

IMAGINE CROSSING COUNTRY on a 2,500 mile trek with these three canine fellows in a convertible. But Captain and Mrs. Richard G. Horne did just that, traveling from Laredo Air Force Base in Texas to Klamath Falls. There was a parakeet also in the party, Purrer, the family's white cat, was shipped by express after he registered zero on plans to take him by car. The Weimaraners, gentle as kittens, are Sheen on the floor to left, mother of the other two, Sable on the davenport and Suede, all 110 pounds of him, seated by the Captain who left by air June 7 from San Francisco to be stationed at Osan in Korea as air operations officer in the Air Division headquarters. Mrs. Horne will remain here to be near her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Hughey. Mrs. Horne will make her home at 2041 Vine Street.

MOUNT SHASTA BETHEL NO. 130 INSTALLS HONORED QUEEN

WEED—Newly elected and appointed officers of the International Order of Job's Daughters, Mount Shasta Bethel No. 130, removed white covered individual miniature copies of "The Book of Job" from a purple cross as they made entrance and took formation of a cross for ceremonies of installation in White Pine Hall here Saturday night, June 7. Andrea Schneberger, installed honored queen, presented the books as gifts for the new corps of officers. "The Book of Job" was also the theme for the evening program booklet presented to nearly 200 guests attending. Christina Kersey, outgoing honored queen, installing officer, was assisted by past honored queens of the Bethel, including Mrs. Marsha Morris, installing guide, Yreka; Muriel Astmann, installing marshal. Other installing officers were: Ann Frank, installing junior custodian, Mount Shasta; Mrs. Eleanor Klepach, installing recorder; Sandra Hughes, installing senior custodian, Weed; Judy Moore, past honored queen of Yreka Bethel, installing chaplain; and Mrs. William Davis, Weed installing musician. Marla Jo Barnum, Mount Shasta, served as cherub for the registration of officers. Besides Queen Andrea, they were Laniac Gaynor, senior princess, Weed; Sandra Cross, junior princess, Mount Shasta; Mary La Barre, guide, Dunsuir; and Leslie Haines, marshal, Mount Shasta. Appointed officers are Brenda Sheldon, senior custodian; Selma Ruth, junior custodian; Norma Holden, recorder; Shirley Graves, treasurer; Nichole Schneberger, chaplain; and Shirley Holley, librarian. Inner guard, Lillian Dagget; outer guard, Ethel Frazier; and flag bearer, Pamela Mills. "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Mrs. Hazel Hickey immediately following the queen's installation. Mrs. Katherine Morford, deputy grand guardian, Yreka, and guardian of the Yreka Bethel No. 69 was escorted and introduced preceding the installation ceremonies. Others escorted and introduced were Mrs. Nelsena Nelson, Mount Shasta and Chester Kimrey, Weed, Bethel guardian and associate guardian, respectively; Mrs. Shirley Hickey McGregor, past honored queen of Mount Shasta Bethel, now of San Francisco; Mrs. George Walter, Dunsuir, past Bethel guardian. A Job's Daughter ring was presented as a gift to the newly installed honored queen by her sister Nichole, in behalf of their great aunts, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Schneberger are the parents of the two girls. Entertainment following the ceremonies included tap and ballet routines by Loretta Dawson, Janis Dorrell and Shirley Williams. Refreshments were served from a decorated buffet table. Dancing was added entertainment for the remainder of the evening.

SOJOURNERS INSTALLATION

Officers for the new term were installed at the regular luncheon meeting of Sojourners Club on Wednesday, June 11, in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel. Installing officer, Mrs. E. O. Jackson, installed the following: Mrs. Robert Wright, president; Mrs. Vernon Neet, vice president; Mrs. Ted McDaniel, secretary; and Mrs. Walt Barke, treasurer. A clever and brief outline of the club's history was written and read by Mrs. Vernon Neet. Mrs. George Ashbaugh, retiring president, received a token gift of appreciation of her outstanding contribution to Sojourners during her term of office. Mrs. Wright named the new board members as follows: Mrs. Fran Reed, membership; Mrs. Caroline Adams, hospitality; Mrs. Margaret Wallace, historian; Mrs. Rita Gleason, remembrance; Mrs. Shirley Horton, bylaws; and Mrs. Harriette Brotherhood, publicity. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Lucy England, Mrs. Carol McDaniels and Mrs. June Fillmore. Greeted as first and second time guests respectively were Mrs. L. F. Hamilton and Mrs. J. W. Nordyke. Cards were played during the afternoon, with the following winners and prizes awarded accordingly: Mrs. Barbara Holliday and Mrs. Ethel Dibble, bridge; Mrs. Anna Cook, canasta; and Mrs. Clemence Newton, pinochle. Mrs. Lyman arranged games played by the 22 guests. Each guest listed her prediction as to the baby's date of arrival, weight and sex and suggested a name. Prize winners for games at the party were Mrs. Darrell Ferns, LaPine; Mrs. Nick Klerk, Fort Rock, and Mrs. Mark Ferns, LaPine, who will be the baby's great-grandmother. Refreshments followed the opening of gifts by Mrs. Pitcher. Also attending from another community was Mrs. Marvin Dawson of LaPine. Sixteen children attended with their mothers.
