He is the son of Mrs. John Lehto and the late John Lehto; and his wife, Shirley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Faus, all of Klamath Falls.

The mothers are pictured at the home of Mrs. O. E. Powell, 1134 North Eighth Street, where Mrs. Powell and Mrs. L. A. Murphy were co-hostesses for the shower on June 18.

Gifts were brought unwrapped and after they were received by the "proxies" for Shirley and John, they were gift-wrapped by the guests. Approximately 25 were on the guest list.

Decorations were pink peonies and rosebuds and the table decoration was a stork-vase filled with rosebuds. A small sign in the arrangement indicated that Ole Doc Stork was "headed for Alaska."

Bride Walks Under Arch Of White Roses To Meet Bridegroom At Altar

GILCHRIST — The Gilchrist Methodist Church was the setting for the June 1 wedding of Wanda Lucille Hunter to Fred Page. The church was decorated with roses, tulips and ferns, and the bride walked under an arch of white roses placed in front of the altar to meet her bridegroom.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hunter, Springfield, Wanda was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Page, Gilchrist.

The Rev. W. N. Byars read the 1:30 p.m. ceremony before 240 assembled guests. Mrs. Thomas Colister was vocal soloist and was accompanied by Mrs. Charles Shotts, organist.

The bride wore a white satin matelasse gown and a veil covered with white sequins. She carried a bouquet of roses and tulips.

Cozy Martin, cousin of the bride, Springfield, was maid of honor. Sharon Page, sister of the bridegroom, and Jean Page, cousin of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. All attendants wore pink ballerina length dresses and carried bouquets of pink roses.

The bride's mother wore a smoke blue dress and white accessories, and her corsage was white roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a white dress and black accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Following a reception at the church, the couple honeymooned in Gilchrist and Spokane where Fred is stationed with the U.S. Air Force.

The young Mrs. Page is a graduate of Springfield High School and her husband is a graduate of Gilchrist High School.

Out-of-town guests present for the wedding included the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hunter; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Martin and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Martin and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Doug Dwyer and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Keeman and daughter, Erlene Ware and Mrs. J. L. Martin, the bride's grandmother, all of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leims, Adin, California, aunt and uncle of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Stover, Bend.

Mrs. C. G. Stotts Is DAR Speaker

AN AUGUST 9 wedding is planned by Kathryn Thomlinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Thomlinson, Redding to Mike Runge of Klamath Falls. The bridegroom elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Runge, this city. Kathryn is a 1958 graduate of Shasta Union High School, Redding. Her future husband is a graduate this year from Shasta College. Both plan to attend Chico State College.

BETHEL NO. 6

Public installation of officers for Bethel No. 6, International Order of Job's Daughters, was Saturday, June 7, in the Masonic Temple. The lodge room was decorated with baskets of spring flowers, and "Queen Jancy" was lettered on the window draperies in the east.

Candles in the east and west were lighted by candlelighters Kay Horn and Linda Lenninger. Retiring Honored Queen Sharon McConnell, installing officer, was assisted by the following past honored queens: Sandra Adams, guide; Norma Jean Lyons, chaplain; Hazel Jo DeLamater, musician; Habs Moore, honored queen of Bethel No. 61, marshal; Becky Short, senior princess of Bethel No. 51, Henley, recorder; Jo Ann Marshall, senior princess of Bethel No. 61, senior custodian; and Carolyn Hunt, honored queen of Bethel No. 51, junior custodian.

New officers installed were Jancy Meador, honored queen; Pat Crawley, senior princess; Ann Anderson, junior princess; Susan Moss, guide; Linda Heyden, marshal; Neoma Young, chaplain; Helen Faulkner, recorder; Becky Mack, musician; Terri Goeckner, treasurer; Donna Hubbard, senior custodian.

Marva Mortenson, junior custodian; Amy Kerr, first messenger; Beverly Westlund, second messenger; Jane Ann Craig, third messenger; Barbara Canine, fourth messenger; Sharon Kunz, fifth messenger; Stephie Walker, inner guard; Lynette Lawrence, outer guard; Barbara Crapo, historian; Peggy Seideman, soloist; Sheila Hale, lady of the lights; and Joan Wizer, assistant recorder.

Assisting with the installation was the Klamath Falls Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Mrs. Robert Bass, sister of Honored Queen Jancy, sang "I Walk with God," accompanied by Mrs. Jane Craig.

Visitors from the Masonic Lodge, Eastern Star, White Shrine and Rainbow of Girls were introduced and welcomed. Gifts were presented to the incoming and outgoing queens. Escorted and introduced by Honored Queen Jancy were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Meador.

After the ceremony, the Starlighters Trio played for dancing in the dining room, where refreshments were served. Pink and white was used for a false ceiling of crepe paper streamers, a lattice fence and at the individual and serving tables.

When setting hair at home, decide on a loose, soft effect or a smaller, tight curl and set your hair accordingly. A large pin curl produces a larger, softer wave than a tight pin curl.

Pink And Crystal Decor For Shower

MONTAGUE—Shirley Rockwell, bride-elect of Jim Favero, both of Montague, was honored recently at a pre-nuptial shower at the home of Mrs. Healy Claxton in Hornbrook.

Focal point of the room was the stork-vase with an umbrella hung from the ceiling to protect the gifts from a shower of simulated rain of tinsel streamers from the ceiling. Bouquets of roses and crystal candleholders with pink candles decorated the refreshment table, and punch was served from a crystal bowl.

Among the guests were Mrs. Walt Bray, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Frank Favero, mother of Shirley's fiancé.

Games were played before the guest of honor opened her gifts, with Mrs. Darold Crawford and Mrs. Loren Cummins winning the prizes.

Vacationing

Mr. and Mrs. Louis N. Morris celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary June 22 by driving to Canada for a two week vacation.

Mrs. Morris, the former Gilda Gray is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Loomis, former Klamath Falls residents, now living in Coos Bay. Mrs. Morris attended Sacred Heart Academy here.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Morris, 2401 Eberlein Street, and currently is employed by a lumber company in the coast city.

The couple, married in Klamath Falls in 1946, have a son, Preston, 9 years old.

Shower For Bride

MALIN—Honored at a prettily arranged bridal shower was Katherine Micka of Malin who was the bride-elect of Norman Oliva. About 80 guests attended the event in the community hall.

Assisting Katherine in opening her many gifts were her sisters, Norma Jean, Carol Ann and Karen. Entertainment included piano selections by Marcia Kenyon, Shirley Bunnell, and a duet by Mrs. Eileen Herringshaw and Carol Ann Micka. Kathryn and Margaret Jo Herringshaw sang a duet accompanied on the piano by their mother, Mrs. Eileen Herringshaw.

An artistic floral arrangement in a pink and lavender, made by Mrs. J. Walter Browning, decorated the refreshment table.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. A. Bunnell, Mrs. Louie Lyon, Mrs. Dorothy Unruh, Mrs. Carlo Cornetti, Mrs. Ben Johnson, Mrs. Hubert Morelock, Mrs. Mary Drziel, Mrs. Dick Henzel, Mrs. Carl McVay and Mrs. Browning.

Serving at the punch bowl was Mrs. Jerry Micka and Mrs. Frank Oliva poured coffee.
