Southern All-Stars Win Coast Loop Play

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—The Southern All-Stars blasted five home runs out of Capilano Stadium here Monday night to crush the North 13-4 in the Pacific Coast League's 13th annual All-Star game. A near-capacity crowd of 8,349 watched manager Red Davis' power hitters snuff under their northern opponents. After each team scored two runs in the first, the North took its only lead briefly in the second on singles by Jim Baxes, Charlie White and pinchhitter Al Lary. The South tied it up with an unearned run in the third, then broke the contest wide open with a four-run outburst in the sixth inning. Carlos Bernier lofted a 365-foot homer over the leftfield wall to start it off. It was in the eighth that the Southern squad really went to work. Three homers sailed out of the park in that one. The crowd was the largest of the year at Vancouver and exceeded by almost 2,000 the attendance at Los Angeles in 1957. Three PCL teams played exhibitions at the halfway mark breather in the league's season. Seattle traveled to Anchorage, Alaska, to humble a local All-Star team, 8-0. Sacramento beat Lewiston, winners of the Northwest League's first half of play, 6-1, at Lewiston. Portland lost to Eugene of the NWL, 8-6, at Eugene.
