Barbara Marie Pyle Weds Thomas Richard Ferrell In Presbyterian Church

A white lattice background centered with white gladioli was the setting in the First Presbyterian Church Sunday, June 15, for the wedding of Barbara Marie Pyle and Thomas Richard Ferrell. The Rev. James Overdorff of the Presbyterian Sunday School of Pelican City officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Pyle, 632 North Second, was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. George McIntyre was organist and accompanied Mrs. Walter Badorek, soloist.

Barbara's mother made the floor-length wedding gown of white taffeta with a lace overbodice. A draped panier formed a large bow in the back of the dress. Barbara wore lace mitts and her finger-tip veil was attached to a lace cap, wreathed with apple blossoms. A white orchid and Stephanotis topped her lace covered white Bible.

Lois Anne Snead was maid of honor. Her waltz-length dress of spring green taffeta was fashioned with a full skirt and a back interest bow. She carried a matching ruffled net muff, trimmed with white carnations, and wore a matching net hat.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Dell Miller (the former Ingrid Peterson) and Yvonne Crow, wore yellow dresses in the same style as the maid of honor's, and matching yellow hats and muffs with white carnations.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Ferrell, 4670 Canons Avenue, chose Alan Siegner as his best man. Ushers were Butch Kimpton and Don Story.

The bride wore a 95-year-old brooch which had belonged to her great-grandmother, Lucy Sophina Holt; the traditional blue garter and a penny in her slipper.

The bride's mother wore a navy lace sheath for her daughter's wedding and her corsage was of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in pale lavender with which she wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The guests were greeted at the home of the bride's parents, where the reception was held, by two of the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Oscar Swearingen, Vallejo, California, and Mrs. James McDonald, Roseburg; and Mrs. Warner Kimball, the bridegroom's grandmother, Klamath Falls.

The bride and bridegroom cut the first slice of the three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with white wedding bells and apple blossoms. The cake centered a lace-covered table placed in front of the fireplace and had yellow roses at the base. Candelabra with white candles were on either side of the cake, and yellow roses were used at the base of the candelabra.

Mrs. Lee Walker, cousin of the bride, of Harrisburg served the cake. Judy Cross poured coffee and Janet Lee served punch. Lana Lambro was in charge of the guest book.

Barbara changed to a beige suit and hat with which she wore white and straw accessories for the wedding trip up the Oregon and Washington coasts to Lake Crescent on the Olympic Peninsula and to British Columbia. Her corsage was the orchid from her bouquet.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Swearingen, Vallejo; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Biss and Dean, Gold Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barnes, Fortuna, California; Mr. and Mrs. George Biss, Tri City, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craig, Rodney and Chere, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pyle and Jacky, all of Medford; Tim White, Portland; Mrs. W. Swearingen and children, Prairie City; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Zelesky, Everett, Washington.

Barbara attended KUHS where she was a member of Pep Peppers and Tri Hi Y. She is also a member of Bethel No. 6, Job's Daughters, Tom, a KUHS graduate, was a former member of the K Club. He now attends Oregon State College and is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

About 30 friends of Barbara's attended a shower given in her honor early in May at the home of Mrs. Ruben Peterson. On May 29 the bride's attendants and friends who served at the reception surprised her with a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Snead, and they presented her with an automatic coffeemaker.

The newly married couple are now at home in Corvallis.

DOTING GRANDCHILDREN made June 13 a lucky day for "Grandma" Nyback, as she is affectionately called, when they honored her 75th birthday with an open house at the home of Mrs. Nyback's older daughter, Mrs. Art Reed, 5827 Cheyne. For "something old," Betty carried a lace handkerchief made by her great great-grandmother over 100 years ago. Rae Dean Marks was the bride's only attendant. Jacobsen-Hess Reno Ceremony

ALTURAS—Diana Marian Hess, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Derril Hess, Alturas, and Edward Andrew Jacobsen, Susanville, were married in Reno, Nevada, on Sunday morning, June 22.

Diana is a graduate of Modoc Union High School and will be a sophomore at Chico State College next fall. Edward, who is majoring in physical education at Chico State College, will be a senior next year. He is playing baseball with the Chico Colts at present.

A wedding breakfast was given by the bride's parents in a Reno hotel for the bride and bridegroom and immediate relatives.

The young couple are at home in Chico.

Vacation eating for children often is hit or miss. Ice cream bars, candy and soda pop may substitute for a balanced, refreshing meal. If this is true, then growing youngsters may find themselves with skin problems as well as upset tummies. No matter the heat, plan meals to be eaten regularly and in a relaxed atmosphere.

A hot iron and damp cloth will freshen a crushed pile rug. Run iron over cloth but don't press down on the iron. Brush spots briskly and repeat ironing if necessary.
