Mr. & Mrs. B. B. Stevens Cut Ornate Wedding Cake After Sacred Heart Rites

Bouquets of white peonies formed the background for the late May wedding of Frances Patricia Valdez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Valdez, Route 3, and Bertram (Mike) Barker Stevens III, son of Mrs. Bernice L. Stevens, 330 Pine Street. Monsignor T. P. Casey solemnized the Nuptial Mass at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, May 31, in Sacred Heart Church.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, chose a white waltz length princess style Chantilly lace gown, trimmed with pearls. Her rhinestone trimmed veil was fingertip and a pill box hat, trimmed with pearls, held the veil in place. The bride carried a white pearl prayerbook, a gift of the groom, which was centered with white rosebuds, and she carried an antique ivory rosary.

For something borrowed and blue, Frances wore a blue garter which she had borrowed from a friend, Mrs. Bill Stewart, who had worn it at her wedding four years ago. The ivory rosary she carried had been used by a great aunt and her grandmother.

Kathleen Valdez, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a princess styled dress of mint green acetate with matching slippers and hat, pearl jewelry and white gloves. Her bouquet was of tangerine carnations.

Frank Wandell was best man for the bridegroom, and the ushers were John Thomas Hellingsworth, uncle of the bridegroom, and John Raymond Childers, uncle of the bride.

Mrs. D. C. Hefley was organist.

The mother of the bride chose a dusty blue dress with a lace top with which she wore pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue nylon dress, trimmed with white, and white accessories. Pink rosebud corsages were worn by both mothers.

Mrs. James Lenninger and Mrs. Raymond Childers, aunts of the bride, were at the coffee service at the reception in the parish hall of the church.

Mary Guerrero, and Esther Storts served the three-tiered wedding cake to the guests, after the bride and bridegroom had cut the first slice. The cake was centered with the traditional bride and bridegroom with a wedding bell as background, and had pink and white daisies at the base.

The punch, in two punch bowls decorated with pink and white daisies, was served by Mrs. Guadalupe Olvera, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Richard Glidden, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Harold Howard registered the guests, and Lisa Guerrero and Mary Valdez, sister of the bridegroom, were at the gift table.

Frances is a graduate of KUMS with the class of 1950 and is employed at the First National Bank. She is a member of the Venture Club. Mike attended schools in Alabama, and served with the Navy. He is employed in Klamath Falls.

For the wedding trip to Northern California, Frances wore a light blue suit with white lace gloves and hat and black patent accessories. Her pearl jewelry was a gift from the bridegroom.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Marin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Valdez, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Santos, Olvera and family, all of

K.F. Manzanita Chapter Meets

Manzanita Chapter No. 172, OES held a regular meeting June 25 in the Scottish Rite Temple with Evelyn Blehn, worthy patron and Marion Grant, worthy patron, presiding.

Helen Rightmeyer was escorted to the east, introduced and welcomed. It was announced she has been appointed to serve this coming year on the state executive board, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

An addendum was presented, honoring the presiding officers at the last meeting, before installation of new officers and summer recess.

Friends at the First National Bank honored the bride with a shower early in May.

PEREZ-DECKER VOWS SAID IN DUNSMUIR ST. JOHN'S

DUNSMUIR — Favian Anthony Perez Jr., Dunsmuir, claimed Sharon Decker of Weed as his bride at afternoon ceremonies at St. John's Catholic Church on June 7.

The daughter of Coda Decker of Weed, the bride is a recent graduate of Weed High School. She chose a ballerina length dress of white lace with a nylon overskirt for the nuptials and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white gladioli.

Special guests for the event were the members who have been initiated and affiliated the past 15 months. Hostesses for the evening were Arlene Dixon, Maud Cox and Clella MacDonald.

A crown cap of white lace straw and white pumps completed her costume.

The bride's only attendant was Elaine McDonald of Weed. Pete Padilla of Dunsmuir was best man. The Rev. James Vaughn of Weed officiated.

A reception for the bride and bridegroom was held following the ceremony at St. John's Parish Hall. The couple will make their home in Dunsmuir where the bridegroom is employed by Southern Pacific Company.

Perez, a 1954 graduate of Dunsmuir High School, has served with the National Guard. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Perez Sr., Dunsmuir.

Ange Saucedo of Tracy, an aunt of the bridegroom, was among the wedding guests.

Garden Wedding Unites Lakeview Couple

LAKEVIEW—Beneath an archway covered with small white roses and mock orange on the lawn of her parents home, Barbara Jean Oakley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oakley of the Westside, became the bride of Lynn Reid Albertson, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 22. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. M. Bekkedahl.

Soloist Leslie Pardue was accompanied by Mrs. Ed Sundent. The bride's gown was ballerina length of all-over nylon lace with fitted bodice and tiered skirt. The close fitting jacket had full length sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held by a halo of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses with satin bow and streamers.

Maid-of-honor for her sister was Patricia Oakley wearing a frock of white nylon with blue smocking, fashioned with fitted long bodice, full skirt and puffed cap sleeves. Her hat was of blue sequins with veil, and she carried a gardenia corsage.

Best man for his brother was Jack Albertson. Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Albertson of the Westside.

Mrs. Oakley chose beige tweed and Mrs. Albertson a blue-flowered nylon for their costumes for the wedding. Both had white rose corsages.

Approximately 125 guests were present for the ceremony and reception which followed immediately. The beautiful four-tiered wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Norma Blalock. Centered on a large mirror it was decorated in pink, white and silver, and topped with the traditional bride and groom miniature replicas. Mrs. Blalock was assisted in serving the cake by Mrs. Calvin Hanks, Mrs. Bill Kinney, an aunt of the bride, and Pat Oakley. Pouring were Mrs. Leo Albertson, Mrs. Chester Clark and Mrs. Orla Shullanberger. Maudie Jean Bateman circulated the guest book.

For her going-away costume the bride chose a blue flowered dacron dress with white accessories, and white rose corsage.

Following a wedding trip to Crater Lake and the Oregon Coast, the couple is now residing in the recently remodeled home on the Albertson ranch, which is being operated by the groom and his brother.

Relatives of the bride from out-of-county were her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thompson; her aunt, Mrs. Bill Kinney with her husband and three daughters, and a great-aunt, Mrs. Louise Burnett, all of Ojai, California. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Albertson, the groom's uncle and aunt from Bandon; Jim Mikesell of South Bend, Indiana, and Linda Horne of Seattle.
