Adventists Held Cleveland Meet

The General Conference of the Seventh Day Adventist Churches was held in the Public Auditorium in Cleveland, Ohio, from June 21 to 28 with 33,290 in attendance. This number, 1,600 were delegates from foreign countries, who put on a pageant on June 21 in their native dress.

President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Diefenbach of Canada sent greetings to the assemblage. The conference was broadcast by radio over two national hook-ups on June 28.

The date of June 21 will be remembered by all Seventh Day Adventists as the day of the largest offering ever taken in one day. The offering amounted to $1,217,500.38, which will be used for evangelistic work around the world.

The treasurer reported that the total tithes and offerings of the Seventh Day Adventist Churches for the last four years amounted to $223,457,254.65. Twenty three and one-half million people were aided during the last four years.

The theme of the conference was to prepare the world for the coming of Christ. Elder R. R. Fugur was reelected president for the next four years.

Yreka Parents Receive Warning

YREKA—Yreka parents received warning yesterday from Yreka's Chief of Police Hank Watson, that "parents of children damaging public property are responsible."

Chief Watson issued the warning upon learning that trees, flowers and shrubs had been destroyed throughout Yreka's city park by youthful vandals.

The report received by Chief Watson stated that tree limbs had been broken, flowers and shrubs uprooted and trash had been scattered about the park, and he urged that parents should attempt to curb their youngsters from such destruction.

Chief Watson pointed out that the landscaped rest area and the shaded picnic areas are maintained for the use of the entire community with city taxes, and that "any increased maintenance costs due to the vandalism will be reflected in the overall cost of Yreka's city government."

Music Group Maps Drive

YREKA—Plans were mapped out for the 1958-59 membership drive campaign to be staged by the Siskiyou Community Concerts Association during the week of September 8 through the 13, at the recent meeting of the organization held in the music room of the Yreka High School with Warren Behnke, president, presiding.

The Melody Mart will be campaign headquarters again this year, and Mrs. Ivan Swickard was named as general chairman for the workers will open the campaign on September 8 with Mrs. Paul Weddle as chairman, in charge of that event.

Several suggestions made during the meeting were taken under consideration. Hester Grimm, representative of Community Concerts, Inc., suggested that the association investigate the possibility of advertising the campaign during the Siskiyou County Fair.

It was recommended that each officer and director enlist the services of two new campaign workers for this year's drive, their names to be reported to Mrs. Swickard at a meeting to be held on July 23 of the team captains and directors.

Also present at last week's meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Towne of Oro Fino; Mrs. James McAdams of Montague; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dirksen, Mrs. Ruth Rider, Mrs. Warren Behnke, Mrs. Vergil Nelson and Mrs. Roger Killo, all of Yreka.

Brush Clearing Told By District Ranger

McCLOUD—Dave Scott, assistant USFS district ranger, announced that brush clearing on 86½ acres of the Edison Creek access road plantation was completed June 29. Spade and Hayes were the contractors on the clearing project. Ponderosa pine seedlings will be planted in the cleared area next spring. Cost of the work was $38 per acre.

Sixty five additional acres were cleared and planted in the same area last year.
