

Skindiver Sets New Mark For Staying Under; What Reason Is Still Mystery

HAMBURG, N. J. (AP)—Take a 19-year-old youth, give him a skin diving outfit, submerge him in 15 feet of water for more than 30 hours, and what does he think about?

He thinks about girl skindivers, that's what.

Bernie Camoli spent 30 hours and 6 minutes submerged in the waters of White Rock Quarry over the weekend.

The water got cold, and Camoli got bored, sleepy and cold before he bobbed to the surface Saturday night.

Victory Seen Sure For Adenauer

DUSSELDORF, Germany (AP)—An election victory for Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democrats in West Germany's largest state was seen today as an endorsement of his plans to provide the nation's new army with atomic weapons.

The Christian Democrats regained control of the Provincial Parliament of North Rhine-Westphalia yesterday in the first popular test of the nuclear armament program. It has become West Germany's hottest political issue since Adenauer's party won the national elections again almost 10 months ago.

Only the provincial administration of this big industrial and agricultural state was at stake, but the opposition Socialists, led by their campaign leader Adenauer's offer of nuclear arms.

The Socialists claimed atomic armament would put West Germany so squarely in the Western camp that all hope of reuniting with Communist East Germany by negotiations would be lost. They raised the specter of atomic warfare, while the Christian Democrats played on fears of communism and hammered home their theme of postwar prosperity.

The Christian Democrats moved from a minority position of 89 seats in the 200-member Provincial Parliament to firm control with 104 seats. The Socialists advanced, but not as far, from 76 to 81 seats.

Adenauer's party actually lost 5 per cent of the popular vote from its high point in the state in last September's general elections. The Socialists gained almost 6 per cent from last year's low of 33.5 per cent. The Christian Democrats polled 50.5 per cent.

The principal loser was the Free Democrat party, which dropped from 27 seats to 15. The Free Democrats joined with the Christian Democrats in a coalition government in 1954 but suddenly switched two years ago and allowed the Socialists to take over.

Two splinter groups, the neo-Nazi German Reich party and the Catholic Center party, lost their seats entirely by polling less than 5 per cent of the popular vote. The Communists have been outlawed for two years.

This was the popular vote (with percentages of the vote in the 1954 state election in parentheses): Christian Democrats 4,011,122 or 50.5 per cent (41.3 per cent in 1954); Socialists 3,115,934 or 39.2 per cent (34.5); Free Democrats 536,274 or 7.1 per cent (11.5); the Center party polled 83,733; the German Reich party 125,044; and the German Union 176.

Here's How They Voted

Sailor Kills Wife, Self

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Patrolman Gene Rich watched helplessly Sunday as a jealous husband shot his estranged wife and then turned the gun on himself in an automobile in East San Diego.

Rich spotted John Ashbaugh, 32, radioman 2nd class stationed at San Diego Naval Air Station, and his attractive wife, Mrs. Marion H. Ashbaugh, 35, shortly after it was reported the sailor had kidnaped her.

The officers said he forced Ashbaugh's car to the curb and was approaching the vehicle when he saw the sailor kill Mrs. Ashbaugh and then turn a 45 caliber automatic on himself. The sailor died three hours after the shooting.

Officers said they were alerted to watch for Ashbaugh after the sailor had jumped out of a closet at his wife's home early Sunday morning to find her kissing Anton John Siberanget, 21, also a sailor.

After threatening to kill Siberanget, police said Ashbaugh forced his wife to accompany him, leaving the sailor and another couple, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. DeCant, El Centro, Calif., behind in the victim's home.

They notified police who issued an all-points bulletin for Ashbaugh and his wife. They were wed in November, 1955, and parted six weeks ago.

Mrs. Ashbaugh was identified as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, Seattle.

Youths Admit Setting Big Fire

HACKENSACK, N.J. (AP)—Police say three brothers—aged 7, 8 and 9—were responsible for a million-dollar fire here over the weekend.

The fire burned out the block-long Comfort Coal and Lumber Co. yard, destroyed or damaged eight cafes and blistered four houses and a gas station Saturday night.

The boys were picked up yesterday and released in the custody of their parents after questioning.

Police Lt. Owen Toolen of the Youth Division said the brothers admitted setting the fire.

He quoted the boys as saying they were on their way to a store with some empty soda bottles when they found a partially filled book of matches.

The 7-year-old ignited a piece of paper. His 7-year-old brother told Toolen he thought he had stamped the small fire out, so the youngsters left the paper and proceeded to the store.

They saw the fire on their way home.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain, Stops Itching as it Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance—Bio-Dyne—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H. At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

Road Department Engineer Recipient Of Cash Award

By NELSON SHARP

KLAMATH AGENCY — Klamath Agency Roads Department engineer, Remo Minato, was the recipient of a cash award last Thursday, June 26. The award, which was authorized under the Government Employees Incentive Awards Program, was presented by Glen Smith, road engineer.

The Government Employees Incentive Awards Program first came into being in 1954. In effect, Uncle Sam underscored his appeal for help from the Civil Service Employees in making government operations more economical and efficient, and emphasized his desire to recognize and reward the federal employe for special contributions to this objective.

The awards program provides cash prizes for suggestions or inventions that will save money for Uncle Sam, and in turn, the taxpayer. Cash awards are also given for superior performance, especially efficient and superior service means cash savings to the government and the taxpayer. The first seven months of the program produced some truly amazing results. More than 138,000 employe suggestions of which more than 35,000 were adopted by federal agencies. The value to the government of these adopted suggestions and superior performances exceeded 40 million dollars and more than $1,500,000 was paid out in awards. In workday terms these figures mean an employe suggestion was made every 30 seconds, a suggestion adopted every two minutes, a superior performance award was made every 20 minutes, and the dollar value of adopted suggestions and superior performance averaged $34,358 award per hour.

The award presented to Minato was for a form to facilitate a record of the amount of water a contractor applies to a road during construction. Water is applied to a road during construction in summer months to provide better compaction of the dirt fills. The form has been used extensively on this reservation, and has been approved by other agencies.

Minato, 29, is a self-made engineer. He does not possess an engineering degree, but through correspondence study and diligence he has risen rapidly to a responsible position in government service. He is presently stretch engineer on the 17-mile stretch of road now under construction to the head of Williamson River, and has been resident engineer on other road construction projects on the reservation.

Minato is a native of Chiloquin. He has been an employe of the Indian Service for some 3 1/2 years. Prior to his entry into government employ with the Indian Service, he was with the Bonneville Power Administration, was employed with Morrison-Knudsen contracting company, and spent two years in the U.S. Navy.

Three Die In Plane Crash

RICHMOND, Calif. (UPI)—An Oakland steel executive, his wife and their teen-age son were killed Sunday night when their light plane crashed and exploded on the mudflats near Golden Gate Fields race track.

The victims were: Frank Skoubye, 42, Oakland, co-owner of the Gilmore - Skoubye Steel Contractors Company; Anna Mae Skoubye, 41, his wife; and Jeffrey Skoubye, 15, their son.

The family was returning home after a holiday weekend in Salt Lake City and Reno when the engine of their single-engine Beechcraft Bonanza began sputtering.

The plane crashed into shallow water 100 feet off Point Isabel at 3:45 p.m., scattering debris for 300 feet along the shore. The three passengers were killed instantly.

A witness, Harvey Asp, Albany, said he saw the plane crash from his yard.

"It came over Albany Hill and I could hear the engine sputtering badly," Asp said. "It looked as though the pilot was trying to make a forced landing along the shore."

"The plane hit the water once, bounced into the air, then crashed back into the water and exploded."

Only a few minutes before Skoubye had called into the CAA control tower at Oakland Municipal Airport for landing instructions. He gave no indication of trouble. Skoubye was an experienced pilot.

The Skoubyes leave a 17-year-old daughter, Karen, who spent the holiday weekend at Lake Tahoe, rather than accompany her family to Salt Lake City where Skoubye's mother lives.

Algeria Hit By Bomb Attacks

ALGIERS (AP)—Small bomb attacks flared throughout troubled Algeria over the weekend. French authorities said the situation was "rather lively."

No major engagements with nationalist rebels took place, but four persons were killed and 20 injured in the individual attacks.

Such terrorist blasts in cities have been rare in the past few months.

Farms were burned down in the Philippeville area of eastern Algeria, and harvests destroyed at other points. A branch rail line in Algeria was blown up by a mine.

Korean Floods Ravage Big Area

SEOUL (AP)—Ten days of violent rain and floods in South Korea have claimed 47 lives and left 3,500 people homeless. Six persons are missing.

The rains, following an unusual spring drought, caused an estimated two million dollars damage, destroyed 303 houses and flooded or wrecked another 3,200 police said.

Eleven coastal ships were reported sunk or missing.

The government sent relief goods and rescue teams to flooded areas along the Nakdong and Kum rivers in southern and central Korea, where water was reaching danger levels.

FUNERAL

CHICAGO (UPI)—Funeral services were scheduled for Tuesday for Glenn R. Fouche, publisher of Parade magazine supplement, who died Friday.

Gangs Eyed In New Probe Of Labor Misuse

WASHINGTON (AP)—Members of the prohibition-era Capone gang will figure in a Senate investigation of alleged mobster control of Chicago's restaurant industry.

The Senate Rackets Committee will open hearings on the matter tomorrow. The hearings are expected to last about two weeks.

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) announced: "We plan to take a close look at the way racketeers and hoodlums, including members of the old Capone mob in Chicago, muscled into the restaurant industry in that town through close ties with labor unions and management associations."

"We hope to present a revealing picture of the extent to which racketeers were able to control and operate this industry through fear, intimidation and shake-downs."

McClellan said the investigation will go into whether collusive agreements were signed between the Chicago Restaurant Assn., certain independent restaurants in Chicago and certain unions.

Among witnesses under subpoena are Tony Accardo and Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, both of whom belonged to the gang once headed by Al Capone.

Mount Shasta Rain Said Near Record

MOUNT SHASTA—Precipitation in this area for this year through June 30 was the third highest since records have been kept here. A total of 66.05 inches was recorded, topped only by 73.47 inches for the 1939-90 period and 67.31 for 1940-41.

Overcast skies have resulted in lower than normal daytime temperatures and warmer than usual nights. Some basements in the community still require the use of pumps at intervals to prevent flooding.
