

Congress May Get Antitrust

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress may yet decide this summer whether to give pro football, basketball and hockey some of baseball's freedom from the antitrust laws.

The Senate Antimonopoly subcommittee has decided to open hearings on the legal status of sports soon, probably July 8 or 9.

Subcommittee Chairman Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said there was no move in a closed meeting to kill a sports bill passed by the House.

"It was the sense of the subcommittee that we go into this with an open mind to get all the facts and problems," Kefauver said.

Opponents of the House bill have hoped the Senate would put it aside this year. That would mean the House and Senate, now ending the 85th Congress, would have to start all over again next year.

Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.) said last week he would fight the House measure to the limit. Celler heads the House Antitrust subcommittee. He pushed a bill to give antitrust exemptions only to practices found "reasonably necessary" to the sports.

He House turned this one down for a bill by Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) and supported by Rep. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.), senior Republican on the House subcommittee. This bill would flatly exempt such practices as player drafts, contract options, trades, territorial rights and self-regulation of TV-radio broadcasts.

Ticket sales, concessions and other commercial activities would be governed by antitrust laws.

Baseball is now wholly exempt, as the result of Supreme Court decisions. But the court has held that pro football is wholly covered and implied that no other sport may enjoy baseball's immunity.

Merryman Tops Gunners

John Merryman and Vern Moore led a field of Klamath Gun Club marksmen that competed on the Wocus range Sunday in spite of a wind that gave most of the shooters trouble.

Merryman gained a second leg on the E. E. Driscoll trophy while Moore won the 16 yard event.

Sunday, July 13, Moore and Lichtenstern will vie for the third legs on both the Nelson Reed and 16 yard cups.

Results:

Vern Moore	48-42-90
Bill Davis	47-46-93
Howard Pernel	47-46-93
Al Carpenter	46-46-90
E. E. Driscoll	46-44-90
Dennis Knowles	46-45-91
Nelson Reed	45-45-90
Vern Brader	42-44-86
Ray Billings	42-41-73
Wilbur Smith	41-41-73
M. Weaver	40-40-70
B. Beeves	40-40-70
Dick Hunt	37-43-80
John Merryman	22x-49-71x75
J. Lichtenstern	— 41-41

GS, Moose Sweep Nods In BRL Play

A combination of nine hits and eight Redwing errors paved the way for an 18-7 Gun Store victory in one of the two Babe Ruth League games played on Conger Field Monday night. The Moose earned a 16-5 win over Henley Sporting Goods in much the same fashion in the other half of the doubleheader.

The winning pitcher, Robateck worked the full distance for the Gun Store; five innings, because of a more than 10 run lead at the end of the fifth. During his stint he gave up only four safeties to the luckless Redwing nine.

Burnett and Lancaster shared the mound chores for the losers; Burnett being charged with the defeat.

The Gun Store broke loose in the bottom of the fourth inning as they collected four hits, three free passes and were handed a total of four Redwing bobbles to score 10 runs.

The leading Gun Store hitters were pitcher Robateck and catcher Springer; Robateck poked a homer and a single while Springer banged three singles.

Centerfielder McClure walloped a double for the Wings.

A nine run fifth inning brought the victorious Moose squad up from a 5-4 deficit and then a three-run homer by Joe Bianchi in the top of the sixth gave the Moose the necessary 10-run bulge which automatically called a halt to the test.

The Moose got nine hits off the pitching combination of the loser's Earl Allbritton and John Crumrine. Allbritton was charged with the loss as Crumrine, normally a catcher relieved him in the disastrous fifth stanza.

Henley reached the winner Phelps, for only three hits, and was held to five runs despite a total of seven errors committed by the Moose.

The linescores:

Redwings	031	3-7-4-8
Gun Store	053	(10)-18-9-5

Burnett, Lancaster (4), and Amberg; Robateck and Springer.

Moose	310	093-16-9-7
Henley	302	000-5-3-6

Phelps and Ewing; Allbritton, Crumrine (5) and Crumrine, De-grande (5).

Curfew Upsets Managers

CHICAGO (AP)—At least two major league managers are doing a slow burn over Pennsylvania's Sunday blue law, which halts games at 7 p.m., but National League President Warren Giles takes a philosophical view.

"We've lived with it for years," said Giles, "and we'll live with it some more."

The St. Louis, San Francisco and Cincinnati teams have a suspended game apiece to make up as a result of the curfew on Sunday play after 7 p.m. with the host Philadelphia Phillies. Their doubleheaders were cut short during June.

The three clubs are locked in a first-division race behind leading Milwaukee.

"It looks like we're certainly getting into a situation," stormed Manager Bill Rigney of the San Francisco Giants. His plique was echoed by Fred Hutchinson, boss of the Cards.

"It's a silly law," Hutchinson snapped. "It's wrong to start something and not finish it."

Hutchinson's view is not endorsed by Giles.

"We could throw out the suspended game rule and call the game completed," Giles told the Associated Press last night, "but I'm not in favor of that. I don't contemplate any changes."

The league rules provide that a suspended game be completed, if possible, before the two teams meet again. The game is resumed from the exact situation in which it ended.

In the event that the suspended game cannot be played off during the regular season, the abbreviated match goes into the record books on the basis of scores at the cutoff time.

Decision Won By Giambra

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Middleweight Joey Giambra won a financial gamble and recaptured some boxing prestige Monday night on the slim margin of an unpopular split decision over Joey Giardello.

The loser from Rosedale, N.Y., complained he lost his first bout in two years on a home town decision. Giardello is the No. 2 contender.

Giambra, now looking forward to some bigger paydays, collected $3,710 for his 10 rounds at the Cow Palace. Giardello, who outweighted his foe 160 pounds to 156½, came out loser but picked up $10,000.

The $10,000 was a flat guarantee while the former was figured on a percentage of the net gate of $22,850.59 — the gamble Giambra took to get the bout.

Giambra, once ranked high among middleweights, had gone to the ring just once since losing to Rory Calhoun here last August. His manager, Mike Scanlan, said Monday night that Joey suffered a broken jaw in the fourth round of that one but continued the full 10.

Neither the National Boxing Assn. nor Ring Magazine ranked him among the first 10 middleweights for June but the NBA July list, compiled before Monday night's fight, did have him No. 8.

Today's Sport Parade Crawford To Bring Art, Mitts To Town

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK (UPI)—A rising young artist will be in town next week for two diverse exhibitions on canvas.

Come Tuesday, Harwood Crawford, a commercial artist who does brilliantly plumaged birds in oils for a calendar company, will put on an exhibit of his work.

Come Friday, this same Harwood Crawford — known to aficionados of the many art as Mickey Crawford — will climb through the ropes at Madison Square Garden in an attempt to daub the features of one Gaspar Ortega.

Harwood — or "Mickey" as you'd better call him unless you can run like Bobby Morrow — hopes that both exhibitions are a success. The first would merely provide aesthetic satisfaction, even though the viewers will be members of the cauliflower set.

BIG ONE
The second show is the big one, however, because Mickey has ideas of becoming the first world boxing champion produced by the city of Saginaw, Mich., since Kid Lavigne ruled the lightweight ranks in the gay '90's.

Crawford, a 24-year-old boxer, has come last in recent months to reach fifth ranking among the welterweights.

Crawford, a former flyweight, his career jelled rapidly after long periods of exasperation. This explains why, at 24, he has had only 24 bouts in a business where they start young and fade early.

He was tempted at one stage to give up the ring and concentrate

SL Bee Stars Lead Hitters

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Carlos Bernier and Dick Stuart of Salt Lake City has the Pacific Coast League batting race all done up in a sack today as usual.

Bernier blazed away at a .384 average to lead in percentage and also had collected 95 hits while Stuart had smashed 39 home runs and driven in 76 tallies while showing the way in both those divisions.

Dartmouth basketball coach Doggie Julian coached the sport at Ashland, Pa., High School and once reretred 24 high school games in a 28-day period.

Ben Van Alstyne has been head golf coach at Michigan State for 26 years.

Investigation disclosed that Mickey Crawford, the fighter, was the same Harwood Crawford who worked in Greenwald's own firm.

Greenwald, the artist, subsequently became Greenwald the manager.

Crawford, the artist, became Mickey the fighter.

It has been a happy combination. Mickey has won four in a row this year to run his record to 22 wins in 24 bouts against two losses. His victims include such as Paddy De Marco, Wallace (Bud) Smith, Chico Vejar and Gil Turner.

Ortega, his next opponent, has a stiff edge in experience. The Mexican Indian, who ranks fourth among the welters, has won 46 of 58 bouts against 11 losses and one draw. He has split in two bouts this year.

"It'll be a big week," says Crawford. "Imagine, two exhibitions in one week."
