

SOCIETY

MR. AND MRS. PHILIP BUTLER WICKHAM exchanged vows in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Bonanza, Saturday, June 7. She is the former Kathryn Anne Marchant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William (Ray) Marchant, Grants Pass. Her husband is the son of the late Perry Wickham and Mrs. Flora Wickham, Portland.

Kathryn Marchant Becomes Mrs. Philip Wickham

BONANZA—Kathryn Anne Marchant became the bride of Philip Butler Wickham in an afternoon wedding Saturday, June 7, in St. Luke's Episcopal Church with the Rev. Willis M. Rosenthal officiating at the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William (Ray) Marchant of the Wallace Ranger Station at Grants Pass, formerly of Langell Valley. The bridegroom is the son of the late Perry Wickham and Mrs. Flora Wickham of Portland. Lighted tapers backed baskets of pink peonies, white stocks and white carnations flanked by potted palms. Similar arrangements were on the altar.

Serving during the ceremony was Steven Jones, a cousin of the bride. Wedding music was played by Philip Heydenburk. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin styled with scalloped bodice, net yoke and tiny cap sleeves. She wore long white gloves, a long veil of illusion net and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and baby rosebuds.

The maid of honor was Donna Derry of Malin, who wore a waltz length dress of pale blue satin with matching sash highlighted with necklace and earrings, a gift from the bride. Her headress was a halo of blue flowers matching her nosegay of blue daisies.

A sister of the bride, Sharon Marchant, bridesmaid, wore a pink dress like that of the maid of honor. Attending the bridegroom was James Lefler, former college roommate. Ushers were Robert Scofield and Thomas Marchant, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Marchant wore a honey-beige summer suit with crimson and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy and white

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT L. SANDERSON TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH, ASHLAND SCENE JUNE RITES

DUNSMUIR—An 8 p.m. ceremony in the Trinity Episcopal Church in Ashland, Oregon, on June 7 united in marriage Mary Jane Jessel of Ashland and Robert Lyle Sanderson. The bridegroom of Shaw, Mississippi, is currently teaching commercial subjects at Dunsmuir High School and the newlyweds will make their home in Dunsmuir following a six-week honeymoon in Mississippi.

White gladioli, white stock and fernery were used to decorate the church. The Rev. John Thompson officiated before an assemblage of over 150 guests. Mrs. William Girard of Dunsmuir sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Oh, Perfect Love" prior to the ceremony. Edna Doherty was organist.

The bride who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jessel of Ashland was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white street length dress with matching hat and a shoulder length veil. Her bouquet was of pink sweetheart roses and lily of the valley. Edna Jessel was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a ballerina length dress and hat in a pink tone. Her flowers were pink tea roses.

William Girard of Dunsmuir was best man. Cyril Dabovich Jr., of Dunsmuir and Joel Jessel seated the guests. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jessel chose a grey and white striped frock with white accessories.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Wilburn of Shaw, Mississippi. Mrs. Wilburn was present for the occasion, and she wore an oatmeal linen ensemble with white accessories. The parish hall was the scene of the reception following the ceremony.

MR. AND MRS. LEROY JOHNSON (the former Esther Leigh Beasley) exchanged vows Sunday, June 15, in the Merrill Presbyterian Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Beasley, Merrill; her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnson, Route 1, Klamath Falls. The Rev. Lloyd Henderson solemnized the marriage ceremony before some 200 friends and relatives.

Collins-Rogers Vows In Assembly Of God Church

Garden flowers and candelabra formed the setting in the Assembly of God Church for the double ring wedding ceremony June 16 of Lois Ruth Rogers and Harvey F. Collins. The 8 p.m. candlelight service was read by the Rev. Silas Jones of the Klamath Falls Assembly of God Church before 200 guests. The Rev. Glen H. Ayres of the Assembly of God Church, Vale, Oregon, offered the prayer and blessing.

Mrs. Silas Jones, soloist, sang "Because" and "Oh Promise Me," accompanied by Susie Williams on the organ.

Lighting the candles before the ceremony were Joan Smith and Bertha Alvord, both of Klamath Falls who wore pastel colored gowns in ballerina length. Their candles had corsages at the base. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Rogers, Winchester, Idaho, was escorted down the aisle and given in marriage by her father.

The bride's gown of white imported silk lace over bridal satin and nylon net, was made with long pointed sleeves, sweetheart neckline and scallops around a floor-length, full skirt. Her finger tip veil was held in place by an imported silk crown headpiece, enhanced with pearls and sequins.

The bride's bouquet of white gardenias with streamers of white tulle centered on a white Bible, gift from the bridegroom. Ruth borrowed a handkerchief from her cousin, Mrs. Clara Floyd, and wore an old bracelet that her mother had worn as a child. A blue lace garter and a dime in the toe of her bridal linen slipper completed the traditional "something borrowed, something blue, and something old and something new."

Mrs. Vera May Smith, a former roommate of the bride, was her matron of honor. Her dress was a colonial white cotton formal with lavender trim. The bridesmaids, whose dresses were identical to the matron of honor but trimmed in yellow, were Velma Collins, sister of the bridegroom, and Mary Long, Vale, Oregon. The matron of honor carried a colonial fan with lavender flowers. The bridesmaids' flowers were yellow on colonial fans.

The two little flower girls, Carolyn Forseth, cousin of the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Forseth, Vacaville, California, and Judy Collins, niece of the bridegroom and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Collins, Klamath Falls, wore dresses in frocks styled like the bridesmaids, and carried baskets of flowers and rose petals.

Two handsome young men, Billy Jones, a former student of the bride, and son of Mrs. Dorothy Jones of Klamath Falls, and Gregory Kirtland, nephew of the bridegroom and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirtland of Clarksburg, California, wore the ring bearers.

Wayne, son of Mrs. Vernie Collins, Klamath Falls, had asked his brother, Kenneth Collins, to be his best man and his ushers were Bill Rogers, brother of the bride, from Spokane, and Pharris Hughey of Klamath Falls. Recessional ushers were Ernest Palone and Lowell Anderson.

The mother of the bride chose a navy blue lace dress with which she wore white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a pale blue suit and white accessories and she also had a pink rosebud corsage.

Mrs. Ernest Palone, Mrs. Jim Slusser and Mrs. W. B. Galloway were in charge of the reception which was held in the church parlors. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Donald Forsyth, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Clara Floyd was at the coffee service and Mrs. Ben Hughey at the punch bowl.

The bride changed to a pale blue chemise style suit with which she wore pink and white accessories and the gardenia corsage from her bouquet when she and the bridegroom left on their wedding trip to Central Oregon.

The new Mrs. Collins is a graduate of Winchester, Idaho, High School and Eastern College of Education. She taught school at Vale, Oregon, and Klamath Falls, and will teach at Sweet Home this coming year.

The bridegroom is a KUHS graduate and attended OTI. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kirtland Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirtland, Clarksburg, California; Mrs. Robert Floyd, Kooakia, Idaho; the Rev. and Mrs. Harry Ayres, Grants Pass; Bill Rogers, Mrs. Edna Hartwig, Spokane, Washington; Horace Youngblood with the U.S. Navy; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Forseth, Vacaville, California; the Rev. and Mrs. Glen Ayres, Mary Long, Virginia Van Winkle, Vale, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Rogers and Bud Rogers, Winchester, Idaho.

The newlyweds are now at home at 445 J Street, Sweet Home, Oregon.

Photo by Ferebeau

Barbarossa-Robinson Vows Exchanged In Etna Church

ETNA—Festoons of fern, baskets of white gladioli and carnations decorated the altar and chancel rails of the Etna Congregational Church for the June 14 ceremony which united Cynthia Joyce Robinson and Sebastian Barbarossa.

Other decorations in the church, arranged by Mrs. Christine Noonan, aunt of the bride, and a Los Angeles florist, included steamer of white satin ribbon draped along the aisles; rosettes of white satin ribbon centered with white gladioli and a carnation marking the pew.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, Charlie Snapp, who gave her in marriage. The single-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Orval Clay.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length gown of white nylon lace over satin, styled with a brief bolero jacket fastened with pearl buttons. The long sleeves were pointed at the wrist. Her hooped skirt was designed with extra fullness at the back which suggested a train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a tiara of stephanotis and white rosebuds, and her bride's bouquet was of the same flowers centered with two white orchids, tied with white satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls.

Mrs. Richard Long, the former Patricia Ortiz, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of yellow nylon chiffon with draped neck and hemlines. The gown was sleeveless and had a yellow ribbon sash. She wore a tiara of yellow rosebuds and carried a bouquet of the same flowers.

JoAnne Van Lindt and Patsy Roberts, bridesmaids, wore ballerina length pastel formals. JoAnne wore pale blue lace over taffeta, designed with a draped cowl neckline, sleeveless bodice with a peplum effect over the full net skirt. Patsy's gown was fashioned of pink net over taffeta, with a short sleeved bolero, and a pink flocked nylon overskirt with a long pink sash at the back. Each girl wore a tiara of pink elf roses and carried nosegays of pink carnations and elf roses tied with pink satin ribbons.

Little Sherry Lincoln, niece of the bride, as flower girl, strewed white rose petals from a white lace basket. Sherry wore a floor length white lace over blue satin frock, with a skirt fashioned almost identical to that of the bride's.

Mrs. Joseph Noonan, her mother, Mrs. Minnie Johnnie, and nephew, Joseph Snapp, left shortly after the wedding for her summer home at the Forks of the Salmon for a two-months vacation. They will be joined later by Mrs. Noonan's husband.

Photo by Ferebeau

"The Best Place to Shop After All"

In this dainty rosebud pinafore, with its front opening zipper, Wayne Maid has captured the carefreeness and utility which make this lovely dress equally suited for home, work, or play. Two full patch pockets. Self tie belt.

Special Purchase
Style 3814, Sizes 12-20.
Colors: Aqua, Rose.
4.98

Cool Slim Sun Dress

This cool Wayne Maid sun dress has a slimmer unbroken front panel, with a figure-flattering three-quarter elastic waist. Two pointed square pockets. Concealing shoulder straps. The fabric is a lovely everglazed leno cotton.

SPECIAL PURCHASE
Style 3821, Sizes 10-20.
Colors: Blue, Rose, Mint.
4.98

Second Floor
Use Your Charge Account

Beasley-Johnson Rites Unite Basin Families

MERRILL—Bouquets of yellow calla lilies and gladioli formed the background on Sunday afternoon, June 15, at the Merrill Presbyterian Church, when Esther Leigh Beasley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Beasley, Merrill, became the bride of Leroy Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnson, Route 1, Klamath Falls, in the presence of almost 200 wedding guests. The Rev. Lloyd Henderson officiated at the double ring ceremony which united two well known Basin families.

Traditional wedding organ music was provided by Mrs. Lillian Thomas, soloist was Cora Enman of Klamath Falls.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was dressed in a street length sheath of white lace over satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a square neckline at the front and back and brief sleeves. She wore elbow length satin mitts. Back interest was created by a large satin bow at the waistline from which fell panels of nylon over net. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a close fitting cap encrusted with seed pearls and sequins. She carried two white orchids on her Rainbow white Bible.

Martha Beasley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lenore Johnson, sister of the bridegroom, and Loretta Lemler.

The attendants were identically gowned in ballerina length dresses of nylon over taffeta accented by cummerbunds of yellow taffeta ending in back panels. They wore matching mitts and carried cascade arrangements of pink roses and daisies. Their headpieces were white nylon beaded headbands trimmed with pearls.

Best man was Duane Johnson, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Tom and Bill Beasley, servers of the bride, who also served as candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Beasley chose an afternoon dress of rose lace with light pink accessories. Mrs. Johnson wore a street length dress of turquoise crepe with white accessories. Each mother had a yellow rose corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Arrangements were made by Mrs. Clovis Story, Mrs. Roy F. Beasley, Merrill, Mrs. Thelma Stukel, Mrs. Dale West loaned the silver service.

Serving punch were Mrs. J. B. Kidwell, maternal grandmother of the bride from Ashland, and Mrs. Henry Johnson, paternal grandmother of the bridegroom from Braham, Minnesota. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Myrtle Beasley, paternal grandmother of the bride of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Fred Fiegi, maternal grandmother of the bridegroom, Merrill.

The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Jerry Johnson, Tulelake; Mrs. Morris Parker and Mrs. Earl Clark, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Don Barnes, Merrill.

The gift table was attended by Katherine Ahern, Cousins of the bride, Robert and Nancy Berriees, assisted. Registering guests were Marilyn McPherson, Klamath Falls, and Kathryn Barnes, Mrs. Glenn Hunnicutt, aunt of the bride, assisted about the room.

For travel the new Mrs. Johnson wore a green linen sheath with a loose fitting back and matching accessories. Following a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will be at home at Glencourt Apartments in Klamath Falls after June 22.

The bride, a graduate of Merrill High School class of 1957, attended one year at Southern Oregon College, Ashland. The bridegroom, a Merrill High School graduate in 1953, is employed by Weyerhaeuser Timber Company.

Out of town guests included Henry Johnson, Braham, Minnesota; J. B. Kidwell, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Carlisle, Dunsmuir; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beasley and daughters, Central Point; and Mrs. Hazel Bowman, Central Point.

Maps can be aged to give that look of antiquity before being framed. This is done by coating a map with white shellac.