

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM LEROY MILLSAP (nee Diana Dee Shaw).

Shaw-Millsap Vows In Lakeview Baptist Church

LAKEVIEW — The wedding of Diana Dee Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Shaw of Lakeview, and William Leroy Millsap was solemnized Saturday evening, June 22, at the First Baptist Church in Lakeview with Dr. Alfred Russell officiating at the double ring ceremony. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Millsap of New Pine Creek.

Organ music was played by Mrs. Norma Sanderson as the bridal party approached the altar where Diana was given in marriage by her father. White gladioli in floral stands backed with lighted candles constituted the altar bouquets.

The all-over lace of the bride's gown was fashioned over satin with a deep vee neckline in front and back of the fitted bodice and small sleeves. The full skirt was emphasized by a large hoop and scallops of lace outlined a bustle over a dress-long panel of pleated net. The circle of illusion forming the waist-length veil was fastened to a half-crown of pleated tulle and seed pearls. Her bouquet was composed of white roses, a white orchid and streamers of ivy.

The pastel shades of the attendants' dresses were in keeping with the summer ceremony. The sleeveless, ballerina length dresses with low, round necklines and fitted princess lines were made of nylon with lace inserts over taffeta. Judith Snider wore pink; Joyce Thurlow Queener, yellow and Audrey Millsap, green. They carried nosegays made from white gladioli. Audrey is a sister of the bridegroom. Gail Shaw, 5-year-old sister of the bride, was dressed in a full length frock of dotted white nylon over a bouffant underskirt of white taffeta for her role as flower girl. The skirt was outlined in deep scallops, cornered with pink rosebuds. Her flowers were white rosebuds.

The bride's young brothers, Alan and Lane, wore candlelighters. Bill Van Cleave Jr., Lakeview, was best man; James Cooper of New Pine Creek and John Cannon of Grants Pass ushered. Sylvia Johnson sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's SEVEN MONTHS is a long time to wait for a Christmas present, especially to a little girl who is 10 years old, going on 11, but Geri Poe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Poe of Mount Shasta has done that. Geri was awarded a trip to Disneyland on December 14, 1957, as the winner of a drawing contest sponsored by the Mount Shasta Merchant's Association, but no adult could accompany her at that time. The association made a special dispensation, so Geri and her sister, Jeanne and parents, left Saturday for Los Angeles and will tour Disneyland on July 14—exactly seven months later.

—McKinney Photo

Peace Memorial Church Scene of Jones O'Brien Vows

Alaska will be the home of newly wedded Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Jones, who exchanged wedding vows in Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church of Klamath Falls, witnessed by a small group of relatives and close friends. The double ring service was read at 3 p.m. June 21 by the Rev. Lloyd Henderson, pastor of the Merrill Presbyterian Church.

Baskets of white stock and pink carnations on the chancel railing and altar bouquets of the same flowers formed the background for the nuptial ceremonies.

The former June Virginia O'Brien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. O'Brien, Klamath Falls, was given in marriage by her father.

The bride chose a white net and lace gown, fashioned with a high pointed collar, with a lace bodice, long sleeves and lace points on the skirt. Her fingertip veil was attached to a lace headpiece and was worn by her sister at her wedding. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pink rosebuds and stephanotis with long streamers.

Mrs. Frank Deckebach of Astoria, sister of the bride, was her prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Sanderson.

The bride's mother wore a princess style navy blue afternoon dress with white accessories, and Mrs. Millsap chose beige lace with white accessories. Both wore pink rosebud corsages.

Approximately 125 relatives and friends gathered for the reception in the church recreation room. The four-tiered wedding cake was made by Mrs. Norma Blalock, friend of the young couple. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Zane Gray and Mrs. Herman Arzner, and at the coffee service were Mrs. Walter Thurlow and Mrs. J. W. Millsap, grandmother of the bridegroom. His other grandmother, Mrs. Ernest Engstrom of Prineville, and his aunt, Mrs. Darwin Robnett of New Pine Creek, served punch. The gift table was attended by Mary Jean O'Connor, Karen Byington and Pat Shannon.

For a wedding trip to Grants Pass the bride wore a powder blue dressmaker suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. The couple will make their home in Lakeview at the Hunter's Lodge apartments, Diana, a 1958 graduate of Lakeview High School, was prominent in FHA and GAA activities, and is now employed by the Fremont National Forest Service. Bill is a graduate of Modoc Union High School and Oregon Technical Institute and is employed at Briscoe Motors in Lakeview.

Relatives of the bride from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Holbrook and son Melvin Jr., Merlin; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Jube Jr. and daughters, Michele and Celeste, of Northridge, California. Millsap family relatives were Mrs. J. W. Millsap of Klickitat, Washington; Mrs. M. A. Hinrichs, Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Engstrom; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Claypool and family; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Engstrom Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gerke, all of Prineville.

Reshaping Baby's bonnet is relatively simple. Merely spread it over a padded bowl to dry. This also speeds drying, since the padding absorbs moisture while doing its shaping job.

only attendant, and she was gowned in a ballerina length pink flocked nylon dress with which she wore a small matching hat. Her nosegay bouquet was of pink carnations and lavender stock.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Jones of Seward, Alaska, had asked Frank Deckebach, brother-in-law of the bride, of Astoria, to be his best man, Albert Towle, Saratoga, California, a teacher at James Lick High School in San Jose, was usher.

Mrs. Margaret Sheridan sang "O Perfect Love" and "Through the Years." She was accompanied by Marie Obenchain, who also played the wedding marches on the organ.

The lounge of the church was the setting for the reception.

The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a pink bell and Esther Reed daisies in pink and lavender were used as decorations around the base. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Thomas E. Cameron, Temple City, California, cut the cake and she was assisted by Betty Tyson, a teacher from James Lick High School in San Jose. The coffee was served by Mrs. Albert Towle, Saratoga, California, and the punch was poured by Mrs. Jack Paul, San Jose. Edna Chew of San Jose registered the guests.

The mother of the bride wore a dressmaker suit of medium blue with a matching hat. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was unable to attend.

As neither of the bridegroom's parents were at the wedding, the ceremony was taped and sent to them. The top tier of the wedding cake and the bell ornament from the cake were also mailed to Alaska for the bridegroom's family.

When the newly married couple left for their wedding trip to Mt. Lassen National Park, Yosemite National Park, San Francisco and San Jose, the bride changed into a blue-gray suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

The young couple will return to Klamath Falls before going to Astoria for a visit, then they will drive to Alaska where they will be at home in Seldovia after September 1.

June is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and San Jose State College. She did her graduate work at Stanford University and the University of Alaska. She has been a member of the science department faculty of James Lick High School in San Jose.

Warren attended high school in Indiana and is a graduate of the University of Alaska with majors in mathematics and physics. He is a high school teacher in Seldovia.

Their romance began last summer at the University of Alaska when both of them were attending the college on fellowships from the National Science Foundation.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Paul, Betty Tyson, Mrs. George Chew, Edna Chew, all of San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Towle and daughter, Linda, Saratoga, California; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jimeron, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Schultz, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deckebach, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, and son, David, Astoria; Carol Ann Campbell, Veneta, Oregon; and Mrs. Virginia Butler, Vancouver, Washington.

MR. AND MRS. WARREN E. JONES

Weed Delegate To Long Beach In Late August

WEED — Mrs. Ruth Patterson was recommended as deputy Pocatontas and representative to the Great Council at Long Beach in August at the regular meeting of Wabeno Council 231, degree of Pocatontas, Friday night, June 20, at the White Pine Hall.

Mrs. Geneva Hildreth, Pocatontas, presided at the meeting and announced the next meeting of the council would be July 14 at which time the newly-elected chiefs would be raised.

Sympathy was extended to Mrs. Mae Tidmore on the recent death of her father and memorial was held with respect to Great Past Pocatontas, Mrs. Elizabeth Wohlfahrd, whose death was announced. The members extended congratulations to Mrs. S. Plueger on the birth of a baby girl.

Mrs. Esther Aquila received the coin award and Mrs. Dorothy Soltana received the mystery package for the evening.

O. A. McRae was honored at the Fathers Day potluck supper following the meeting adjournment and games were enjoyed by all members attending.

Mrs. James Bishop Foster, left, and Mrs. Joseph B. Parker Jr.

Coffee Hour Honors Guests

Mrs. Robert Erlanson and Mrs. Robert Payne were hostesses July 2 at a morning coffee honoring Mrs. Joseph B. Parker of Durham, North Carolina, and her mother, Mrs. James Bishop Foster of Klamath Falls. The delightfully appointed gathering from 9:30 a.m. to just past noon, was at the home of Mrs. Erlanson, 2925 Lawrence Street.

Mrs. Parker, the former Phyllis Foster, this city, taught Spanish at Klamath Union High School before leaving for the sunny south to make her home where her husband is professor of psychiatry at Duke University Medical School.

She has spent several weeks here, accompanied by her two children, Suzanna, 9, and Joseph, 6, with her mother at the family home, 725 Eldorado. Mrs. Foster plans to leave soon with Mrs. Parker for Durham, where she will make her home following a return trip to Klamath Falls.

Some 250 guests were greeted in the cool rooms of the Erlanson home where coffee was served from a beautifully appointed table centered with white gardenias floating in silver shells.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Rex Hiatt Jr., Mrs. Robert Veatch, Mrs. William Ganong, Mrs. Wesley Ezell, Mrs. Lyle Kelstrom, Mrs. Rex Young, Mrs. William F. Scott, Mrs. Calvin Hunt, Mrs. Adolph Zamski, Mrs. Otto Erlanson, all of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Robert Ervin, Eugene, and Mrs. Richard Smart of Redding.

If there is a lone woman in a group of married couples, the men should make sure that she is looked after. Being a lone woman in a group of couples can be awkward unless the men are courteously attentive. In such a situation it is downright rude for the men to let a woman look after herself.

FREE CUSTOMER PARKING

The Town Shop

"SHOP THE STORE YOU ENJOY"

magic cling

new Playtex
Magic-Cling™ bra with revolutionary clinging back...

An amazing new elastic back of Anoset* fabric clings gently... never slips down or rides up. Keeps you in heavenly comfort all day long. And, because the back stays in place, the front stays higher. Gives you an inch more uplift than other strapless bras. Specially designed contour cups shape you naturally, beautifully, for today's fashions. In white only. 32A-38C. $5.95

USE YOUR CHARGE ACCOUNT

There's a special glow of pride that comes with owning one of these beautiful Oriental-inspired rugs. It's the pleasure of seeing your décor bathed in new warmth and graciousness. It's the delight you'll take in the shimmering colors... the velvety highlights that make a Karastan rare and wonderful. Start owning your glorious Karastan today. Just drop in at our Karastan gallery.

"Established Since 1920"

LUCAS FURNITURE

195 East Main Phone TU 4-3134

Hundreds of soft elastic strands are woven into the inner back. Gently cling and anchor.

Miller's, 512 Main Klamath Falls, Ore.

Please send me the following Playtex Magic-Cling Bra:

| Bra | Color | Size | Price | Quantity |
|-------------|-------|------|--------|----------|
| Magic-Cling | White | | $5.95 | |

Name _____ Please Print
Address _____
City _____ State _____
 Charge C.O.D. Money Order Cash

©1957 by International Sales Corporation. Printed in U.S.A.