Purkey, Burdette Lead Way

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A pitcher's pride being what it is, Cincinnati's Bob Purkey might be hard pressed to pick between his own shutout and the home run hitting of Larrupin Lew Burdette.

Purkey pitched a dandy last night, blanking second-place San Francisco for the second time this season, 4-0, and extending his scoreless jinx over the Giants to 42 innings since May 7, 1955.

But pitchers more than likely will recall their hitting over anything short of a no-hitter, and Burdette built a memory that is a beaut, driving in five runs with a pair of homers, one a grand slam, as Milwaukee beat Los Angeles 8-4.

Burdette now has a total of four homers in the majors, both in pairs—tying Don Newcombe for the National League record for most times hitting two in a game by pitchers.

While Burdette and Purkey were combining to put Milwaukee 1 1/2 games ahead of San Francisco in the race, the Philadelphia Phillies skipped past St. Louis into third place by whipping the Cardinals 13-3. The Chicago Cubs beat Pittsburgh 8-7.

In the American League, the Yankees beat Cleveland 7-4 and 4-3 in a day-night double-header. Boston ripped the Chicago White Sox 11-2 and took second place as Baltimore dropped Kansas City 6-3 and 3-2 in a two-night pair. Washington defeated Detroit 5-3.

Redlegs 4, Giants 0

Purkey, now 10-5, walked but one, struck out two and gave up seven hits, six of them singles, while gaining his third shutout of the season.

The Reds handed Al Worthington (8-4) the defeat with Frank Robinson driving in two runs with his ninth homer and one of two singles.

GP Golfer Wins State PGA Crown

REDMOND (AP)—The new Oregon Professional Golf Assn. match play champion is Walter "Boots" Porterfield, 31, Grants Pass, who four years ago won the Wisconsin Open.

He downed Bob Gasper, Cottage Grove, 7 and 5, in the final of the annual OPGA tournament here Thursday.

Porterfield, playing soundly and steadily, cashed in on poor chipping and putting by Gasper to take a six-up lead at the end of the first nine holes.

He was eight up after the 21st. Gasper came back to take the 22nd and 24th holes.

After the golfers had halved the 26th and 27th holes with birdies, Porterfield added birdies on the 30th and 31st to end the 6-hour contest, which was played in above-90-degree temperatures.

"I'm tired," said Porterfield. "This is the toughest grind I have ever faced."

The new champion said time he spent as a touring professional helped him.

"You learn on the tour," he said, "not to worry if you waste or make a bad shot."

Neither was a problem for him Thursday, anyway.

The victory was worth $360 to Porterfield. Gasper collected $240.

Portlander Gains Semis

CHICAGO (UPI)—An auto salesman, a law student, a junior high teacher and a stevedore remained today to play for everyman's golf championship, the National Public Links crown.

Junie Buxbaum, a 128-pound Memphis auto salesman who won the title in 1956, was the stand-out name left in the field of four who play a pair of 36-hole semifinal matches at Silver Lake Golf Club today. He'll meet the junior high teacher, Bob Ludlow, a burly 220-pounder from Indianapolis.

In the other scrap Bob E. Patterson, a 37-year-old "walking boss" on the Portland, Ore. docks, will match shots with Dan Sikes, 27, a law student at the University of Florida.

Sikes was the tourney giant-killer, eliminating defending champion Don Essig, of Indianapolis, 5 and 4 in the third round. Essig had won the qualifying medal as the only man to break par with a 144.

The primary purpose of the tremendous Klamath Falls summer baseball and softball program is to further the physical conditioning of our youngsters while teaching them practical lessons of fair play, teamwork and discipline and the value of winning or losing sensibly. . . . Fact of the matter that is the purpose of like programs the world over.

The above statement will obviously come as a shock to some adults.

Everyone knows that grownups need a place to blow off pent-up steam, aggravations, and the like, accumulated over a tough day at the office, plant or wherever. . . . The discussion arises, now, as to the place where, and the manner in which they give vent to this release.

The 'ball game,' for decades, has been the ideal spot. . . . and no one wants to change that. The right to root for the 'Home Team' is here to stay.

Many more thoughtful adults feel, as I do, though, that incentive and insult heaped on ball players and umpires ranging in age from 8 to 15 years can't really be a very satisfactory outlet for this emotion (or whatever one would like to call it).

It has been proven that it is of no benefit to the kids. . . . and it also has been proven that it just makes a lot of other adults mad.

Perhaps it would be wise to add one more provision. . . . (6) Coaches should be made responsible for both players and parents' conduct during and after games.

Away from baseball for a bit. . . . From the activity noticed around the municipal pool every Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday noon, swimming coach Karen Boardman and adviser Carrie Heilbroner are doing a great job in readying the local swimming team for its participation in the Klamath Falls Invitational meet to be held here July 26. . . . Teams from Redding, Bend, Lakeview, Eugene, Grants Pass, Medford and Redmond are slated to compete.

Gallant Man Heavy Pick For Turf Cup

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI)—Gallant Man today lollied in his barn at Hollywood Park while racing fans virtually conceded him Saturday's $182,100 Hollywood Gold Cup.

The little thoroughbred, one of the nation's top contenders for Horse of the Year honors, headed a small field of five horses named for the mile and a quarter race which guarantees the winner $100,000 net.

Despite his top impost of 130 pounds and the fact that he spots his opponents from 12 to 22 pounds, Gallant Man was expected to be a prohibitive choice.

Facing him will be such seasoned campaigners as Eddie Schmidt, 110, Seaneen, 118, Mystic Eye, 108 and Swirling Abbey 106.

But Gallant Man goes into the race off his victory over Bold Ruler in the Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont, having been blown here following that race.

The little 980-pound, English-bred colt is no stranger to Hollywood Park, for it was here that he scored his maiden victory two years ago at a $89.30 price.

The four-year-old star had his final tune-up Thursday for the Gold Cup and displayed a sizzling turn of speed as he worked five furlongs in 39 2/5 seconds with exercise boy Ronnie Zangari aboard. Following the drill trainer John Nerud exclaimed, "we're ready now."

Indians Drop Two To Yanks

The Boston Red Sox have regained a full share of second place in that runner-up race in the American League.

They have a 1 1/2-game edge over the rest of the outsiders in the race after cracking the Chicago White Sox last night. Jackie Jensen hampered a grand-slammer for his 25th home run.

That broke a tie with Kansas City, beaten twice at Baltimore in a two-night pair, 6-3 and 3-2, but didn't do much toward catching first-place New York. The Yankees swept a day-night double-header from Cleveland, 7-4 and 4-3 and lead by 11 games again.

Washington rapped Detroit 5-3 in the other AL game with three home runs.

In the National League, Milwaukee beat Los Angeles 8-4 while Cincinnati's Bob Purkey blanked second-place San Francisco 4-0 with a seven-hitter. Philadelphia jumped past St. Louis into third, beating the Cardinals 13-3. The Chicago Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 8-7.

Boston 11, ShiSox 2

Jensen, the major league homer and runs batted in (72) leader, capped a six-run fourth with his second slam of the season. Bob Keegan gave up the blast in relief of Early Wynn, who lost his seventh when Gene Stephens triggered the burst with a two-run homer, breaking a 1-1 tie.

Market Basket took a step ahead of the Men's Softball League race by edging the National Guard 2-1 in the featured game of Thursday night's league play at Conger Field.

In the other scheduled game, Mouldingcraft whipped the Air Force Jets 7-4.

Mitch Hanan hurled brilliant one-hit ball for the Market Basket club. He struck out seven. The lone hit off Hanan was a fifth-inning single by Sherman Hawkins. Jim Derrah had two hits in three trips for the winners.

Gus Gestvang tossed a three-hitter for Mouldingcraft. Norbert Schleiper homered with one on for Mouldingcraft to aid Gestvang's pitching effort which included 10 strikeouts.

"One nice thing . . . We're in good position for a swell view of the finish!"

KF Kubs, Legion Face Play

The Klamath Falls Kubs and American Legion Junior Baseball Club set their sights on a big baseball weekend Saturday and Sunday as both teams take on two different opponents.

Manager Irv Whitt's Kubs, slumping in fourth place in the Northern California League, are at home Saturday to Prineville, then Sunday go to Fort Jones to do battle with the Scott Valley Stars.

The local legion nine, under the eye of Hi Hatfield, has a do-or-die weekend ahead of it Saturday afternoon the club travels to Lakeview for a doubleheader, with the first game counting in league standings. Then Sunday afternoon it's to Grants Pass and a crucial game against the Cavemen legion baseballers.

The Kubs Saturday night game is a non-league affair but will put the local semi-pros to a good test. Prineville, a member of the Central Oregon League has picked up some fine college stars and should field a good ball club. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Whitt announced this week he had signed a new pitcher who will start Saturday night against Prineville. Gerry Burcher, from Fresno State, will join the team in time to work against the visitors from Central Oregon. Burcher has been pitching in the Los Angeles area earlier this season and comes here to join college teammate Dorn Martin, the Kubs brilliant shortstop.

Sunday afternoon, Klamath will be seeking to climb out of its three-game losing streak in Northern Cal play. After successive defeats handed down by Weed, Yreka and Mount Shasta, the Kubs hope they can solve last-place Scott Valley for a win.

Hatfield's legion charges could return home late Sunday with the district 3 Southern Oregon League title tucked under their arms if they continued to play the same brand of fine baseball they have turned in in recent games. The legion team has won five of its last seven games.

Going into the weekend's play, Grants Pass is one-half game ahead of Klamath after beating Medford Thursday night. A Klamath win Saturday at Lakeview would tie the count and Sunday's game at Grants Pass would be the showdown battle with the winner taking home all the marbles.

Ricky Adkins is Hatfield's probable choice to start against Lakeview with Dean Dunson also slated to see some pitching duty. At Grants Pass, Blake Griggs will probably start and if he is needed, Keith Ferrell will be Klamath's relief hurler.

Southpaw Joe Gibbon also got into the homer act as he won his own game with his first of the season in the seventh inning to give Columbus a 4-3 verdict over Richmond. It was Gibbon's fourth win. He has dropped six.

In the only other game played, Dick Bunker and Satchel Paige combined in pitching a five-hitter as Miami downed Havana, 5-2. Bunker picked up the win, his seventh. He has lost three.

Glen Cox, one of the International League's best hitting pitchers, eluded a pair of home runs Thursday night to pace the Buffalo Bisons to a 7-1 victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Cox, who hit seven home runs last year, whacked his third and fourth of the season to help break a four-game losing skid for his last-place Bisons. Mill Graff chipped in with his fourth to assist Cox to his seventh win in 13 decisions.

Rochester prevented Montreal from increasing its 3 1/2 game lead by defeating the Royals, 5 - 2. Dick Bicketts picked up his ninth win against eight setbacks. Ed Stevens hit his 11th homer with a man on in the ninth for Rochester.

Matchmaker Up On 'Fix' Charge

NEW YORK (AP)—The mystery of the wholesale serving of subpoenas the night of the Virgil Akins - Isaac Logart fight last March 21 has been solved with the indictment of boxing matchmaker Jimmy White.

The 51-year-old New Yorker was named yesterday by a grand jury on charges of conspiracy to fix the bout in question, and acting as an "undercover manager" for Logart. He pleaded innocent and was released on $2,500 bail.

The jury also linked Herman (Hymie the Mink) Wallman in the indictment as a conspirator but not as a defendant. Last week, in an indictment returned against boxing judge Bert Grant, Wallman also was named as a conspirator.

Ironically, the fix attempt on the Akins-Isaac bout failed to come off. The conspiracy count accused White and Wallman of acting in concert in planning to bribe certain officials, one of whom was expected to be Grant. However, Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan's office said none of those expected to be named officials was assigned to the fight and no bribe overture was made to the officials who did serve.

Akins, far behind, rallied to knock out Logart in the sixth round of their welterweight elimination bout. Akins then knocked out Vince Martinez in St. Louis June 6 to win the vacant welter crown.

The charge that White was an undercover manager for Logart in the Akins fight is based on the state law banning such affiliation.

To add to Wallman's woes, the New York State Athletic Commission yesterday refused to accept his licenses as manager and second which he had surrendered by mail, and ruled the charges against him in the Grant case would be heard July 17.

Jackie Burke Leads Open

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (UPI)—Jackie Burke Jr., who admits he is "back in shape" again after a hand operation, and Charlie Sifford today paced the field into the second round of the $25,000 Insurance City Open golf tournament.

Burke and Sifford, a four-time winner of the National Negro pro golf championship, each posted eight-under-par 63's during their first tour over the local 6,550-yard course Thursday.

Pressing Burke and Sifford for the lead were Marty Furgol, Doug Ford, Jim Ferree and George Bayer, all of who turned in opening 65's.

Arnold Palmer, the current Masters champion and top money winner on the circuit, was bracketed at 66 with Al Balding and Gary Player of South Africa.

Dr. Ted Lenzyk of Newington, Conn., was the top amateur with a 67—score matched by Ted Kroll, Art Wall Jr., Gene Litter and Tom Nieporte.
