4-H NEWS

POE VALLEY SHEPHERDS
Members of the Poe Valley Shepherds went on a tour Monday, June 30. We went to each member's home and all members received tips on "picking." The meeting was held afterward and the decoration theme was decided for the fall fair. The next meeting will be at Susan Bebb's home on July 10.

POE VALLEY FREEZERETTES
The Poe Valley Freezerettes met at the home of Mrs. Lillian Reiling on June 30. The meeting was called to order by President Susan Bebb. Roll was called and each member answered by giving a kitchen hint.

Mrs. Lillian Hoffman, county extension agent, talked about the fair and some of the ways in which to can, preserve and freeze vegetables.

A motion was made and seconded that the meeting be adjourned. Mrs. Reiling then demonstrated how to can different kinds of pickles and also demonstrated one way to freeze corn on the cob. Two of the newer members froze two pints of boysenberries.

There were two members absent, Carol Reiling who is away at summer school and Mary Wells, who was working in her father's fields.

Refreshments of watermelon and cantaloupe were served.

COUNTRY CAMPERS
Meals were cooked with the foil method on Tuesday, June 24, at the home of Mrs. Francis Skinner. The meals consisted of hamburger patties, sliced potatoes, and sliced carrots. We had "some-mores" for dessert: these are graham crackers, chocolate bars, and roasted marshmallows.

The meeting was called to order by President Scott Skinner, and the salutes were given. There were 10 members present.

The next meeting of the Country Campers on Friday, June 27, bread twists were cooked over an open fire, using the green stick method. The meeting was held in Mrs. Francis Skinner's backyard.

The meeting was called to order by President Scott Skinner, and the minutes of the last meeting were read and discussed. The club decided to have a sleep-out in Mrs. Skinner's backyard for the next meeting. The members will bring their own supplies and will cook their supper and breakfast.

On July 10 a going away party was held for Mrs. William diCristina who has been a 4-H Club leader. At the party at the home of Mrs. Wilson Callick, members of the cooking project entertained leaders and mothers with a luncheon and style show.

Potato salad, fried chicken, assorted relishes, blueberry muffins, brownies and iced tea were served. Margaret Callie, who is raising a guide dog for the blind, gave a training demonstration. Lillian Ester, Charlene Day, Margaret Callie and Frances diCristina modeled the clothing they had made for their project this year. Mrs. diCristina was given a pair of scissors as a going away gift.
