gil McDougald of the Yankees 109-104.

The old order really was upset in the American with Bill Skowron of the Yanks on first base despite Mickey Vernon's league leading batting average at Cleveland. Luis Aparicio of Chicago took over at shortstop with Kuenn, the usual tenant, shifting to center where he finished behind the Yanks' Mickey Mantle.

Jackie Jensen of Boston, who had been battling with Cerv for the home run title, ousted Detroit's Al Kaline from right field. Baltimore's Gus Triandos beat out both Sherm Lollar of Chicago and Berra for the catching job.

In the National League, Ernie Banks of Chicago won by a landslide at shortstop with 184 votes to 16 for Milwaukee's Johnny Logan. Frank Thomas of Pittsburgh beat out Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews for third base. Another Pirate, Bill Mazeroski, was picked for second.

Mays won center field with 105 votes.

Aaron also was an easy winner in right field. Bob Skinner of the Pirates was a surprising winner in left.

Milwaukee's Del Crandall was tabbed for catcher.

Lovett Holds Slim Margin

ONTARIO, Ore. (AP)—Biff Lovett of Portland held a slender one-stroke lead Friday going into the final 18-hole round of the Oregon Jaycee Junior Golf Tournament here.

Lovett fired a 71 in Thursday's opening round to take a one-stroke lead over Lynn Yturri of Ontario. Lovett is the 1958 Oregon junior champion. Yturri finished just behind him in that test.

In third place Friday was Fred Taylor of Beaverton. Tied at fourth were Mike Monroe of Medford and David Munro of Portland, who both shot 74s Thursday.

The top four finishers in the tourney here will represent the state in the national jaycee tournament in Tucson Aug. 18-23.

Other scores included: Bing Powell, Salem, 74; Dennis Soran, Klamath Falls, 79; Mike Cherry, Baker, 79; Pete Geertsens, Eugene, 80; Daryl Winn, Eugene, 80.

Gus Gestvang Hurls No-No

Mouldingcraft's Gus Gestvang, one of the old-timers in local men's softball action, separated the men from the boys Thursday night at Conger Field in a Men's Softball League game against Big Y.

Gestvang hurled a No-hit, no-run 2-0 game at the Big Y team allowing only two base runners—one on a walk, the other on an error. A 4-for-4 game at the plate by catcher Norm Guyer and Larry Comer's home run were more than enough for Gestvang's victory. Comer's homer came with the bases loaded in the second inning when the Mouldingcraft club scored 10 times.

In the other game, the Air Force Jets regained the victory trail with a 12-7 win over Hal's Sport Shop. The Jets broke a 7-all deadlock in the last of the fifth with a five-run rally. Frank Jones of Hal's hit a three-run home run for the winners.

Dodgers Top Braves Kansas City On Win Streak

Cards, Giants Nab Wins

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Well, look who ain't dead! Those Los Angeles Dodgers are breathing again, winning five of their last six in a drive to quit the cellar and extending their whammy over Milwaukee's National League champs to eight straight.

Right-hander Don Drysdale, the hoped-for ace who lost seven of his first eight decisions, has won two in a row for the first time this season.

He finally bagged his second complete game as the Dodgers beat the Braves 4-1 last night.

The second-place St. Louis Cardinals kept rolling, beating Pittsburgh 6-2 for a four-game sweep against the Pirates and a six-game winning streak. That kept them .003 percentage points ahead of the San Francisco Giants, who won two in a row for the first time in a month with a 5-1 victory at Cincinnati.

In the American League, the New York Yankees defeated the Chicago White Sox 4-3. Second-place Kansas City beat Washington 8-6 in 12 innings. Baltimore dropped Detroit 2-0 on Jack Harshman's five-hit pitching, and Boston handed Cleveland a 2-1 defeat.

Bums 4, Braves 1

The Dodgers got to Lew Burdette for a run in each of the first three innings. Charlie Neal's 11th homer bagged it in the second. Drysdale homered in the seventh.

Giants 5, Reds 1

The Giants scored a run in the first with the help of an error, then cracked a 1-1 tie with four in the eighth, capped by Orlando Cepeda's two-on 15th homer. Johnny Antonelli won his eighth. Harvey Haddix lost his fourth.

Cards 6, Bucs 2

The Cards, who have come behind in five games during the streak, did it again. An error by Bob Skinner opened the way for three runs in the seventh as Ken Boyer tripled and Gene Green, Curt Flood and Hobie Landrith followed with singles off loser Vern Law (7-5). Lindy McDaniel won his fourth.

Bill Mazeroski booted two in a two-run Cardinal ninth, giving the Pirates a total of 11 errors in the four-game set.

Here's a switch. Kansas City confronts the New York Yankees with a hot streak tonight, instead of the other way around. The A's have won six straight for the first time since 1933, thanks to the unexpected slugging of Hector Lopez.

After hitting only four home runs in 65 games, Lopez walloped three last night, driving in five runs and beating Washington 8-6 with a two-run shot in the 12th inning.

The Yankees, who open a three-game set at Kansas City tonight with a 7-1 game lead over the second-place A's, defeated the Chicago White Sox 4-3 yesterday.

Southpaw Jack Harshman blanked Detroit on five hits for a 2-0 Baltimore victory. And Boston defeated Cleveland 2-1 shortly before the Indians fired Manager Bobby Bragan and hired Joe Gordon.

A's 8, Nats 6

The A's riding their longest string since winning seven in a row in '53 back in Philadelphia, also collected two big runs on a triple by Bob Cerv. Roy Sievers drove in four Senators runs with his 14th and 15th homers.

Cerv's triple helped the A's tie it 6-all with four runs in the eighth, capped by Lopez's second homer. Then Hector put it away after a single by Preston Ward in the 12th against losing reliever Vito Valentini (1-1). Murry Dickson won his sixth in relief (12 innings).

NY 4, ChiSox 3

The Yankees, held to one hit for five innings, handed Dick Donovan his eighth defeat with three runs in the sixth, cracking a 1-1 tie on a two-run single by first baseman Bill Skowron. Norm Siebern's fourth homer clinched it in the seventh for Johnny Kucks.

BoSox 2, Tribe 1

Boston's Ted Williams broke up a 1-1 tie with his ninth home run in the ninth as relief ace Ike Delock, making his first start since last August, outduelled Cal McLish (3-3) with a five-hitter.

Harshman, now 6-6, gave up three doubles but seldom was in trouble while gaining his second 1957 shutout, both over Detroit and Billy Hoelt. A walk, Dick Williams's single and a sacrifice fly from Gus Triandos gave Harshman the run he needed in the first inning. Bob Boyd homered for the other run.

Bend Game Off; Kubs, Weed Vie

A scheduled semi-pro baseball game tonight at Gem Stadium has been called off according to Klamath Kub manager Irv Whitt.

The local Kubs were to meet Bend's Loggers this evening in a non-league baseball encounter. But Bend club officials notified Whitt late Thursday evening that due to financial problems, the team was being forced to dissolve and the trip here would have to be called off.

Whitt said the loss of the Bend game will give the local club just one game this week, the regular Sunday afternoon Northern California League battle against the Weeds Sons at Weed. Klamath's league-lead position will be in danger since Weed is one of the clubs to beat in this year's NCL race.

Going into Sunday's game, Floyd Linderman has retaken the individual batting lead for the Kubs in league games. The hard-hitting outfielder has collected 10 hits in 21 at bats for a .476 average to top the regulars. Whitt has moved into second spot with first baseman George Hanson dropping from first to third. Whitt is hitting .435, Hanson .393.

Linderman and Hanson are leading the team in runs batted in with totals of 15 and 10 respectively. Pacing the team's pitching is Charlie Bogle with a 3-0 record and Dave D'Olive who boasts a 2-1 Northern Cal reading.

The batting and pitching records:

AB	R	H	Pct.
D'Olive	8	1	.125
Dunster	8	1	.125
Linderman	21	8	.476
Whitt	23	4	.174

Carlos Ortiz Meets Busso

NEW YORK (AP)—If unbeaten Carlos Ortiz ever expects to fight for the title, he must handle the likes of Johnny Busso, the fellow New Yorker he meets tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Ortiz is unbeaten in 27 professional starts. He won 26 and the other was called a "no decision" bout in Hollywood when both he and Lou Filippo were cut in a 1957 bout.

The 5-7 lightweight, ranked No. 6 by the National Boxing Assn., was born in Puerto Rico but brought up in New York.

Ed Ferguson, his manager, has been ferguson him along slowly to the point where he now is ready to move on the top five. Soon he will be clamoring for a title shot at Joey Brown, who risks his Championship next month against Kenny Lane.

Busso will be remembered best for his knockdown-packed battle with Larry Boardman, whom he stopped in nine rounds April 11. In his most recent appearance, Busso easily whipped Lahouri Godih, the Algerian import, in a May 23 Garden bout.

NBC will broadcast and telecast at 10 p.m., EDT.

John Donatucci, former Villanova College athlete, is the shortstop for the Durham Bulls in the Carolina League.
