

Business News

By FLORENCE JENKINS

MR. and MRS. ARGETSINGER

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Argetsinger, who operate the Resale House, 2929 So. 4th St., announce they have purchased Peterson's Bargain House at Lakeview.

Guests of the Herald and News during the hours of 8 to 10 a.m. are frequently invited to have a cup of coffee "on the house"

Another contest announced in the advertising columns of the Herald and News is the limerick contest known as the Oil Heat-O-Rama.

Frank Kennedy, local Woolworth manager, is expected home tomorrow from National Guard duty at Fort Lewis.

George Bratton, Jr. (known to all his friends as Bill), long associated with the meat packing business in Klamath County.

Howard Stroud, manager of Wards store here for 10 years, is now head of the meat department of the Oregon Food Store at Lakeview.

Lyle M. Durrell, service man and service manager of the Klamath Falls Sears store for 10 years and 10 months.

Norquist Bros., Sweet Home, low bidder at $191,666, for grading and surfacing 12.733 miles of the Drew Ranch road on the Klamath Indian reservation.

A recently completed survey reveals that, by the end of March, California had a total of $4,838,294.46 invested in Oregon economy in the form of mortgage loans.

Among the 30 insurance agents who were graduated on June 12 from the school for agents, sponsored by Insurance Company of North America Companies.

The name Philip is from the Greek Philippos, "lover of horses."

operate the service station himself.

Walter H. Fleet, Klamath Falls delegate to the 12th annual convention of the Oregon Association of Public Accountants held at Pendleton.

Greyhound's nationwide package express operations increased 12.3 per cent in the first five months of 1958.

Theodore O. Sullivan of Klamath Falls, a representative of the Aetna Life Insurance Co., is attending a special training course at the company's home office at Hartford, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Insley and son, C. Nicholas Insley, will be among those present at the Western Life Insurance Company's annual convention being held this week-end through Monday at Richardson's Springs resort in Northern California.

In 1901 the German Butchers Guild prepared a hot dog that was a half mile in length and weighed 285 pounds.

Walter M. Risse, work unit conservationist on the Langell Valley Soil Conservation District at Bonanza, left Saturday for two weeks active reserve training at Fort Lewis.

Roger Reid is holding down the office during his absence.

Three bids were received by George R. Meyers, purchasing and contracting officer, 40th Fighter Group, Kingsley Field, at the 10 a.m. bid opening on June 23.

Award of contract was recommended for G. C. Motley, Inc., on low bid of $14,966, for modifying the heating system in Bldgs. 203, 206, 208 and 209 at Kingsley Field after bid opening at 10 a.m. on June 26.

Bids for modification of the existing heating plant at the Bonanza school will be opened on July 10 at 10 a.m. in the Klamath County school district office.

Work includes installing a No. 3 stoker in the high school section, putting in four steam unit heaters in the shop and two steam unit heaters in the old gym to replace the present gas heaters.

Work includes installing a new steam boiler, plenum chamber and on the second floor, raising of hot air ducts from floor level to a height of about seven feet.

A recently completed survey reveals that, by the end of March, California had a total of $4,838,294.46 invested in Oregon economy in the form of mortgage loans.

Among the 30 insurance agents who were graduated on June 12 from the school for agents, sponsored by Insurance Company of North America Companies.

The name Philip is from the Greek Philippos, "lover of horses."

"DENNIS THE MENACE"

"HAVE ANOTHER COOKY, JOEY. I GOT LOTS MORE IN HERE!"

4-H NEWS

4-H SUMMER CAMP

Plans are being made for the annual Klamath County 4-H Summer Camp to be held July 20-25 at the Crescent Lake Organizational Camp.

The cost of camp will be $15 for the week; applications are now being accepted at the 4-H Club office.

Four-H Club agents, Francis Skinner and Lillian Hoffman, will be on duty at all times.

Boys and girls over 15 years of age who are interested in being camp counselors are asked to contact the 4-H Club office.

Three bids were received by George R. Meyers, purchasing and contracting officer, 40th Fighter Group, Kingsley Field.

Award of contract was recommended for G. C. Motley, Inc., on low bid of $14,966, for modifying the heating system in Bldgs. 203, 206, 208 and 209 at Kingsley Field after bid opening at 10 a.m. on June 26.

Bids for modification of the existing heating plant at the Bonanza school will be opened on July 10 at 10 a.m. in the Klamath County school district office.

Work includes installing a No. 3 stoker in the high school section, putting in four steam unit heaters in the shop and two steam unit heaters in the old gym to replace the present gas heaters.

Work includes installing a new steam boiler, plenum chamber and on the second floor, raising of hot air ducts from floor level to a height of about seven feet.

A recently completed survey reveals that, by the end of March, California had a total of $4,838,294.46 invested in Oregon economy in the form of mortgage loans.

Among the 30 insurance agents who were graduated on June 12 from the school for agents, sponsored by Insurance Company of North America Companies.

The name Philip is from the Greek Philippos, "lover of horses."

4-H SUMMER CAMP

Plans are being made for the annual Klamath County 4-H Summer Camp to be held July 20-25 at the Crescent Lake Organizational Camp.

The cost of camp will be $15 for the week; applications are now being accepted at the 4-H Club office.

Four-H Club agents, Francis Skinner and Lillian Hoffman, will be on duty at all times.

Boys and girls over 15 years of age who are interested in being camp counselors are asked to contact the 4-H Club office.

Three bids were received by George R. Meyers, purchasing and contracting officer, 40th Fighter Group, Kingsley Field.

Award of contract was recommended for G. C. Motley, Inc., on low bid of $14,966, for modifying the heating system in Bldgs. 203, 206, 208 and 209 at Kingsley Field after bid opening at 10 a.m. on June 26.

Bids for modification of the existing heating plant at the Bonanza school will be opened on July 10 at 10 a.m. in the Klamath County school district office.

Work includes installing a No. 3 stoker in the high school section, putting in four steam unit heaters in the shop and two steam unit heaters in the old gym to replace the present gas heaters.

Work includes installing a new steam boiler, plenum chamber and on the second floor, raising of hot air ducts from floor level to a height of about seven feet.

A recently completed survey reveals that, by the end of March, California had a total of $4,838,294.46 invested in Oregon economy in the form of mortgage loans.

Among the 30 insurance agents who were graduated on June 12 from the school for agents, sponsored by Insurance Company of North America Companies.

The name Philip is from the Greek Philippos, "lover of horses."

New Chamber Head Urges Community Patriotism

DUNSMUIR—Lee Huddle, newly named president of the Dunsmuir Chamber of Commerce, urged members to resort to "community patriotism" at the chamber meeting at the city hall Wednesday night.

Camp Space Open, 'Y' Says

Five additional openings for boys 10 to 14 at the Klamath County Young Men's Christian Association resident camp, to be held at Diamond Lake July 5 to 12, have just been announced by Paul Campbell, director of the association.

This is the seventh season for the camp. Campbell will again serve as camp director, and his all-adult staff will include Bill Warren, general secretary of the Ashland YMCA, who will serve as program director and will be in charge of all waterfront activities.

Mrs. Edith Johnson, Klamath Falls, will again serve as head cook for the camp. The camp is situated on the shoreline of the southwest corner of Diamond Lake, facing Mt. Thielsen.

Fees for the eight-day session are $21 for "Y" members and $22 for non-members, including insurance and transportation.

Probation Head Plans To Quit

YREKA — Lester E. Newton announced his resignation this week as Siskiyou County probation officer to become the principal of the Montague Elementary School this fall.

A meeting of the Siskiyou County Probation Committee will be held on July 8 to consider applicants for the position of county probation officer. The committee will be assisted by George Saleeby, chief of the Probation and Delinquency Prevention Services Division of the California Youth Authority.

Mason as a board member and named Dr. H. A. Meredith to replace him. Skip Schaefer was accepted the resignation of B. F. named corresponding secretary.

The Southern Pacific payroll in May of this year was only 10 per cent lower than May of last year, he stated. He suggested that those over a shrinking railroad payroll should go after that remaining 90 per cent.

Norman Green, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen representative, felt the "furs" should talk as much and as loudly as the "raginners" to promote a progressive town.

Dom Sirianni, chairman of a committee named to seek a new president following the resignation of Armand Brunel, placed Huddle's name before the members.

THE WORLD'S FUNNIEST MEN

run riot in the world's wildest city!

TOWER Starts TODAY!

Surging Spectacle-- Overwhelming the Screen with Splendor and Violence!

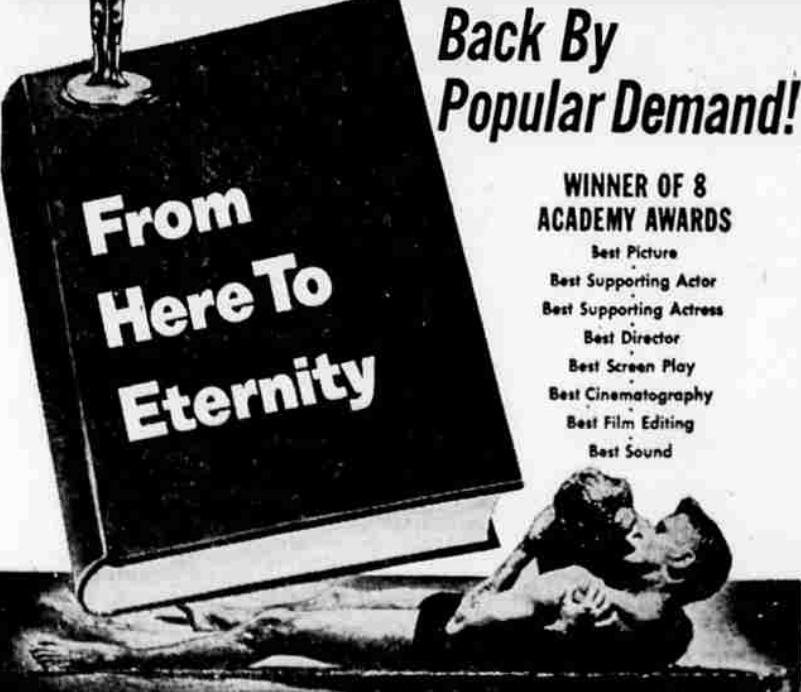

Attila

ANTHONY QUINN as ATTILA THE HUN-- "scourge of God"! SOPHIA LOREN as HONORIA-- "scourge of men"!

THUNDERING JETS Starts TODAY! 1:09 - 4:06 - 7:03 10:00

ACADEMY AWARD WINNER!

ESQUIRE Starts TODAY! 12:50 - 3:05 5:20 - 7:35 9:49