

COW COUNTRY at Ontario, Eastern Oregon, was destination for Cow Belles from 'round the state who journeyed with husbands or in feminine groups to attend the 45th Annual Oregon Cattlemen's Association convention in May. This picture was taken in the president's corner at the Cow Belles' luncheon. Left to right are Mrs. Robert Burghart, Colorado Springs, national president; Mrs. Dave Campbell, Bly, outgoing state president, and Mrs. Walter Jacobson, North Powder, state president for 1958.

NEW OFFICERS of the Newcomers Club were installed recently by Mrs. Ted B. Case, center, retiring president. The new officers are, from left, Mrs. John T. Howard, vice president; Mrs. Sam E. Moss, president; Mrs. Gerald M. Wadkins, treasurer and Mrs. Clinton C. Mills, secretary.

GUESTS FROM THE FAR NORTH who loved Oregon but flew right back to Alaska, have been Mrs. Paul Morgan, far left, and daughter Connie Rae, 13, third from the left, seated next to Charles A. Whittemore, 6429 South Sixth Street. Ricky Whittemore, also 13, sits next to his mother, right. Mrs. Morgan and daughter are from Sitka, Alaska, where the Whittemore family lived and were in business for several years. They are now co-owners of the Mt. View Trailer Court on South Sixth. The hosts and their guests did a bit of vacationing on Puget Sound near Seattle before Mrs. Morgan and daughter left for home. —Photo by Kettler

A GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY is a time for a family gathering. Daughters and their families were present on June 29 to honor Mr. and Mrs. Elton Owen Foster when 50 years of marriage was the occasion for a party at the Klamath Falls Yacht Club. Seated on floor, left to right, are Douglas Stiles and John Hazzard, grandsons. Seated second row are Jay Hazzard, Sacramento, son-in-law; Mrs. Hazzard (Dencie Foster), a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Elbert Stiles (Wyoming Foster), a daughter, and Elbert Stiles, Standing, Steven Stiles, grandson, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nole Jr. (Rosalie Hazzard, granddaughter.) —Photo by Otto Ellis

Yreka Pythians Bestow Knight Rank On Nine

YREKA — An impressive open air ceremony was held when the Knight rank was bestowed on nine candidates, three from Yreka and six from Weaverville, at the 18th annual Knights of Pythias ceremonies at the Pythian Cave south of Yreka.

The June 28 event was highlighted by the presence of the grand chancellor of California, Richard C. Wilburn of Highland, who was specially honored.

A large group from the Yreka Lodge and members from San Bernardino, Lakewood, the Bay Area, Sacramento, Reno, Nevada, and Southern Oregon attended the ceremonies, presided over by the chancellor commander of Yreka Lodge No. 164, Wayne Armstrong.

In charge of the ritualistic feast which centered the rites of the order was Lee Morford, past chancellor. Initiates becoming members of the Yreka order were James Freeman, Julius van Lawick and Joseph Moore Jr.

Participating in the rites were Wayne Armstrong, Kenneth Bley, Walter Bray, Edwin Brown, Lloyd R. Cooney, Carl Hovey, Harold Lange, Henry Lauridsen, Wesley McMillan, Lee Morford, Basil Price, Clayton Rawson, James C. Robinson, Wayne Ralston, Pete Schlueter, Ted Simcox, Russell Smith, Warren Smith and William S. Swigart.

Prior to the ceremonies a banquet was served by the Aurora Temple No. 53, Pythian Sisters; to 125 Yreka and visiting Knights of Pythias and wives in the Odd Fellows Hall in Yreka.

During the dinner a presentation of a colored photograph of Mount Shasta was made to Grand Chancellor Wilburn by Wayne Armstrong on behalf of the Yreka Lodge.

During the ceremonies the Pythian Sisters were entertained at the Odd Fellows Hall where special honors were bestowed on Mrs. Quinter (Edith) Harris of Sacramento, formerly of Yreka. Mrs. Harris was honored as the newly elected Pythian Sisters Grand Guard of California.

The program featured a skit "This Is Your Life in Yreka, Edith Harris."

Participating in the skit were Mrs. Ella Burns, Mrs. Effie Butler, Mrs. George Calkins, Mrs. John Cawley, Mrs. Lloyd Cooney, Mrs. W. W. Barham, Mrs. Earle Greene, Mrs. Wayne Hill, Mrs. Beth Holloway, Mrs. Ernest Johnson, Mrs. Art Phillips, Mrs. Desey Sullivan, Mrs. Ollie Spurlock and Mrs. Isabelle Tebbe.

Mrs. Harris was presented a cake, which had been decorated as a "Book of Memories" by Mrs. Olive Vega. The cake, a gift from the Pythian Sisters, was presented by Mrs. Helena Schlueter, most excellent chief.

Kenneth Bley was general chairman in charge of the ceremonial and the dinner chairman was Mrs. Irene Willenbrink. Program committee chairman was Mrs. Clarence Robinson.

On Sunday morning, June 29 some 50 Yreka and visiting Knights of Pythias and their wives gathered in the garden patio of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Schlueter for breakfast.

ALOHA TO THE MAINLAND will soon be changed to Aloha to the Islands, when Roberta Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Matthews, 1832 Earle, returns home August 4 following a summer session at the University of Hawaii in Honolulu. Roberta sailed last month aboard the SS Lurline from Los Angeles. She is enrolled in a home ec course at the university, and will return in time to complete her final year at a home economics major at Oregon State College this fall. Roberta's parents are gearing themselves for the dishes they know will come with her return—poi, lomi lomi salmon, and all the rest of the trimmings for a real Hawaiian luau.

Family Reunion

YREKA — The Glenn Feustal home in Yreka was the scene of a family reunion over the Fourth of July weekend when all their daughters, sons-in-law and 17 grandchildren gathered.

Setting the spark for the festive event was the arrival of Captain and Mrs. Louis J. Mecarteas (Betty Feustal), Mike and Maureen, on July 1 from Japan, where Captain Mecarteas has been with the Army for the past three years. His family was with him the past two years.

The Mecarteas returned by boat and were met in San Francisco June 28 by Mrs. Mecarteas's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey of Red Bluff, with their children, Betty Lynn and Ronnie. On the trip to Yreka, the party was joined by Bailey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bailey. Next to join the reunion at the Feustal home were another son-in-law and daughter with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rizzo, Glenn, Margaret Ann and Thresa, all of Weed.

Events included a turkey dinner, an outdoor barbecue and then the entire party drove to the Frank Rizzo home at Weed for an Italian spaghetti feed.

Several hours were spent one evening viewing colored motion pictures taken by the Mecarteas during their three years in Japan. The Mecarteas family left July 10 for Fort Riley, Kansas, where Captain Mecarteas will report back for duty.

The distance between the earth and the moon is 238,857 miles.

Fifty Years Married Life For K.F. Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Owen Foster, who have lived in Klamath Falls since 1925, were honored on June 29 with a reception at the Klamath Falls Yacht Club for their 50th wedding anniversary. They were married on June 28, 1908. Mrs. Foster was the former Isabella McElroy, Kirby, Wyoming.

Hosts for the delightfully appointed affair were their daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hazzard, Sacramento, and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles, Klamath Falls. Reception hours were from 1 to 5 p.m. Also in the receiving line were their granddaughter, Mrs. Frank Nole Jr., and Mr. Nole, Sacramento.

The three-tiered golden wedding cake, topped with the symbol of half a century, was encircled with white rosebuds and golden leaves on a frill of golden net at the base. Golden tapers further enhanced the central motif.

Nancy Clark, Janie Larkin and Mary Margaret Addison were in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Foster wore a golden orchid at the shoulder and her husband wore a gold carnation, both gifts of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mack. Other flowers were in keeping with the anniversary theme.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hillis, this city, guests during the afternoon, who were celebrating their 29th wedding anniversary on the day of the reception, were presented with a corsage and boutonniere by the hostesses for the party.

Assisting about the rooms during the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. George Blanas, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gunnison, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. John Larson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mack, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lassett.

Mrs. Charlotte Martin, Mrs. Lucille Wirtz, Mrs. Ed Boothby, Mrs. N. S. Hepburn, Mrs. Louise O'Brien, Mrs. Iona Mae Wells, Mrs. Louis Fritsch, Mrs. Neil Black and Mrs. H. O. Juckeland.

"Lollipop" Theme Of Church Party

"Lollipop" was the theme chosen for the Malin Westminster Fellowship's Basin party held June 13 at the Yacht Club.

The room was decorated with alternate pink and white lollipops. A canopy covered the refreshment table, from which some 80 guests from four churches in the Basin were served.

Churches represented included Peace Memorial, Malin, Tulelake, and Peace Memorial Presbyterian.

Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Green of Malin; the Rev. and Mrs. Art Johnson, Tulelake; the Rev. and Mrs. Ethan Whitman, Malin; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harmon, Klamath Falls.

Guests danced and played games during the party. Punch and cookies were served.

A record 49,489 persons visited Yosemite National Park over the Memorial Day weekend this year.

"The Best Place To Shop After All"

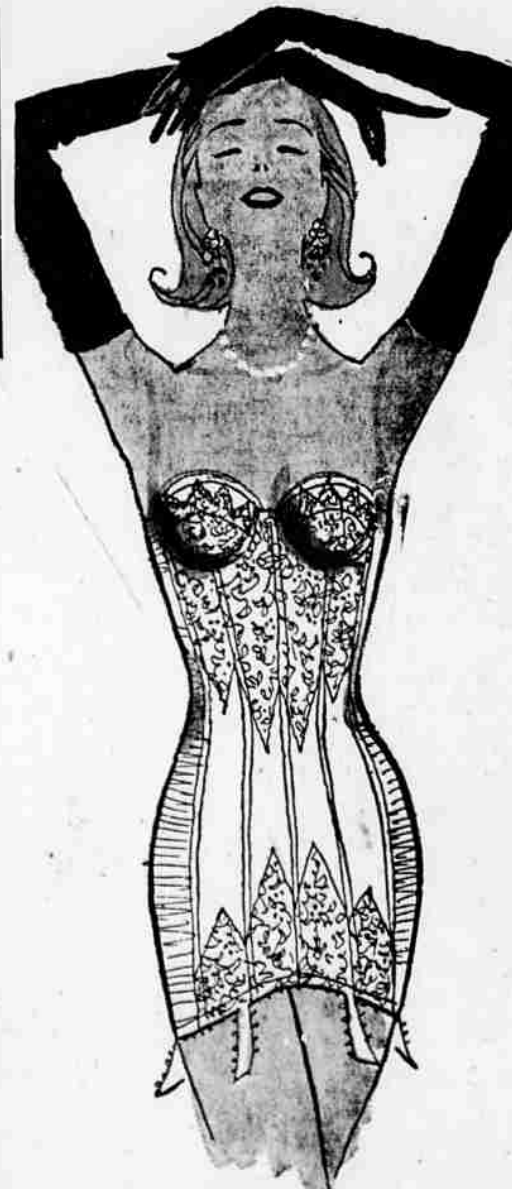

13-17 Wisp of sheer nylon and light elastic curving upward from your hips to form a most romantic figure. Sizes: Colors: $15.00

Wanted for manslaughter:

merry widow by warner's®

Merry Widow by Warner's has absolutely fatal power! Makes your waistline smaller by inches, lifts a high, feminine bosom.

Choose from our most wanted MERRY WIDOWS TODAY!

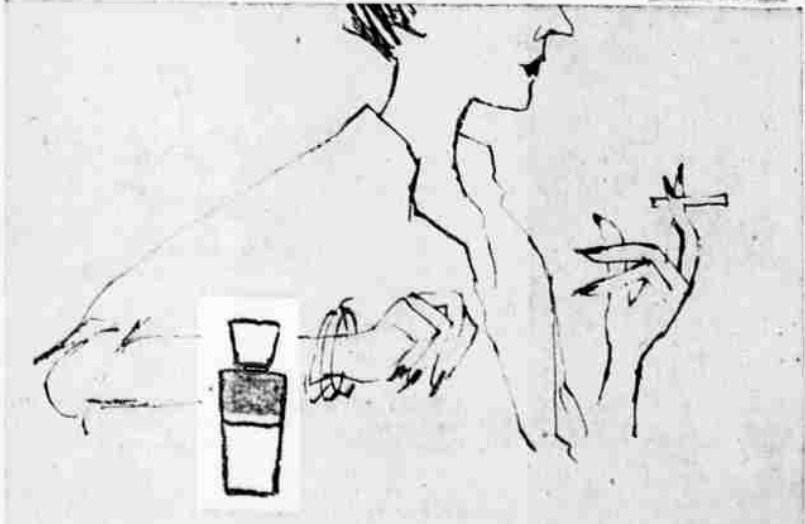

3366 Outrageously flattering, this sheath-shaping corsette surrounds you with lace and loveliness. Cups foam-lined. Sizes: Colors: $29.50

(R) Trade Mark Reg. U.S. Patent Office

Vi Reed, Miller's very own Charles of the Ritz New York trained consultant.

anti-perspirant

Because anti-perspirant is the basic beauty essential for good grooming, the one you choose should be the very best—safe, gentle and completely effective. Charles of the Ritz gives you a creamy liquid anti-perspirant easier to apply than creams or lotions, highly efficient and kind to both sensitive skins and fabrics. 2 oz., $1.25. New 4 oz. plastic bottle, $2.00. Both plus tax.

Charles of the Ritz