Carmel-by-the-Sea Scene Wilkinson-Zuur Wedding Rites June 22

TULELAKE—In the historic and beautiful Mission San Carlos Borromeo de Carmelo at Carmel-by-the-Sea in California, marriage vows were exchanged June 22 by Barbara Joan Zuur and Gordon Lee Wilkinson. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Zuur of Santa Rosa. Gordon's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Noble C. Wilkinson, well known Tulelake ranchers.

Monsignor Clement J. McKenna of St. Vincent's Catholic Church in San Rafael officiated at the 2 p.m. Sacrament of Holy Matrimony.

White gladioli and snapdragons graced the altar. August Palmieri, Santa Rosa, sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" and "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother."

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was gowned in ballerina length, with bouffant skirt. The long torso lace bodice was designed with Italian neckline and the long, pointed sleeves ended in points at the wrists. A bandeau of lace and pearls held her fingertip veil of tulle. She carried an arrangement of white carnations.

Mrs. Melvin Flohr, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her white dotted swiss dress was trimmed with tiny coral flowers. Her flowers were coral carnations.

Christine Zuur, flower girl, wore a dress identical to her elder sister's and also carried a miniature arrangement of carnations in the same coral shade.

Jerald Rodder, Los Altos, was best man. Ushers were Richard Rossini, San Francisco; Melvin Flohr and Thomas L. Zuur, the bride's brother of Santa Rosa.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Zuur chose a pure silk print of avocado and Mimosa yellow, with matching hat. Mrs. Wilkinson wore a pastel blue silk shantung sheath with matching picture hat and an orchid corsage.

A garden reception followed the service at the Carmel home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hunter.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson left by plane for a two-weeks wedding trip to Mexico. Mrs. Wilkinson decided on a black sheath with white accessories for traveling. They are now at home at 215 Corbett, San Francisco.

Barbara is a graduate of San Jose State College where she is affiliated with Alpha Phi. She has a taught in Carmel. Her husband, a graduate of Tulelake High School and the University of California at Berkeley, is associated with Sichel Equipment Company, San Francisco.

AN AUGUST GARDEN PARTY is planned for the new Mr. and Mrs. James Owen Osborne who were married in Reno on June 28. Mrs. Osborne is the former Joan Estes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Estes, 2056 Lawrence Street, this city. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Osborne, Homedale Road. Joan attended Stevens College, Columbia, Missouri, for two years. James is a graduate of Sacramento Junior College. The young couple will live in Lakeview.

Murphy-Dunham Rites Are Of Local Interest

A wedding in Fresno of interest to family friends here is that of Sue Claire Dunham, mid-June bride of Donald Edward Murphy. She is the daughter of Mrs. R. Michael Laubhan and the late Major Don Dunham, Lemnonton, California. Major Dunham, a native of Klamath Falls, was killed in action in Italy during World War II. He was the stepson of Mrs. E. A. Dunham, 435 Oak Avenue, and the son of late E. A. (Ed) Dunham, well known Klamath Basin business man, and the brother of Mrs. Dorothy Dunham Ankeny, 128 Hillside.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Murphy, Nelson, California, who have ranching interests in Butte County.

The marriage was solemnized in St. John's Cathedral on Saturday, June 14. Monsignor Francis X. Singleton officiated at the 2 p.m. nuptial ceremony in the presence of some 200 guests. The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, R. Michael Laubhan.

Her floor length gown of white Swiss organdy was designed with a modified off-the-shoulder neckline, chemise sleeves and a skirt that flared from the slim, fitted bodice. Bands of Guipure-type lace bordered the low, oval neckline and vertical bands of the same lace tapered to the waist and continued in a princess effect onto the extremely full skirt.

She wore a waist length veil of silk illusion, brief gauntlets of organdy — and she carried a cascade bouquet of blue and white carnations with stephanotis.

Her cousin, Mrs. John Simkins, matron of honor; and bridesmaids, Mrs. Don Dunham, sister-in-law of the bride; Dorothy Barsamian, both of Fresno; Bara Ledford, Dos Palos; and Karen Myers, Oroville, wore identical ensembles. Their dresses were of blue nylon dotted Swiss with ballerina length skirts, chiffon cummerbunds and diagonal pleat detail on the bodices, and they wore white picture hats with large sweetheart bows of matching satin.

Flower girl for her aunt was Kathy Dunham, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Dunham. She was dressed in a yellow dotted Swiss replica of the senior atendants' frocks and carried a basket of blue and white carnations.

Jimmy Murphy, ring bearer, and Michael Murphy, best man, are both brothers of the bridegroom. Ushers were Milton LaMalfa of Oroville; Ron Mitchell, Lindsay, California; Ron Cleland, Yreka; and Winston Gee, Medford.

The cathedral was decorated with basket bouquets of white gladioli and blue and white carnations and white satin bows marked the pews.

The same colors prevailed in the floral decor for the reception in St. John's Hall, and blue scrolls and rosebuds decorated the white wedding cake, which was cut with a family heirloom cake knife. The bridegroom's sister, Jean Murphy, registered the guests; and Pat Saranson served the cake and punch.

Mrs. Laubhan's frock for the nuptial event was a green and white polka dot silk chiffon che-

Linda Pope, John Eskildsen Wed In Portland Episcopal Church Rites

All white snapdragons and stock with Esther Reed daisies were used in floral arrangements on the high altar and mixed pastel garden flowers — pale blue delphinium, yellow and white daisies, pink and lavender and white sweet peas with white Esther Reed daisies were in chancel rail containers for the wedding of Linda Jean Pope to John David Eskildsen on June 20 in Portland All Saints Episcopal Church. The Rev. Louis B. Keiter officiated at the 8 p.m. nuptial ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Pope, well known Fort Klamath ranchers and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Niels Eskildsen and the late Niels Eskildsen, Portland.

Linda, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of airy white imported embroidered organdy with an extravagantly full bouffant skirt over a hooped foundation. The floor length hemline swept into a brief chapel train. Embroidered scallops outlined the vee neck of the fitted short sleeved bodice, which emphasized the bride's slim waist.

A delicate tiara of pleated net, lilies of the valley and touches of seed pearls held her elbow length veil. Her colonial bridal bouquet also featured lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid and encircled with a ruffle of imported French lace. She carried a family heirloom handkerchief of Battenburg lace and her ensemble included the traditional blue garter and a penny in her shoe.

She was attended, as maid of honor by Sue Ramsby, roommate and Phi Beta Phi sorority sister at University of Oregon. Sue wore a white cotton lace over pale yellow tulle-sheath with a snug cummerbund of matching yellow tulle. Her ribbon coiffette and daisy bouquet were also yellow.

Best man, Stanley Urbigkett, Portland, and ushers, James Lynch, Lakeview and Sam Notes, Portland, are all Alpha Tau Omega fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Organist for the wedding was Frank Axtman, friend of the family.

Floral decorations at the reception in the social room of the church were the same combination as those used for the wedding with other pastel garden flowers arranged in large room bouquets.

The three-tiered white and pastel yellow cake, encircled at the base with yellow daisies and white bouvardia on leather fern, and topped with a small arrangement of yellow roses and white bouvardia, was cut by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Harold Eckman, and served by Mary Ellen Ede, also a sorority sister of the bride at University of Oregon.

Mrs. J. William Livesay poured coffee; Ardyss Urbigkett and Charlene Isaacs were at one punch bowl; Susan Ravizza registered the guests and Bonne Livesay, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.

William Livesay, distributed the rice packets.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pope wore a creamy beige lace sheath with scoop neckline and bracelet sleeves. Her gloves and slippers and handbag were matching beige as was her hat — a modified "wig" of feathers. Accenting the ensemble was a single white orchid worn as a shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Eskildsen attended her son's wedding and the reception in a wedgewood blue silk shantung suit with matching accessories — and her corsage was a white orchid.

The bachelor party for the bridegroom was given by fraternity brother Bruce Titus at the Titus home in Portland on June 18. Guests were all close friends and ATO fraternity brothers.

On Thursday evening, June 19, before the Friday nuptials, mother of the bridegroom and his sister, Mrs. Eckman, entertained at the Eskildsen home with an after-rehearsal buffet supper and party for members of the wedding party and out of town guests.

Pre-nuptial parties for the bride included a miscellaneous shower given by Sue Ramsby at the Pi Beta Phi sorority house on the Eugene campus; a shower in Portland — also miscellaneous — given by Betty Shelley; and a kitchen shower given by Mrs. Edwin Miers at her Portland home.

Linda, graduated from Chiloquin High School in 1955, was valedictorian of her class. She enrolled at University of Oregon where she became affiliated with Pi Beta Phi social sorority and met her husband. He is a graduate of Lincoln High School, Portland, was graduated in business administration from U of O in 1958. During his senior year he was president of the Alpha Tau Omega chapter house.

The couple honeymooned briefly before returning to Portland where John will work this summer, and where Linda will continue as secretary in the office of a Portland physician and surgeon. They are now at home, 913 NE 47th Street.

For travel, Linda wore a navy blue chemise with white Pilgrim collar, navy shoes and bag. Other accent notes of white were her
