TV Notes

Steve Allen's summer replacement starts July 13, with newly-weds Steve Lawrence and Edyie Gorme, both singers and Allen alumni, heading the cast for a dozen weeks. The show comes out of Steve's own production company. Steve will go to Europe for a month or so.

The "Alcoa Theater" and "Good-year Theater" re-runs start July 7 on NBC. There will be 12, through Sept. 22.

The NBC Opera Company's presentation of the new Gian Carlo Menotti opera, "Maria Golovin," at the World's Fair in Brussels will have singers Franca Duval, Richard Cross, James Loomis, Patricia Neway, Ruth Kobart, Genia Lane, Herbert Handt and William Chapman in leading roles. There will be two complete casts since performances will be given eight times a week, August 20-31. The opera is to be presented on the NBC network next season.

Henry Calvin, who is the comedy relief on ABC's "Zorro" in the role of Sergeant Garcia, will do more singing on the series next season. He sang three times during the past season, and viewers deluged the producers with requests for more. He has sung in Broadway musicals and once was bass soloist at Radio City Music Hall in New York.

Sid Caesar, whose half-hour on ABC the latter part of this season failed to survive, has been signed to do some of the Sunday one-hour variety shows next fall in the Dinah Shore spot on NBC. Dinah gets every fourth Sunday off.

Bing Crosby has a deal with ABC covering both television and radio which calls for him to appear in a minimum of two 90-minute specials on the network each season. It was described as a "long-term contract." ABC and Crosby also are to be partners in the production and development of 10 new TV program series over the next five years.

Here's the lineup for the rest of the year of filmed one-hour shows on NBC: July 15, "The Little Lame Prince;" August 19, "The Magic Fishbone;" September 10, "The Wild Swans;" October 3, "All Baba;" October 27, "Rapunzel;" November 12, "Hiawatha;" November 25, "The Emperor's New Clothes;" December 21, "Mother Goose."
