

TERMINATION of many years association with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company brought a surprise farewell for Mrs. Adelaide P. Murphy, center, when those who worked with her gathered in the social room of the traffic department to present a gift. Retirement date for Mrs. Murphy, who began her years of service on February 8, 1926, at Grants Pass, was Saturday, July 5. Those dates add up to 32 years with one company.

She transferred to Klamath Falls from Medford where she also worked, coming here in 1948. Mrs. Murphy will move to Sweet Home to be near a son, Frank Murphy. Warren J. Dunham, left, Medford, district traffic manager of Southern Oregon District Traffic Department, presented an electric toaster to Mrs. Murphy.

She was also presented with a corsage of yellow rosebuds and lily of the valley. Right is Mrs. B. M. (Irene) Buckley, chief operator at the telephone office. Refreshments were served during the afternoon to some 125 guests from a table centered with a yellow and white cake.

Rebekah Lodge Takes Recess

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge, No. 404, held its last regular meeting before summer recess June 19, with officers and members in attendance to honor past noble grands. Bernice McCracken, noble grand, presided.

A memorial service in honor of two deceased members, Anna Reeder and Helen Spiker, was performed with officers draping the charter.

Final plans were made for entering a float in the Fourth of July parade. Vera Fritsch talked on the August 9 district convention. Members wishing to attend the convention luncheon or evening banquet, must contact the noble grand or Mrs. Fritsch. The new Rebekah Assembly president, Edna Oster will make her official visit at that time.

Frank Hogue was honored with a 50-year membership pin presented by the noble grand. Four officers, Helen Blanas, Velma Krause, Louise O'Brien and Vera Fritsch were honored for six months' perfect attendance. All past noble grands were also honored with the presentation of certificates of outstanding service and four of the group, Laura Uerlings, Alma Cofer, Adeline Cofer and Ida Grimes, are 50-year or over members.

May Phinney, newly appointed district deputy, encouraged members to work on secret work and obtain the seal of perfection from Mrs. Oster.

The social club will meet July 14 for a dessert luncheon at the home of Helen McCornack, 2371 Lakeshore Drive, instead of the Memorial Park as previously planned. May Phinney will be hostess.

Refreshments were served by Kate Hogue, assisted by Kathleen Hepburn and members of her committee. Mrs. Hepburn arranged the table decorations of roses.

Yreka OES Final Meet

YREKA — The final meeting of the season of the Stella Chapter, No. 39, Order of Eastern Star, was highlighted with the initiation of a new member to the order, and a visit from Isabel Eiler, deputy grand matron, who was escorted to the east and welcomed.

Marilyn Garoutte, worthy matron and Floyd Burns, acting patron, presided at the meeting. Robert Eiler, husband of the deputy grand matron, was seated in the west in the absence of the associate patron.

Decorations for the evening were baskets of cantonbury bells and larkspur.

Prior to the initiatory degree being conferred upon new member Mrs. Walter (Shirley) Peters, special guests of Worthy Matron Garoutte were escorted to the east. They were Merle Spangle, past matron, and Sherman Spangle, past patron, both of White Pine Chapter.

Following the adjournment, members and guests gathered in the banquet room for refreshments prepared by Hazel Rohrer, chairman, Rosemary Franson, Lella Meek, Harriet Davidson, Ollie Janison, Helen Crebbin and Charles Van Orsdel.

Milani-Kisis Vows Taken

The Klamath Lutheran Church was chosen by Catherine Louise Milani and Aivars Kisis for exchange of their wedding vows on May 29. The 4 p.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. Leroy M. Redal before relatives and close friends. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Louise Milani, 151 Mace Road, Ashland. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Voldemars Kisis, 621 Washington, this city.

The dark-haired bride chose for her wedding ensemble, a white jersey chemise, white accessories and a cluster of white roses at the shoulder.

Mrs. Walter Johnson, Klamath Falls, matron of honor, wore a pink sheath with pink rosebud corsage.

Walter Johnson, this city, was best man.

A wedding reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Doran, 920 Martin Street, followed the wedding service.

Following a honeymoon spent on the Oregon Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Kisis are at home at 1213 Owens Street.

Mrs. Kisis is a graduate of Crater High School, Central Point. Kisis attended Klamath Union High School.

The bride-elect was honored prior to the wedding date with a delightfully appointed shower in the Elks Party Room, June 17 at 7:30 p.m. Hostesses were Mrs. Walter Johnson and Mrs. John Doran.

Olsen-McNulty Vows In Reno Precede Tulelake Reception

TULELAKE — A waltz-length white nylon dotted swiss over tulle, was chosen for her wedding gown by Carol Anne McNulty when she exchanged nuptial vows with Lawrence Paul Olsen in Reno on June 7. The 3:30 p.m. double-ring ceremony was read before immediate relatives and friends of the young couple in Federated Presbyterian Church.

Carol Anne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther McNulty, longtime residents of Tulelake. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Olsen, Sparks, Nevada.

Carol Olsen's frock, fashioned with very full skirt and tight bodice, was sleeveless. With it she wore a wide-brimmed white straw hat with white tulle bow across the crown. Her flowers, placed on a white Rainbow Bible, gift of her parents when she served as worthy adviser of the Tulelake Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, were gardenias tied with narrow satin ribbons.

Lighted white lapers and summer blossoms were used at the altar.

Barbara McNulty, younger sister, as maid of honor, wore sea-foam green linen chemise with matching hat.

William Olsen was best man for his brother.

Mrs. McNulty chose a summer flowered silk for her daughter's wedding with lavender predominating. Her shoulder flowers were gardenias. A white picture hat completed her ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Olsen, unable to be present for the ceremony, were represented by the bridegroom's uncle and aunt of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, present with their two children, Susie and Buzz.

A bridal dinner was served the wedding party at the Riverside Hotel with cocktails later at the home of the bridegroom's parents in Sparks. The new Mr. and Mrs. Olsen honeymooned in Ely, Nevada, with close friends of the family.

Following their return to Tulelake, a large reception was held on the evening of June 14 in the Masonic Temple where the couple greeted between 80 and 100 friends. Mr. and Mrs. McNulty were the hosts.

Pink and silver predominated in the arrangements on the tables and about the rooms. The gift table was centered with deep pink peonies in a large cut glass bowl. The lace cloth, over pink on the punch table, was made by the bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Laura McNulty of Yuba City, California. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake in white, pink and silver, complemented by pink tapers in sterling candelabra, and a silver bowl filled with pink lupine.

Punch was served by Sandra Perry and Katherine Staunton. Mrs. Roy Miller, Merrill, and Mrs. Hugh McNulty, Chico, aunt of the bride, were at the coffee service during the evening. Mrs. William H. Weikamp, Tulelake, served the cake after the confederation was cut by the newlyweds. Assisting about the rooms were Barbara Hundley, Margaret Rund, Judy McNulty, sister of the bride and Mary Jane Oehlerich.

Musical entertainment was by Starla Decious, Carole Hedington and Faye Adams.

Carol Anne is a 1958 graduate of Tulelake High School. Lawrence Paul will be with the National Park Service at the Lava Beds National Monument. Carol's father served as watermaster for many years for the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation, Tulelake project. Currently he is with the Klamath Falls office of the USBR. The new Mr. and Mrs. Olsen will live in Tulelake.

Sometimes an implied criticism hurts just as much as an outspoken one. For instance, the person who says, "You look a hundred per cent better with your hair short!" isn't just telling you she likes your hair short. She is saying that you looked pretty awful with it long. Watch your compliments to be sure they don't carry a hidden sting.

50th Wedding Date Observed

DUNSMUIR — Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Kelby celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Tuesday, June 24, when a host of friends gathered at their home to congratulate them.

At a reception in the evening, refreshments were served from a lace colored tablecloth, centered with a multi-tiered golden wedding cake baked by Mrs. Joseph M. Kelby, daughter-in-law of the celebrating couple. Candelabra and flowers completed the table decor.

Mrs. Donald Jones of San Carlos, a daughter, poured, and Jo-Anne Kelby, a granddaughter, presided at the punch bowl. Two sons, Joseph M. Kelby and Ernest Kelby, who have followed their father into railroad careers in Dunsmuir, assisted as hosts. The couple also has six grandchildren.

Mrs. Hazel Adams, Mrs. Guy DeMarco, Mrs. Sidney Fischer and Mrs. Durward Gass assisted in serving the many cakes brought by friends to help make the celebration a gala one.

Earlier in the evening, 21 members of the family gathered at the Joseph Kelby household for a dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelby were married in Ashland, Oregon, in 1908. They moved to Dunsmuir a year later. Mrs. Kelby was Audrey Carter, a member of a pioneer family. Kelby retired as a Southern Pacific Railroad engineer in 1947 after 44 years of service.
