

Zsa Zsa Gabor Backs Out As Hostess With Mostest, Cancels Trujillo Soiree

HOLLYWOOD (UPD) — Actress Zsa Zsa Gabor bowed out today as the "hostess with the mostest" for Gen. Rafael Trujillo Jr.'s star-studded soiree at the luxurious Beverly Hilton Hotel July 8.

The blonde, Hungarian-born actress sent out telegrams which read:

"I am hereby giving up my role as the hostess with the mostest and I regret that the party which I had planned to give on July the eighth for my dear friend his excellency General Rafael Trujillo Jr. must be cancelled. So many friends requested invitations that I am afraid the party got out of hand. I hope that my early invitation has not inconvenienced you.

Signed, love Zsa Zsa."

A rift between Zsa Zsa and the free-spending, 29-year-old son of Dominican strongman Rafael Trujillo was denied by Miss

Gabor's publicity representative. It was not immediately known if the generous general, who earned the title of playboy with his penchant for bestowing gifts on actresses, planned to go ahead with plans for a party on his 550-foot personal "man of war," the Angella.

The four-masted vessel, furnished with $70,000 rugs and oil paintings, still floats at the dock in Los Angeles Harbor, waiting to take Trujillo back home to the Dominican Republic.

Plans for a yacht party were announced by Trujillo, father of six, on his return from Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., where he received a "certificate of attendance" only at the U.S. Army's Command and General Staff School.

Zsa Zsa claimed from the first that she would be the hostess of the event, expected to draw film-land's top personalities. The plan was to have a party at a hotel before holding the nautical version.

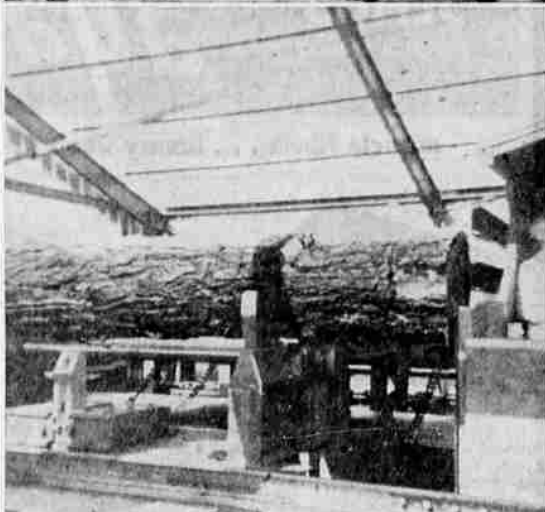

Young Trujillo lavished Zsa Zsa, Kim Novak and Joan Collins with expensive sports cars and furs.

The gifts drew the attention of Washington lawmakers who wanted to know if any foreign funds earmarked for the Dominican Republic were used by young Trujillo.

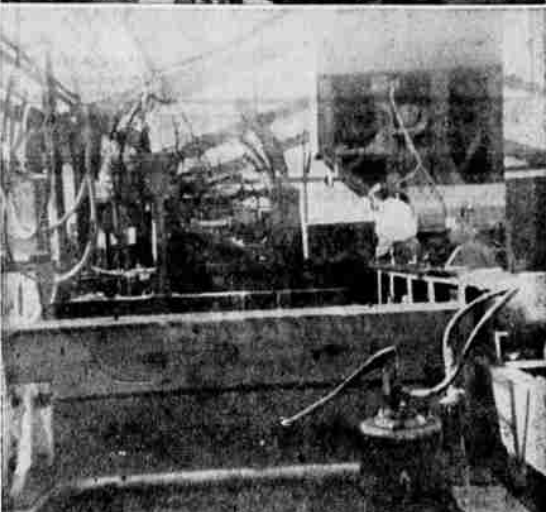

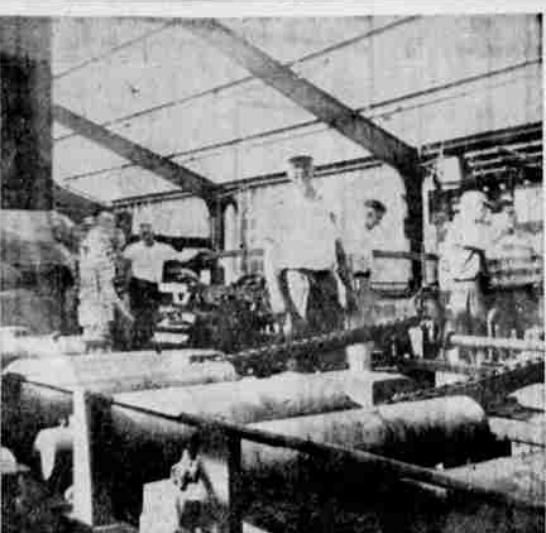

The dashing officer assured the lawmakers the money was his own.

Trujillo publicly professed his love for Miss Novak on his first stay in film-land and hinted the slow boat back to the Dominican Republic might be a honeymoon trip.

Kim, however, has been absent on his more recent visits to the West Coast.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD MCGEE, upper left, were hosts recently to an open house at the rebuilt Bly Lumber Company at Bly. Refreshments were served to 250 guests from a big table the centerpiece of which was a miniature replica of a sawmill complete with circular saws. The other pictures show a log being cut that day for the visitors and other views of the interior. Dedication of the mill was made by the pastor of the First Christian Missionary Alliance Church of Bly and both regular day and night crews were on hand to explain the various operations. Among the people in the group are McGee, Donald McLeod and Jerry Dillavou.

Shrine Circus Slated Here

Dates for the 10th annual Shrine Circus in Klamath Falls will be Tuesday and Wednesday, August 12 and 13, C. B. (Briek) Leach, president of the Klamath Falls Shrine Club, announced today. There will be both matinee and night performances.

The circus will be produced again by Polack Bros. Circus, the biggest of its kind in the world and the same circus which shows annually in 70 major cities throughout the United States and Canada under Shrine sponsorship.

Leach has named Lyle Kellstrom as general chairman and E. L. (Asia) Miner as co-chairman.

Continuing the policy of past years, hundreds of children throughout the Klamath Basin will be given an opportunity to see the circus without cost. This will be accomplished through tickets donated by members of the Masonic orders as well as business firms, organizations and other individuals. The distribution of these tickets will be handled by a special committee, Leach said.

Joseph O'Donnell, advance agent for Polack Bros., is in Klamath Falls and he and Mrs. O'Donnell have set up office in the old Klamath Armory, corner of Main and Spring streets. The telephone is TU 2-5933.

"I plant and as soon as it comes up they eat it all. I plant it again and they eat it all again."

It may take months to determine the total loss. It is bound to get worse because the hoppers have taken wine, and are moving rapidly across the plains. As mature adults, they are laying the eggs for future generations of hoppers.

The first eggs were reported Saturday on land owned by former State Sen. Don C. Collins of Kit Carson. He is former president of the National Cattlemen's Assn. A Jim Reed, Cheyenne County agent, said that was the site where Gov. Steve McNichols decided to declare a disaster. The Eisenhower administration turned down the governor's plea for 10 million dollars in federal aid and the disaster classification.

Nation Enjoys Fair Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fair and warm weather was the rule in nearly all sections of the country today.

Some showers, however, were indicated the day in a few areas, mostly in the Western half of the country.

Showers sprinkled parts of Montana, New Mexico, the northern Texas Panhandle and along the Washington-Oregon coast. Some light showers were reported in areas from the upper Mississippi Valley across the Great Lakes to eastern upper New York state.

Temperatures were 8 to 12 degrees higher than 24 hours earlier in the southern Great Lakes region as warm air covered the eastern half of the country.

The mercury climbed to nearly 100 degrees yesterday from Utah and Colorado into the central plains. It reached 100 in Norfolk, Neb., and 101 in Valentine, Neb.

Cool Weather Is Forecast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Oregon will have cool, rainy weather most of this week, but sunshine may break through to give the state at least one warm day for the Fourth of July weekend, the Weather Bureau said Monday.

Shower-heavy clouds in the Gulf of Alaska are expected to sweep across the state, following the present moist air into the plateau region of the Southwest.

Some warm weather should break into the cloudy-cool pattern at mid-week, and the clear skies may extend into one day of the holiday, the Weather Bureau said.

Pendleton recorded the state's high of 73 Sunday and Roseburg a 72. Salem had 74 inches of rain, and Portland reported 36 of an inch including a brief afternoon cloudburst. Redmond, Newport, Eugene and Lakeview also had showers Sunday.

Defense Set In Shooting

JOHN DAY (AP) — The defense of Robert Sprout, 43-year-old cattleman charged with murder in the gunshot death of a neighboring rancher, will be in the hands of a local firm of attorneys and Bruce Spaulding, Portland.

Spaulding, who was here for a weekend conference in the case, said the first feasible trial date probably would be in September.

Sprout is held in the Grant County jail without bail on the death of Harlan (Link) Williams, his brother-in-law and neighbor.

The two men met at a fence in a dispute over a right-of-way for a road, and in gunplay Williams fell dead.

Orville B. Yokum, attorney here for Sprout, said Sprout told him Williams threatened to shoot him and did fire, but the shots missed.

The last case of prominence in which Spaulding figured as defense attorney was that of Marjorie Smith, who was acquitted of a murder charge in the dynamite bomb death of her husband, Oliver Kermit Smith, Portland lawyer.

Bus Seating Measure Okayed

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The Louisiana Senate passed and sent to the governor Sunday night two bills designed to bypass a federal court order to end segregated bus seating in New Orleans.

The bills, passed by 34-0 votes, repeal Louisiana bus and street car segregation laws named in a recent federal court order.

Rep. E. W. Gravolet Jr. of Plaquemines Parish, had argued his bills would nullify the federal order and permit operating the bus under a private seating policy.

Under the House passed a third bus segregation bill last week which permits the first person on a double seat to select who shall sit beside him.

A RARE PROFIT
MIAMI BEACH (UPD) — A Roman coin about 1,500 years old was found in a Miami Beach parking meter and it netted the city 20 cents profit. A rare coin dealer declared the ancient two-cent piece virtually worthless but he gave city officials a quarter for it "just to be generous."

Dash Made: Game Played

LONDON (AP) — Prince Philip, handsome husband of Queen Elizabeth II, made a 660-mile land, sea and air dash Sunday for a game of polo.

Philip slipped away during a royal visit with the Queen on tiny Holy Island, three miles off the bleak northeast coast.

A destroyer took him to the mainland. A waiting car whisked him to a nearby Royal Air Force Station, and a plane of the Queen's Flight flew him 260 miles to Maidenhead.

A short drive to Windsor, the royal family's country home, and Philip was ready for the big game 300 miles from his starting point.

He scored two goals to help his team to win. Then the Prince flew 360 miles to catch up with the Queen again in Scotland.

Abuse Case Hearing Set

SALEM (AP) — Daniel Cole, 60, was scheduled to appear Monday afternoon in Marion County District Court on a charge of assault and battery.

His 68-year-old father, Eugene, taken first to a hospital from an enclosure where he lived at his son's Stayton home, is now at a nursing home.

Stayton Police Chief Everett Norflet arrested the son 10 days ago on reports the father was being abused. The chief said he saw the elderly man being kicked on the ground and the son pouring water on him.

An electrically charged wire fenced part of the area where the father lived in a squalid trailer.

The son, free on $2,500 bond, said he felt he had not mistreated his father.

Stuck Boat To Be Freed

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — The grounded river boat Wenaha, stranded 71 miles up the Snake River, is due to be refloated Tuesday when more water is released to the stream.

The 52-foot boat with 10 passengers aboard got hung up last Thursday when the river level dropped three feet. The Idaho Power Co. impounded water upstream for its Brownlee Dam project.

Capt. Keith Rodenhough, boat operator for the Inland Navigation Co., said Idaho Power had planned to release a surge of water Saturday to put the Wenaha back in business.

But a conflict with movement of salmon in the river forced postponement until tomorrow, he said. The Wenaha carries mail and supplies two days a week on a 93-mile route to families living along the river. It also has space for about 50 tourists.

Demand Made By Red China

HONG KONG (AP) — Red China demanded Monday that the United States resume ambassadorial talks in Geneva within 15 days, coupling it with a threat against Formosa.

The talks were halted last Dec. 12 when U.S. Ambassador Alexis Johnson and Red China Ambassador Wang Ping-nan held their 73rd meeting and adjourned indefinitely.

The talks were begun in 1955 to negotiate the release of about 40 Americans imprisoned in China. Most of the Americans have been freed and the talks turned to other issues between the two countries.

Peiping Radio broadcast the demand for resumption of talks, but insisted the Red regime did not care whether negotiations were resumed.

"The Chinese people are by no means afraid of U.S. aggression and there is no reason whatever that they should be pinning for talks with the United States," Peiping said.

"Building socialism with lightning speed, the Chinese people are perfectly strong enough to liberate their territory of Taiwan (Formosa). No force on earth can stop the great cause of the Chinese people."

The U.S. 7th Fleet Guards Formosa, Chinese Nationalist stronghold, from invasion.

Whale Dies In Plane On Way To Home In Zoo

NEW YORK (AP) — The great heart of Bertha, the only white whale in captivity, pumped every eight seconds, as a whale's heart should, as she neared Idlewild Airport yesterday.

It had been an exhausting 11-hour trip from Seattle for Bertha. She started east with a healthy pearl gray complexion. On the way she was swathed in canvas and blankets, which were soaked with water every hour.

Dr. Carleton Ray, assistant director of the aquarium at Coney Island who made the trip with Bertha, said that although her skin gradually hardened and turned dark brown, she seemed in good health until 15 minutes out of Idlewild.

At that point, the 450-pound mammal died. An autopsy by aquarium staff physicians indicated a pulmonary injury had caused death.

Song Festival Held Sunday

BEAVERCREEK, Ore. (AP) — The 22nd annual Welsh song festival was held Sunday at Bryn Sojan Church in this Clackamas County community.

The church was filled for the singing but few of those attending were children. They do not understand the language, whose use in homes of the district died out a generation ago.

The church was built in 1864 and still has 18 members. Services are usually conducted in English, but occasionally a minister who speaks Welsh is present. Services in that language were conducted Sunday by the Rev. J. R. Johns of Seattle.
