FRIENDS MET TO SIP MARTINIS and leave a little linen for the then bride-to-be Sue Ramsby at a shower in her honor Tuesday, June 24 at the O. L. Stoner's River House on Conger Avenue. The gifts were unwrapped at the door and displayed, while guests drifted through the cozy home and garden. The Martini Maids—Mrs. Stoner,

Mrs. Laurence Brown, Mrs. George Clark and Mrs. Elbert Stiles — served sandwiches, salads and cake during the afternoon social. The honoree since a few hours ago is now Mrs. Robert Milton Ede of Portland. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. Ramsby, Klamath Falls.

Frances Lee leaves soon to return to Portland where Phil Lee has been transferred as assistant sales manager for Sallow and Wright. The Lees came to Klamath Falls 19 years ago as newcomers. Their four children were born here and attended local schools. Frances and Barbara became fast friends through many years of PTA work. — Photo by Otto Ellis

What started out to be a get-together of an old bridge group to bid Barbara a fond farewell, snowballed into a sizable gathering of 30 counted in her host of friends in Klamath Falls.

It wasn't a surprise party for Barbara — but she surprised everyone at the luncheon when she not only thanked them for the pleasant send-off and farewell gift — but made a graceful little speech to each one in turn — paying individual and personal tributes to her. It was an unexpected and impressive interlude of spontaneous and spontaneous speaking — and she had the undivided attention of almost 30 listeners. The few who couldn't make it to the luncheon are now pondering "what they missed."

She left Saturday, June 21, for Corvallis, with daughter, Susie. Son Kent is in line with his dad, and is working on a fishing boat. Bob Cooper has been in Alaska for some time — transferred there with the U.S. Forest Service. In Corvallis, Barbara, who had been teaching at Henley High School here, will go to summer school. After that, the two girls will join the two men of the family in Juneau, where they will live. — Photo by Otto Ellis
