Rhea Garrett Is June Bride Of D. A. Van DenBerg

LAKEVIEW — Rhea Jeannette Garrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Garrett of the Westside, became the bride of Daniel Arthur VanDenBerg on June 11 in Lakeview First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. C. Wayne Julier officiated at the 4 p.m. double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with pink gladioli and candelabra. Organist was Mrs. Jim Stewart and soloist, Leslie Pardue. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white lace over satin, with three-quarter sleeves and scalloped neckline. A panel of net ruffles cascaded from the waist to the hemline of the skirt in back. Her dress-length veil descended from a lace cap with seed pearl trim.

The bride's attendants was her sister, little Barbara Garrett, who was flower girl. Candelighters were her young cousins, Mike and Larry Garrett. The bride's mother wore a white knit suit with white hat and gloves, a pink rosebud corsage, and other accessories of pink. Mrs. VanDenBerg was unable to be present for her son's wedding. Over 100 family members and friends gathered for the reception which was immediately after the ceremony in the Christian Education Building of the church. The elaborate, three-tiered wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Norma Blalock, was placed on a mirror-paned setting of white swans and peddling bells. Cutting and serving the cake were aunts of the bride, Mrs. George Garrett, Mrs. Bud Garrett and Mrs. Marvin Moulton. Coffee and punch were served by Mrs. Roy Benefiel, Mrs. Norman Bond and Mrs. Glen Grindstaff. Judith Snider and Carole Kubat circulated the guest book; at the gift table, Carole Kubat was assisted by Mrs. Lane Thornton, Mrs. Clarence Byington and Sandra Mulkey. Starting out on a wedding trip to the home of her husband's parents in Colorado, the bride wore a blue knit suit with white accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Rhea was a graduate of the Lakeview High School in the June, 1958 class, following four years of student body activities which included several class and student societies and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

body office. She was also prominent in many 4-H projects, and was queen of the 1957 Lake County Roundup. Her husband attended high school in Paonia, Colorado, and they plan to make their future home in that city.

Falvey-Sheldon Vows On June 9

ALTURAS — Faith Sheldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Sheldon, Alturas, and Charles E. Falvey of Canby, exchanged nuptial vows on Monday afternoon, June 9, in Alturas Federated Church, the Rev. Karl E. Olson, officiant. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Faith's sister, Barbara, served as maid of honor, and their brother, William Sheldon, was best man. For the informal wedding, Faith wore a beige suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The car driven by the newlyweds on their honeymoon, was a wedding gift from the family. After their return the Falveys will be at home to friends in Canby, where Charles is employed on the Hoyt Ranch.

Cochran-Sumner Rites

Favero-Rockwell Vows Exchanged

MONTAGUE—Bouquets of white gladioli with green foliage decorated St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Yreka for the wedding of Shirley Rockwell to Pfc. James Favero, USAF, on Saturday, June 14. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Walter Bray of Montague and Forrest N. Rockwell of Monterey, California. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Favero of Yreka. The Rev. Fr. Thomas Boland officiated at the 11 a.m. nuptial mass and officiated at the double ring ceremony in the presence of the family and close friends. The bride was escorted down the aisle by her stepfather, Walter Bray. She wore a full-skirted ballerina length gown of white nylon lace designed with a bateau neckline. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held by a tiara of seed pearls, and her jewelry included a pearl necklace and earrings. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis tied with narrow white satin streamers. Rochelle Grazer of Yreka, the bride's attendant, wore an orchid nylon chiffon gown fashioned with a full ballerina length skirt, shirred bodice and capped sleeves. She wore an orchid colored Juliete cap of twisted nylon and carried a colonial bouquet of orchid colored carnations. David Favero was best man for his brother. The reception took place at the bride's home in Montague. Focal point of the reception table was a two-tiered cake topped with miniature bride and bridegroom figures. Pink candles set in crystal candleabra and pink rosebuds completed the table appointments. After the newlyweds had cut the first slice of cake, refreshments were served by the bride's mother, assisted by Mrs. Henley Clawson at the punch bowl and coffee service. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bray chose a soft gray orlon chemise trimmed in white and white accessories. Mrs. Favero wore a navy blue afternoon dress with black accessories. Both women wore gardenia corsages. Following the reception, the new Mrs. Favero changed to a navy blue dress with white accessories for the brief wedding trip to the coast. She pinned the orchid corsage from her bouquet at her shoulder. Out of town guests included the bride's father and his wife, the Forrest N. Rockwells of Monterey; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rockwell of San Rafael; the bridegroom's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Henley Clawson of Hornbrook. Shirley is a native of Montague and graduated from Montague elementary and Yreka high schools. Until her marriage she was employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in Yreka. Her husband was born at Hill, California, but has lived most of his life in Yreka where he graduated from high school. Pfc. Favero is stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington. The young couple will reside in Olympia, Washington, during his period of service.

Alameda-Hubble Wedding In Garden At Hubble Home

BONANZA—The garden of her parents home in Bonanza was the setting for the wedding of Shirley Hubble to Anthony Alameda in a morning ceremony on June 1. The double ring service was read by the Rev. A. O. Broyles, a retired minister, before a white trellis covered with colorful iris blossoms. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. King Hubble, Shirley was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Alameda of Rhode Island. Forty relatives and close friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride wore a white tulle ballerina length dress and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and Stephanotis. Mrs. Pavitt (Marjorie) Newnham was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a pale blue tulle sheath dress with darker blue accessories and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Pavitt Newnham performed best man duties. For traveling, the bride wore a tan summer suit with brown accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The young couple will make their home at Newport, Oregon. Shirley is a graduate of Bonanza High School and Oregon Technical Institute, and she worked as a dental technician at Vancouver, Washington, before her marriage. A wedding breakfast was served at 11 a.m. in the Bronco Room at the Chuck Wagon Cafe. Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Elva Hallfingler of Grass Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McDowell of Central Point and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Whitmore and family of Corvallis.
