The Little League nears the half-way point in its 1958 season as it resumes action at Wright Field Monday, July 7, at 6 p.m.

The league leading Johns-Manville nine will tangle with the next-to-last place Car-Ad-Co team on Field 2 while fourth-place Bob's Union gets an opportunity to increase its stature and gain a notch on the league ladder as they tangle with the cellar dwelling Weyerhaeuser Don's on Field 1. Bob's is currently percentage points out of a tie for third place with Hal's Sport Shop.

Wednesday night at 6, the second place spot could be definitely decided as Hal's and Bob's Union clash on Field 1, while Johns-Manville will park through its paces by Park-Moyina, present holders of the number two slot.

Thursday play at Wright Field will see the Weyerhaeuser-Dons compete against Car-Ad-Co on Field 1, again positions could be traded, and on Field 2 Johns-Manville will clash with Hal's Sport Shop in a contest that could have a great bearing on the eventual outcome of the season's play.

Following Thursday night's action the league will stand still until the following Tuesday.

Play Starts Monday In PNGA Golf Action

TACOMA (AP) — Play will begin here Monday on three fronts in the Pacific Northwest Golf Association's 57th annual men's and women's amateur tournament.

A field of 205 male shotmakers, plus a few post entries, will tee off early Monday at Fircrest Golf Club and the assisting course, Alenmore Golf Club, in the first round of the 36-hole qualifying test.

Tuesday will find the two men's groups trading courses for the windup half of the qualifying session, with match play beginning Wednesday. Alenmore will also entertain approximately half the field—the lower flights—in the match play phase for the rest of the week.

The women's field, which numbered more than 100 will engage in an 18-hole qualifying session Monday at the Tacoma Country and Golf Club. The girls will swing into match play Tuesday.

Spokane's Bill Warner, who last year became, at age 18, the youngest champion in PNGA history, will be on hand for an attempted defense of his crown.

Two other ex-champs, diminutive Ken Storey, of Seattle, who took the title way back in 1934, and Glen Sheriff, also of Seattle, who won in 1948 were also entered.

Warner's principal opposition is expected to come from such expert shotmakers as Spokane's Jim Mallory Jr., the 1957 runnerup; Dick Williams, of Seattle, newly crowned state amateur champion; Keith Gubrud, Eugene, runnerup in last week's Oregon State Amateur; Dr. Herman Dahl, winner of the recent Tacoma City Amateur tournament; 14-year-old Bill Tindall, 1958 Seattle City Amateur; Erv Parent, Seattle, former State Amateur champ; and other state champions as Jim Shriver, Ernie Jonson and Bill O'Brien of Seattle, Walter McAlpine, of Vancouver, B.C., and Charles H. Hunter of Tacoma.

Missing from the women's field is the 1957 champion, Carole Jo Kahler of Sutherlin, Ore., but two former PNGA queens, JoAnn Gunderson of Seattle, the reigning National Women's Amateur title, and Mrs. Edean Anderson Ihanfeldt, also of Seattle, who captured the 1949 and 1951 PNGA crowns, will be competing.

Haney Sees Braves Rally For Flag Win

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—The Milwaukee Braves are better off at the Fourth of July holiday than they were last year, Manager Fred Haney, dissatisfied with his World Champions performance, has predicted that they have their big surge still to come.

Stung by the loss of a doubleheader to the Philadelphia Phillies Friday on the holiday and a nagging inability to score, Haney said, "somebody is going to pay for this."

STRAIGHT LOSSES

The two losses to the Phillies gave the Braves a four game losing streak during which they have scored only two runs, but Haney said things were bound to change. "We're going to break loose," he vowed.

Still, the Braves are in better shape in the standings than they were last year.

Their 1957 record through the fourth was 43-32, putting them in third place, one-half game behind first place Cincinnati. This year they reached the same point with a 39-32 record and in first place, a game and one half ahead of second place St. Louis.

This puts them even on the last side, with the chance to still win those games they are behind their 1957 pace in the win column.

The Braves also are keeping up with last year despite another run of injuries such as plagued them in 1957.

Last year they played half the season without Joe Adcock and Billy Burton.

SLUGGERS JOINING

This year Adcock is in full time and Burton finally got back last month, but is not fully recovered from his knee injury. But pitcher Bob Buhl is out indefinitely and slugger Wes Covington is crippled and his status uncertain.

Red Schoendienst has had to sit out a number of games, and Adcock and Eddie Mathews are only hitting around the 250 mark. Henry Aaron has finally started to hit, but he is still off his pace of last year with only about half the homers he hit at the same time last season.

Olympic Star Paces Women's Track Test

MORRISTOWN, N. J. (AP) — Margaret Matthews, a lithe 21-year-old Olympian from Tennessee State, broke the American record for the broad jump and won three gold medals Saturday to take major honors in the Women's National AAU Track and Field Championships.

The 5-5½, 127-pound junior from Atlanta cleared 20 feet one inch on her final leap for her broad jump victory, and earned herself a trip to Moscow. She later also won the 100-yard dash in 11.1 seconds and anchored Tennessee State's flashy 440-yard relay team to a meet record victory in 46.9 seconds.

Mrs. Earlene Brown, 226-pound Olympian from Los Angeles broke meet records in the discus (152½) and the shot put (47-5¼) and won another trip abroad.

In all 20 places on the U.S. team, which will meet the Russians in a dual meet in Moscow July 27-28, were decided by Saturday's championships on Memorial Field. The team will be announced Sunday.

In most cases the top two in each event, except the 50-yard dash and 440-yard run, will make the team.

Five championship meet records were shattered and the American record was bettered in the broad jump.

Miss Matthews' jump eclipsed the mark of 19-11¼ set by teammate Willie White in finishing second in the 1956 Olympics at Melbourne.

A rhubarb developed in the 800-yard run when Lillian Green, a 17-year-old Hunter College freshman from New York, was disqualified after finishing first. The victory went to Flo McCordie of New York, who had finished second on times.

Miss Green was disqualified because a teammate paced her for the last 220 yards by running on the inside the track.

Connie Ford, coach of New York P.A. team for which Miss Green competes, protested the disqualification. But Mrs. Francis Kaszubi, as referee of the meet, refused to submit the protest to the women's AAU committee.

The committee and the AAU foreign policy committee, however, unanimously voted Miss Green a place on the team.

"She is our fastest half-miler," said Jimmy Simms, secretary-treasurer of the AAU.

Babe Ruthers Fill All-Star Coach Spots

In preparation for the upcoming Regional Babe Ruth League tournament to be held here August 8, 9 and 10, the existing 15 team league was broken into three separate divisions Wednesday by league officials. According to Jack Kemnitzer, city park and recreation officer in charge.

The three leagues, hereafter to be called the American League, the National League and the County League will continue their schedules as originally planned.

The Regional tourney, which will see teams entered from Alaska, British Columbia, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, and Wyoming, permits Klamath Falls, as the host city, to enter a team separate from the one that will compete in the state tournament which will be held August 1, 2, and 3.

On July 12, the coaches from each of the 15 local teams will meet to pick All-Star teams from each of the three new leagues.

The All-Star team chosen from the American League will act as the host team in the originals while the All-Stars from the National League and the County League will compete in a best two-out-of-three series July 26 and 27 for the right to enter the state tournament.

Chosen as coaches for the American All-Star squad are Len Webster, as head coach, who coaches the Henley Sporting Goods nine and John Paxton, who handles Eastside Electric, as assistant.

Picked to work with the National League team are Gary Dawes, head coach, and Floyd Phelps, assistant.

Dawes' National League team is the Baisger team while Phelps directs the Moose.

At this writing the head coach and assistant to handle the County All-Stars had not been chosen.

Choices for the All-Star teams are not necessarily restricted to any particular age group among the 13, 14 and 15-year-olds, stated Barbara Gallagher, league secretary. The teams will consist of 15 boys of any of the three age classifications.

Drain Selected For ABC Playoff

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—The National Baseball Congress announced Saturday that its 1958 Oregon championship baseball tournament for non-professional teams will be held in Drain Aug. 4.

Tom Meyers of Drain was named state commissioner to supervise the event.

Teams in the tournament will compete for a berth in the 24th annual National Championship Baseball tournament here in late August.

The tournament will be open to all sandlot and semi-pro clubs in the state.

Repulski let Ed Bouchee score from second and Repulski then tallied on Eddie Kazanski's triple. Relief pitcher Dick Farrell drove Kazanski home with a single.

It was the Phils' sixth straight victory and gave them undisputed possession of fourth place in the National League. Farrell got credit for the victory and Willard Schmidt, the third Cincinnati pitcher, was the loser.

Parson Plays Fast Tourny

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — A 34-year-old Methodist minister finished the National Left-handed golf tournament Saturday with 299 for 72 holes and immediately disqualified himself for the title if his score should stand up.

The Rev. Walter Jessup, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Naples, Fla., received special permission to play two rounds rather than stay for the final round Sunday.

He had a two under par 35-35-70 on the morning round but hurried through the afternoon round, bogeying the first three holes and taking a double bogey six on the final hole for a 79 to add to his two day total of 150.

He said it would not be fair to claim the title if his score happens to be best at the finish.

Meanwhile, defending champion Harry Shoemaker of Signal Mountain, Tenn., had a shaky third round and posted 36-40-76 for a 222 total for 54 holes.

J. C. Thorpe of Corpus Christi, Tex., took over second place with 149-75-224. Thorpe was runnerup to Shoemaker last year.

Jack Gers of Oklahoma City and Dick Greenwall of Evansville, Ind., had 226s for third place ties, followed by Jack Walters of Tacoma, Wash., with a 149-78-227.

Another Tacoman who still was in the competition but well down the line was Bob Romnes, who had a 156-78-234 in a four-way tie for 13th place.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mickey Vernon hit a two-run homer to spark a five-run first inning rally by the Cleveland Indians as the tribe beat the Kansas City Athletics, 8-2 Saturday night in the opener of a two-game series.

Larry Doby and Rocky Colavito also hit homers for the Indians with the bases empty.

Right-hander Ray Narleski gave up seven scattered hits and struck out five in winning his 10th game against five losses.

Ralph Terry, a 22-year-old right-hander, started for Kansas City, but was lifted in the first with two out and a man on first base after giving up three runs, three hits and a walk. The loss was his seventh in 12 decisions.

Boyd's blast, 400 feet into the right-centerfield bullpen, followed a double by Willie Miranda, who held the Orioles hitless in six of the eight innings he worked. Dick Hyde tacked on another hitless inning in the ninth.

Peter Thomson Nabs British Open Honors

ST. ANNE'S - ON - SEA, England (AP) — Peter Thomson of Australia beat big Dave Thomas of Wales by four strokes in a bitter 36-hole play Saturday and won his fourth British Open golf championship for a place beside the immortals of the game.

The poised, 23-year-old world traveler from Melbourne, emerging from an 18 months' slump, shot rounds of 68 and 71 over the Royal Lytham and St. Anne's course for 139. Thomas, struggling from "chind mood" of the long, gray day, fired 69-74-143.

The two had finished the regulation 72-hole tournament Friday tied at 278 — ten strokes better than the lone American threat,

Cup Snared By Harvard Racing Crew

HENLEY - ON - THAMES, England (AP) — Harvard's unbeaten lightweight eight brought the United States its only trophy of the Royal Henley Regatta Saturday with a three-quarter length triumph in the Thames Challenge Cup race.

The American collegians splashed home in 6 minutes, 57 seconds to defeat the Thames Rowing Club boatload in the final. Strangely enough the new champions registered the same time defeating the Royal Air Force Benson Rowing Club by a third of a length in a rugged semifinal pairing.

"This is the greatest thing that ever happened to us," said coach Joe Brown. "The final went as planned. The boys were to hit their racing cadence after 15 strokes, fight it out down the middle of the race and then put on a sprint at the finish. We felt in command all the way."

Russia and Australia shared the other major laurels of the day with the Soviet eight, victor over the University of Washington boatload on Thursday, taking the Grand Challenge Cup and S. A. MacKenzie of Australia, the Diamond sculls.

The Russian heavyweight club defeated the Leichhardt rowing club of Australia by two and a half lengths in the sparkling time of 6 minutes, 40 seconds for the mile and 550-yard sweep. MacKenzie finished 120 yards ahead of Vaslav Ivanov of Russia, in the singles final to retain the title he took a year ago. His time was 8 minutes, 6 seconds.

The Russians also took the double sculls, Alexander Berkutov and Yri Tukulov fitting the finish in 7:21 and equalling the record for the event.

Henley's own Barn Cottage Rowing Club won the four-oared event by a full length over the National Provincial Bank Rowing Club of Great Britain in 7:16. The Cottage foursome eliminated a University of Washington quartet in Friday's semifinal round.

Harvard grabbed a narrow lead at the very start of its race with the Thames Club and held it throughout to become the tenth U. S. winner of the race in the past 11 years. Last year's victor was Princeton, which did not defend. Princeton also is the record holder in the event with a time of 6:45.

Win Posted By Johnson

PALMYRA, N. J. (AP) — Rafe Johnson, the muscle-man from UCLA, won the national death-rowing title Saturday to set up a face-to-face meeting with Russia's Vasily Kuznetsov later this month.

Johnson scored 7,754 points, far below his own listed world record of 7,900. Kuznetsov's pending mark of 8,016. They'll clash in the U. S.-Russia meet July 27-28 and Johnson's coach, Duck Drake, said his charge will smash the Russian's performance to bits.

Yang Chuan-Kwang of Free China, the Asian Games champion, was second with 7,625 points. Dave Edstrom of the University of Oregon was third with 7,154. Edstrom will accompany Johnson as a member of the U. S. team that tangles with Russia.

Defending Champion Charlie Pratt of Palmyra the home town favorite, was fourth with 6,922 points and Bob Lawson of the Southern California striders fifth with 6,550 points.

While Johnson failed to break Kuznetsov's mark, he still can head off the Russian's getting his name in the record book. All Rafe must do is better 8,016 in the U. S. — Russia meet. Then the Russians would have to submit his mark to the International Amateur Athletic Federation for approval when it meets next month.

By the time the final event of the grueling two-day, 10-event program rolled around, it was apparent that Johnson had missed whatever chance he had to set a record. The last test was the 1,500 meters.

Pittsburgh Calls Up Slugging Dick Stuart

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Dick Stuart's wife said the other day her homerun hitting husband was ready for the majors.

Though general manager Joe Brown of the Pittsburgh Pirates didn't hear that, he agrees.

He called Stuart up to the Pirates. The 25-year-old first baseman of the Salt Lake Bees will join Pittsburgh at Chicago next Thursday.

The PCL is losing a big ball hitter and a colorful player.

San Diego general manager Ralph Kiner said the PCL will miss the Salt Lake slugger. "Stuart is responsible for the crowds we have been getting this week."

"He's the only draw in the league."

"It's not that he talks back to the umpires, or the fans. He doesn't. When the fans heckle him—like, say, after one of his many strikeouts—he simply ignores them all and maybe hits a 400-foot homer the next time at bat."

World's Wildest Show G-S Expects Big Gold Cup Entry

By JACK HEWINS

SEATTLE (AP) — The way things are shaping up, you won't be able to see the Gold Cup race this year for the boats.

Greater Seattle, Inc., which angles the world's wildest boat show, reports a "possible" entry list of 31 hydroplanes. If all of them showed up, Aug. 10 wouldn't be big enough to handle them.

Race rules say no more than seven boats can run at one time. If our gazettes are right, seven gozinta 31 four times with three boats left over. Each of the first two heats of the 1958 Gold Cup race would have to split into five sections.

Counting the final heat, that would add up to 11 separate races, each of 30 miles. The first 5-minute warning gun would rattle your breakfast dishes and the thunder-boats would still be whooping around the 3-mile oval at sundown.

The half a million people who pack the shoreline and the pleasure boats to watch the race would love such kind of carrying on, but it isn't likely to happen. The field of "possibles" can be trimmed to 24 "probables" and Greater Seattle, Inc., is planning for 21. It can hold the field to that number by limiting the entry to the 21 fastest qualifiers.

Hydros Bid For Cup

This little wrinkle adds zest to the midweek qualifying runs. A boat must turn three laps of the Gold Cup course at 93 miles an hour to earn a berth normally and there are more boats than berths the drivers will have to go for the bundle in their pre-race tests.

Fifteen qualified for the race last year, making it necessary to run the first heat in three sections. Mechanical indigestion cut the field sufficiently to permit a two-section second heat. The final heat is always limited to the seven best boats still running, so the 1957 Gold Cup totaled 189 miles of racing in six sections. They ran from noon to half-past dinner time.

Rumors that Bing Crosby was building a boat to be named for his fruit juice firm haven't been confirmed, but there will be several new hydros in the Gold Cup scenery. The one causing the biggest throb in curiosity bumps is Bill Waggoner's Shanty II, not yet out of the boat work. The gun-totin' Arizona cattlemen keeps
