Pierce Just Misses No-No; Tribe Victor

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Everything turned out perfect for Joe Gordon and it might have for Billy Pierce, too, except for a perfectly normal impulse by pinchhitter Ed FitzGerald.

Gordon, in his first game as Cleveland manager, came up with a tactical move that helped the Indians to a 6-5 victory over the Baltimore Orioles Friday night.

Chicago 3, Nats 0

Pierce hurled his third straight shutout for the Chicago White Sox in beating the Washington Senators, 3-0, but there was a bit of heart-break for the 31-year-old southpaw even though he gained his seventh victory.

For eight and two-thirds innings, Pierce pitched perfect ball. All he had to do was retire one more batter to become the first left-hander in modern major league history to pitch a perfect game.

Washington manager Cookie Lavagetto sent up FitzGerald to hit for pitcher Russ Kemmerer. The crowd of 11,300 at Comiskey Park exhorted Pierce to nail down that 27th out, but FitzGerald had other ideas. He lined Pierce's first pitch inside the right field line for a double that broke the spell and was the Senators' first and last hit of the game.

Tribe 6, Birds 5

In Cleveland's victory over Baltimore, Gordon made what proved to be the winning move when he installed J. W. Porter behind the plate after Porter batted for Russ Nixon in the fifth inning.

Given a chance to hit again in the seventh, Porter singled home Rocky Colavito with the deciding run of the ball game. Colavito had just doubled to score Vic Power with the tying run.

Yanks 10, A's 3

The Yankees again stretched their American League lead to 8½ games and put the brakes on Kansas City's six-game winning streak with a 10-3 win over the Athletics.

New York sent 10 men to the plate in a six-run seventh inning that was highlighted by Gil McDougald's base-clearing double. Harry Simpson hit a three-run homer for the A's. Reliever Art Ditmar was credited with his second victory.

Tigers 7, Sox 4

Detroit spotted Boston four runs in the first inning and then bounced back to beat the Red Sox, 7-4, behind the air-tight relief pitching of George Susce, Tom Morgan and winner Bill Fischer. Ted Williams hit his 10th homer with one on in the first inning and Jackie Jensen hit his 20th with one on in the same frame off Frank Lary. Red Wilson's two-run single in the seventh broke a 4-4 tie.

LA 3, Braves 1

Los Angeles continued its mastery over Milwaukee, beating the National League leaders for the seventh straight time this season, 3-1. Dick Gray broke a 1-1 tie with a seventh inning homer off loser Joey Jay and John Roseboro added an insurance homer in the eighth. Sandy Koufax went the route for his sixth victory, giving up seven hits, including a home run by Hank Arron.

Despite the loss, the Braves remained a game-and-a-half ahead of the Cardinals and Giants, both of whom were defeated also.

Phils 5, Cards 4

The Phillies ended the Cardinals' six-game winning streak with a 5-4 triumph in 11 innings while the Redlegs came from behind to nip the Giants, 6-5. Pinch hitter Dave Philley delivered an 11th inning double off Billy Muffett that gave reliever Dick Farrell of the Phils his fifth victory of the season.

Alcohol Found In Westrope

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A coroner's office report says Jockey Westrope apparently had been drinking the day he was fatally hurt in a Hollywood Park spill.

The medical report Friday brought expressions of shocked disbelief from turf associates.

"I never saw him so sober in his life," said Bert Thompson, managing director of the Jockey Guild, who talked to the 40-year-old veteran shortly before the mishap.

Westrope was flung from his mount, Well Away, when the 5-year-old filly bolted into the rail in the feature race eight days ago. He died less than two hours later of internal bleeding.

The coroner's report said Westrope's blood contained .12 of 1 per cent of alcohol. The National Safety Council says a person is intoxicated if his blood contains .15 of 1 per cent of alcohol.

The day he died, Westrope had mounts in the first, second, fifth and sixth races before the fatal seventh. Track officials said films showed he did all he could to straighten out the bolting filly before she hit the rail.

Wendell Cassidy, presiding steward, said he talked to Westrope in the jockey room for 20 minutes before the accident without detecting any alcohol.

Royals Move To 2nd Place

By United Press International

A four-run rally in the seventh inning gave Rochester an 8-5 victory over Havana Friday night and lifted the Royals into second place in International League standings.

Top-rung Montreal lost a chance to increase its lead as Richmond whitewashed the Royals, 5-0, Columbus sent Toronto down to third place with a 7-6 triumph and Buffalo took a pair from Miami, 6-3, 5-1.

Rochester moved to within a game and a half of the lead as the Royals launched a 14-hit attack and received some tight relief pitching. Dick Ricketts picked up his seventh win as the starter. He has lost seven.

Bob Weisler tossed a seven-hitter as Richmond came up with two-run tallies in the eighth and ninth to give him his sixth victory in nine decisions.

Toronto fell a half game behind Rochester when four runs in the last two frames just missed catching Columbus' lead. The Jets counted four times in the first and added three insurance runs in the seventh. Whammy Douglas, with help from Luis Arroyo in the ninth, made his record 9-5.

Two homers by Ray Noble and one by Luke Easter gave Buffalo its win in the opener. Freddy Rodriguez picked up his first decision. Bud also gained his initial win as he tossed a five-hit nightcap.

Soran Places High In JC Golf Tourney

ONTARIO, Ore. (AP) — Biff Lovett of Portland won his second major golf tournament of the summer—and his second straight triumph over Lynn Yturri.

Lovett fired a sizzling 69 Friday in winning the Oregon Jaycee Junior Tournament. He had a two-day total of 140—two strokes better than Yturri.

Earlier this month, Lovett won the Oregon junior title by nipping Yturri, a smooth-stroking teenager from Ontario.

Yturri was but one stroke behind Lovett going into the final round Friday, and he kept that margin going until the final hole.

On the 18th, Yturri got a par 3 while Lovett canned a birdie.

Despite his second-place finish, though, Yturri still qualified for the National Jaycee Tourney in Tucson Aug. 18-23.

The top four finishers in the state tourney qualify for the national test. So, in addition to Lovett and Yturri, the state will be represented by Dave Munro of Beaverton and Mickey Shaw of Portland.

Munro Friday shot a 74 for a two-day total of 148, while Shaw finished fourth with 76-77—153.

Dennis Soran of Klamath Falls and Jerry Forrester of Portland tied for fifth with identical 154s.

Soran, though, became the alternate for the Tucson tourney by defeating Forrester on the second hole of a sudden death play-off.

Tourney Leaders:

Biff Lovett, Portland, 71-69—140.
