

BASIN BRIEFS

Chemult—From 23 to 25 children are attending the Bible School in Chemult under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. George Sprague of Eugene. Plaques of Bible verses are being painted in the recreation hour, and the evening classes have a novel way of showing Bible verses with colored lights.

Worden—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Chapman, Worden, have just returned from Corvallis where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tucker, and Portland where Mrs. Chapman received medical care at the Portland Clinic. The Chapmans also visited friends in Medford and Ashland.

Keno—Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Trefren of Butte Falls, Oregon, accompanied by their daughter, Phyllis and family, visited with Trefren's sister, Mrs. Josie Snowgoose, and niece, Velma Bannulos and husband, over the holiday weekend.

Commended—Gene W. Wolter, Big Valley, son of Mrs. Arkie Lee Wolter, Bieber, received a letter of commendation recently from Col. Willis A. McKee, infantry commander, commending him for the manner he apprehended a Korean Service Corps laborer on June 4, 1958, in the laborer's attempt to steal certain documents that had been discarded for destruction in Korean.

Enrolled—Richard Puckett, Highland Park, Illinois, a graduate of KUHS, is enrolled in Lake Forest College, Lake Forest, Illinois, for the first 1958 summer session.

Alturas—Assembly of Rainbow for Girls honored Masons in this area when they held their regular meeting on Tuesday night, July 15, in the Masonic Temple. Each girl had invited a Mason as her guest to witness the initiation of a new member into the Order of Rainbow. Attending the ceremony were 19 Masons and 29 Eastern Star members. Mrs. Helen Morgan is mother adviser to the girls.

Injuries Fatal To Announcer, 19
BILLINGS, Mont. (AP)—Robert Biedrzycki, 19, a radio announcer, suffered multiple injuries when his car plunged off an eastern Montana highway early Saturday.

Unable to move or call out, he waved feebly for help for the next 30 hours. Two tourists who stopped for car repairs finally saw him.

He was flown from Glendive to a Billings Hospital. He died there yesterday.

NEUTRAL SWISS
BERN, Switzerland (AP)—Neutral little Switzerland has decided that it cannot afford not to have tactical nuclear weapons because other nations are getting them. The government announced Friday the Defense Department had been instructed to study where and how the weapons might be obtained for the long-distance future. They include artillery shells, atomic warheads and atomic mines.

Fort Rock—The annual picnic of the Lake County Homesteaders Association is scheduled for 12 noon Sunday, July 20, at Columbia Park, Lombard and Woolsey streets, Portland. All Fort Rock Valley and central Oregon residents are invited to attend and are requested to bring lunch, according to Wilbur Guisner of Wenatchee, Washington, association secretary. The 1957 picnic had an attendance of around 50, it was reported.

Visitors—at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. (Rube) Long, Fort Rock, recently were her mother and sister, Mrs. N. R. Workman and Neva Workman, of Marcola and her nephew and family, the Kenneth Kesters of Caldwell, Idaho.

Portland—visitors of the Howard McGee family in Fort Rock have been Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Doud and Mrs. Kenneth Breeze. The Douds came to visit their son, Jerry, who helps with irrigating at McGee's each summer. Mrs. Breeze brought her son, Mark, to work for the season.

Merrill—The Lost River Auxiliary to Post No. 4056 will hold a regular meeting on Wednesday, July 16, at 8 p.m. in the Merrill VFW hall. All officers are asked to please attend.

Surgery—Dr. F. D. Wilder, Klamath Agency, underwent major surgery in San Francisco Tuesday after taking tests and treatment there the past month. His wife, who went to San Francisco last Saturday, is returning this week. During their parents' absence, Sharon, Chilquin High School senior, has cared for the three younger children, Allison, Hugh and Eric, while Ian and Greg have been attending Boy Scout Camp. Dr. Wilder's operation was reported not to be as serious as it had not to be feared.

Camps—The son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chester, Klamath Agency, are both attending summer camp. Charles Jr., at Crescent Lake with the Boy Scouts and Carmen at the Lake of the Woods with the Camp Fire Girls. They returned home only recently from a two-week vacation trip to Yellowstone.

Coast Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hardman, Ellen, John and Mary Ann have returned to Klamath Agency after a three-day trip to the Southern Oregon and Northern California coasts with a return trip through the Trinity Alps and Redding.

DIGNITY

ANOTHER GREAT CADILLAC TRADITION

If there is one quality which is instantly apparent in a new Cadillac—it is most certainly the car's great dignity. Cadillac's regal bearing, its impressive stature, and its majestic design give it a presence that is uniquely its own. It is a rare pleasure to command such a motor car—and we think you will agree, once you've taken the wheel for yourself. Why not do so soon?
