Police Report New Assault

Police reported today another assault took place last night near the carnival grounds where a woman was cut up Tuesday night.

Latest victim was 16-year-old Stanley A. Coon of 3651 Flint Street.

He came to Klamath Valley Hospital for treatment of a three-inch gash in his forehead and multiple bruises on the face. Hospital authorities called police.

The youth told them he had been approaching the carnival via the Safeway parking lot at South Sixth and Shasta Way when three youths he didn't know approached him from behind.

After tapping him on the shoulder, one used a "bright instrument" about a foot long to strike him in the head, young Coon told officers.

He went to his knees and then was kicked in the abdomen and other areas until he lost consciousness, he said. When he came to, his assailants had fled, he said. Tuesday night, Phyllis Hill of Chiloquin was cut and struck by two women sitting on either side of her in the back seat of an auto parked on the grocery lot, she reported to police. No complaint was filed.

Camp Site At Park Opened

The Rim Road at Crater Lake National Park was opened to travel on July 1 and the East Road, down to Lost Creek was being opened the evening of July 3, according to Jack Broadbent, chief ranger at the park. The latter road makes accessible the dozen camp sites for trailers and camping on Lost Creek.

Standard Oil Company is constructing a new service station across the road from its present station, operated by Dave Williams, at park headquarters. Gasoline, oil and tire service is available within the park each year from the end of May into October.

Precipitation during June this year was 5.41 inches compared with normal precipitation of 2.76 inches, Broadbent reports. Abnormally wet weather is blamed for the slight drop in travel in the park. So far this year there have been 60,341 visitors to the park, compared with 61,720 last year, or a drop of 2.23 per cent, he said.

Cat-astrophe; 'Wild Creature' Meets Just End

This is the story of a gray alley cat whom we'll call Tom. He came near to terrorizing residents in the 400 block of Pacific Terrace.

Tom, described as a "wild" creature, indeed, met his justified end yesterday at the hands of Klamath Falls police.

For nearly a year, he had managed to escape all traps, to elude the poundmaster and had positively refused to be chased away by tired Pacific Terrace residents.

Tom took great delight in getting into basements, tearing up things and making himself a nuisance in general.

Final yesterday, Mrs. Hgry B. Leedy of 429 Pacific Terrace had had enough and called police.

The cat, she said, couldn't be kept from getting into her basement, tracking up the family car and making sleep-disturbing noises at night. Mrs. Leedy had tried closing all basement doors tightly but Tom managed to sneak in anyway.

Police, who are called upon to investigate all types of criminals, checked the area further and learned the feline had recently crept into a bedroom of the C. A. Griffin home at 435 Pacific Terrace.

In his successful escape efforts, Tom clawed a set of curtains in a mighty leap toward a window.

Officers learned also that the L. H. Strid family in the same block had gone so far as to keep him in their basement to guard him out.

Police investigated a clever stake-out of the area, trapped the overconfident Thomas and shot him dead, paying once again, crime doesn't pay—even for cats.

NO PARKING — Parking will be forbidden on Main Street between Second and Spring tomorrow from 6 a.m. until after the parade. Police Chief Howard said parking will probably be allowed to resume sometime between 11 a.m. and noon when the parade is over.

SMOKEY RODGERS whose "Western Caravan" will provide entertainment at the Friday and Saturday night dances to be presented at the Old Armory by the Klamath Basin Celebration Council. TV artist, disc jockey, composer, vocalist, banjoist and guitarist, Smokey fronts a band which includes vocalist LeRoy Harris, steel guitarist Buck Wayne and guitarist Tommy Turman, with Pedro on the accordion, Cactus at the fiddle, Phillip Ranson playing drums, and Robert Frye, bass. The outfit is coming here directly from San Diego where it is a regular attraction at the Bostonia Ballroom. Dancing on the Fourth will be from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m., and on July 5, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Beatty Roping Club Clears Rodeo Misunderstanding

BEATTY—To clear up the misunderstanding which has developed over the July 4 and 5 amateur rodeo at Beatty, an explanation was made today by a spokesman for the Beatty Roping Club which has sponsored the Fourth of July rodeo at Beatty for the last five years.

It was officially decided at the June 18 meeting of the roping club not to sponsor an event this year in competition with the Basin Celebration Council's announced Fourth of July celebration.

Some of the rodeo fans of the Beatty area still felt they should have a hometown show on the July 4 weekend. This group has leased the Beatty rodeo grounds from the Beatty Roping Club and will put on an amateur rodeo on July 4 and 5, starting at 1:30 p.m. each day.

The Beatty Roping Club holds the first open rodeo of the season in the Klamath Basin each year as the Memorial Day Jackpot Rodeo late in May. It is possible, the club's spokesman said, that an early fall rodeo may be held by the Beatty Roping Club. It would be slated to follow the July 25, 26 and 27 dates of the professional rodeo scheduled by the Klamath Basin Roundup Association in Klamath Falls.

At this year's Memorial Day event, approximately 70 cowboys participated. It was held on May 30 and 31 at the Beatty rodeo grounds. Among the outstanding cowboys were Bob Rodgers and John Barry, both of Lakeview; Dale Sprout of Tulelake and Donnie Johnson of Keno who won the top money. The club plans a repeat performance for May, 1959.

This year's officers of the Beatty Roping Club are O. T. Anderson Jr., president; Sandy Miller, vice president and Rhodin Pfeiffer, secretary-treasurer.

Paries Enters Not Guilty Plea

Joe Paries, 62, charged with second degree murder in connection with the death of Carl W. Holiday last March 15, today pleaded not guilty in circuit court.

Judge Frank B. Reeg tentatively pleaded not guilty in circuit court, by set September 8 for trial.

Paries is accused of killing Holiday during a drinking bout in a cabin near Sprague River. The defendant is represented by Attorney David R. Vandenberg Jr.

CORRECTION

Yesterday's Herald and News carried a photograph of the saddle donated by the Sharp Grain Company, the Merrill Pharmacy, and the Griggs Market Grocery of Merrill, which will reward the high point man in Friday's and Saturday's rodeo. The caption incorrectly stated that the Newell Growers Association was one of the donors, and omitted mention of the Sharp Grain Company. The Herald and News regrets this error, which was due to its being incorrectly informed.

NOTICE!

The Members Of The Klamath Auto Dealers Association Will Be

CLOSED — July 4th - 5th - 6th

Three Days

They are available at Rodeo Headquarters, 530 Main Street, telephone TU 2-0110.

Merrill will put on its fireworks display at 8 o'clock Friday, and the Klamath Falls municipal fireworks display will be fired off just above the "K" on K Hill, beginning at 9 p.m. Fire Chief Roy Rouse urges all spectators to stay off K Hill during the display. It is dangerous to be there and also somewhat silly, the chief says, since the fireworks cannot be seen very well from the point they are fired from.

Because of the fireworks the July 4 dance at the Old Armory, featuring Smokey Rodgers and his troupe, will begin at 10 p.m. and continue to 2 a.m.

The Saturday dance, also featuring Smokey Rodgers at the Old Armory, will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Sunday will begin with a Buckaroo Breakfast, to be served at the fairgrounds from 5 to 10 a.m. by the Klamath Saddle Club and Jay-Cettes. Priced at $1.25, the breakfast will feature steak, eggs, hash browns, flapjacks and coffee.

The final event of the celebration will be the Junior Rodeo, which, like the senior rodeos, will begin with a cutting horse exhibition at 12:30 p.m., the rodeo proper beginning at 1 o'clock.

Events for children 8 to 13 will include calf roping (breakaway loops) and calf riding. Those 14 to 18 have steer riding and calf roping events reserved for them, while bareback riding will be limited to persons 16 to 18.

The junior rodeo events with no age restrictions will include a barrel race, pole bending, scurry race and horse races. The five horse races will include one for Shetland ponies, one for Welch ponies, a Pony Express race, a quarter-mile race, and a one-eighth mile race.

For the duration of the celebration, the West Coast Shows carnival will run at the Division Street show grounds.

Another special feature is an Elna helicopter which will offer rides at the fairgrounds before and after each rodeo show, July 4, 5 and 6.

Tavern Owners Schedule Meet

The Klamath and Lake County bar and tavern operators will meet in Lakeview on Wednesday, July 9, it is announced by Al Franceschini, president of the local chapter of Oregon Licensed Beverage Association.

The group will assemble for cocktails at Van's in Lakeview at 6 p.m. prior to the 7 p.m. dinner and business meeting at the Lakeview Hotel. Further information may be obtained by calling Franceschini at the Suburban Tavern, TU 2-9350.

Large Picnic Turnout Seen

Recreation and Park Department officials said today they expect a big turnout of Fourth of July picnickers tomorrow at Moore Park.

Although the mosquito problem has not been acute, Director Bob Bonney said, the park will be sprayed with insecticide today in anticipation of the crowds tomorrow.

A big attraction is expected to be two cages of monkeys which are now on outdoor display. Jocko is in one pen while Clarence and Tinker, spider monkeys, are in another. The animals have play apparatus to perform their antics on.

A dozen Chinese pheasant chicks have been given the park and a banty hen has taken them in charge, forming a sizable procession when they are moving about on park lawns.

A 2-week-old mule deer fawn has also been given to the park by the Game Commission and has taken its place in the deer pen. Bonney reports 20 new picnic tables have been added at Moore. There are also fire places with fire wood and kindling to start cooking fires with. No reservations are necessary.

There will be supervision at the wading pool for small fry and attendants here will also distribute a croquet set and other game equipment on a first come, first served basis.

A night attraction will be the park's lighted horseshoe pits.
