Bookmobile's Friday Schedule Is Tricky

The Klamath County Library's bookmobile is doing a good business in supplying books to persons of all ages at many different points of the county, as it maintains its regular Tuesday to Friday schedule.

The Friday schedule of the bookmobile is a bit tricky, as the runs to Crater Lake are made only on alternate weeks. For the convenience of readers living on the Friday routes here are the schedules for the remaining weeks of the summer, with stops listed alphabetically.

END OF THE STRING

BETHLEHEM, Pa. — A stopped freight train delayed a frustrated motorist once too often. A 194-car Reading Company freight train blocked traffic for nearly half an hour waiting for a signal to move onto the Jersey Central tracks. Finally the signal came. Freight cars, including the one blocking the street, moved off with the locomotive. The rest remained and traffic began to flow. Someone "unofficially" uncoupled the freight cars at the crossing.
