

A GIFT BOX of Grandma's Cookies is a welcome gift to take along to your weekend hostess or to the outdoor barbecue party to which you and the family have been invited. The three rows across are Date-Filled Oatmeal at the top, Date Filled Sugar, center, and Butter-milk Wafers, bottom row. At the side is shown an opened package of Grandma's Lemon Cremes. Each variety comes packaged in cellophane and singly, or in an assortment of varieties. Grandma's Cookies are welcome at any meal.

FRUIT COCKTAIL
To one quart of melon balls (your choice), add one can (No. 2 size) of pineapple chunks. Make a ginger sauce of 1 cup of sugar, 1/2 cup white corn syrup, 1/2 cup drained pineapple syrup and 2 tablespoons of grated green ginger (or use chopped candied ginger). Cook sauce about 6 minutes. Cool and add 2 tablespoons lime or lemon juice. Marinate the fruit in the ginger sauce. Serve in sherbert glasses, or, if preferred, in halves of very small cantaloupe with a garnish of mint. Serves 6 to 8 persons.

CODFISH BALLS
You'll need about two cups of mashed potatoes to combine with a four-ounce package of shredded dried codfish for codfish balls. Soak the codfish according to package directions before using.

Taste Tempters
Husbands have been known to eat happily through a menu of left-overs when soothed with a glamorous first course. To brighten a drab menu, serve Havana Fruit Cup—smooth, velvety Calavo avocado and pineapple in a tangy honey dressing. Haas avocados—the leading California variety of summer avocados—are plentiful in the markets now. You'll know this luscious fruit by its dark, pebbly skin.

HAVANA FRUIT CUP
2 cups cubed Calavo avocado
Fresh lime or lemon juice
Salt
2 cups canned or frozen pineapple chunks
Honey dressing
To prepare avocado, cut into halves and remove seed and skin. Cut Calavo avocado into cubes and sprinkle lightly with lime juice and salt. Arrange in chilled glasses, alternately with pineapple chunks. Pour honey dressing over all just before serving. To make dressing: Combine equal portions lime or lemon juice and honey, and blend thoroughly.

Makes 6 servings.
