Husband, looking up from his newspaper: "What's happened between you and the retail merchants, dear? I see they complain that business is off."
—Nuggets

In Grandma's day the biggest baby-sitter problem was diaper rash.—D. O. Flynn in Quote

In an office of the Pentagon, Washington's huge monument to bureaucracy, there's this sign: "If the boss calls, get his name."—New York Times

Cheer up. There was one fellow who was unlucky all his life. But things changed suddenly. While digging his grave, they struck oil.
—Link-Belt News

A famous movie star once complained to his psychiatrist, "I can't help it, doctor—I keep thinking my inferiority complex is bigger and better than anybody else's!"
—Hollywood Reporter

Son Set to Son Rise
All right, you've got your teen-age son in bed at last. Now here's a warning: You'd better get some rest and try to gather strength so you can pry Him out of bed tomorrow morning.
—Richard Armour

Vacation Deflation
With death and taxes, also list The neighbor's dissertations On all the perfect weather missed By people on vacations.
—Georgie Starbuck Galbraith in Wall Street Journal

—Guy Langley

"Don't stand there like a fool, put them on me!"

Little Tommy decided to run away from home. He tied a few sandwiches in a handkerchief, packed a pathetic little suitcase, and went boldly down the road. In a couple of hours he was back. He left his suitcase ostentatiously in the living room and cleared his throat self-importantly. But his mother pretended not to notice. Just as the boy was about to give up trying to get a rise out of Mom, the family pooch wandered in. "Hey, Ma," Tommy shouted, "is that the same dog you folks had when I left?"—Lion

You can not brush bad breath away

Almost everyone uses tooth paste... yet almost everyone has had breath occasionally. Germs in the mouth cause most bad breath. No tooth paste kills germs the way Listerine Antiseptic does—on contact, by millions. Listerine stops bad breath four times better than tooth paste. Rinse with Listerine every time you brush your teeth.
