Roberts Bows 1-0 To Giants

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With 196 victories, Robin Roberts is the winningest pitcher the Philadelphia Phillies ever have had. But he's the tough luck guy among active major leaguers when it comes to 1-0 defeats.

He had no luck at all last night, giving up just two hits in his seven innings, but losing 1-0 to San Francisco. It was his second 1-0 defeat of the season and seventh of his career, more than any other pitcher now working in the majors has had to put up with.

Roberts, who has won five 1-0 games, has been a shutout victim enough times this season to go on strike. The Phils have been blanked eight times, more than any other National League team, and Robin has been the loser in half of them.

Young Mike McCormick collared the Phils in this one, struggling through with a nine-hitter for his second shutout and a 7-1 record as the Giants, who managed just three hits, stayed within half a game of first-place Milwaukee.

The Braves rapped St. Louis 4-1 on the four-hit pitching of Joey Jay and home runs by Hank Aaron and Wes Covington. Pittsburgh beat Los Angeles 6-2 in the only other game scheduled.

In the American League, Detroit walloped New York 12-5 with Frank Lary beating the Yankees for the fifth time. Second-place Boston defeated Kansas City 5-2 on Jackie Jensen's 27th home run. Baltimore beat the Chicago White Sox 4-3 in 12 innings, and Washington beat Cleveland 5-4.

Giants 1, Phils 0

Roberts (7-9) no-hit the Giants until the fifth, then was socked for the run in the sixth on a walk. Willie Kirkland's double and an error, Jim Hearn gave up the other Giant hit in the eighth.

McCormick, a 19-year-old southpaw, retired 16 in a row at one stage and didn't get much trouble until the eighth from the once-hot Phils, who now have lost four in a row—all by one run. Two infield hits and McCormick's lone walk loaded the bases with two out in the eighth, but Rip Repulski then flied out. Carl Sawatski rapped into a double play with two men on in the ninth to end it.

Roberts, Hearn (8) and Sawatski, McCormick (7-1) and Schmidt Loser—Roberts (7-9).

Braves 4, SL 1

Aaron and Covington split the four hits Sal Maglie allowed the Braves in four innings—17 home runs, while Covington singled and hit his 14th homer for a 3-0 lead that handed Maglie his third consecutive defeat and a 2-3 record. Aaron's fly ball brought in the other run after the Cards had scored in the fourth on a walk and singles by Stan Musial and Curt Flood.

St. Louis 000 000 000—1 4 1
Jay (4-3) and Crandall, Maglie, Stoops (6), Paine (7), Mabe (8) and Landrith. Loser—Maglie (2-3). HRS—Aaron 2, Covington.

Bucs 6, Bums 2

Duke Snider's two-run seventh homer—a 440-foot shot, longest yet in the Coliseum—gave the Dodgers a tie in the sixth, but the Bucs bagged it with four in the eighth off Don Drysdale, who lost his 10th. Dick Stuart scored the clincher on Bob Skinner's single, after driving in the first two Pirate runs with a single and hit his third home run. Ronnie Kline (9-9) won it.

Los Angeles 000 002 000—2 6 2
Kline, Pace (8), Gross (8) and Hall, Poffes (8), Drysdale, LaBine (6), Klippstein (9) and Roseboro. Winner—Kline (9-9). Loser—Drysdale (4-10). HRS—Stuart, Snider. (Only games scheduled.)

Barry Leads Clay Court Tennis Field

CHICAGO (AP)—Top-seeded Barry McKay, the power-serving Davis Cupper, led a host of rated performers today into the fourth round of the 48th annual National Clay Court Tennis Tournament.

The 22-year-old Dayton, Ohio, stroker, one of America's best Davis Cup betters, encountered some trouble in blasting out two victories yesterday in suburban River Forest.

Arriving from Davis Cup zone play in Canada, McKay had some difficulty from 15-year-old Bobby Siska of San Francisco before winning the second round match, 6-3, 6-4.

Then he turned back Gay Messick of Western Springs, Ill., by a similar score.

Bernard (Tut) Barzen, seeking another title to go with the crown he captured in 1954, lost only two games in taking decisions from Mike Gordon and Parker Hall Jr., both of Chicago.

Other top-rated players joining Whitney Reed, Alameda, Calif., a 6-1, 6-0 winner over Walter Sampson Jr., Chicago; Sammy Giamalva, Houston, who shelled William Ball, Waterloo, Iowa, 6-0, 6-2; and Mike Green, Miami Beach, who moved past Robert Delgado, Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-0.

Alejandro Olmedo of Los Angeles defeated Steve Cox of Chicago 6-0, 6-1 and David Harum, Coral Gables, blanked Jerry Budzalek, Gary, Ind., in straight sets, to set second-round victories.

Wednesday, July 16, 1958 KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON Page 1 Sec. B

In the recent month, a great amount of space has been allotted and thousands of words have been printed on troubles arising over and about boys baseball programs around the state—including our own back yard.

We, like lots of other persons, are working in the summer recreational program trying to give boys ranging from 8 to 18 years of age a chance to learn to play softball and baseball, but just as fast as these few try to build up a program for the benefit of today's youth, there are others who are tearing it down. This includes individuals working in the program as well as the ones outside with a spectator interest.

A very humorous, but pointed bit of advice was printed in The Sporting Look, a column written by Dick Nafsinger of the Albany Democrat-Herald. Usually we don't like to repeat word-for-word a full column because of space, but today, let's spend the time to reprint Dick's words of wisdom.

Says Dick:

"Daddy," asked the trusting small voice at breakfast, "why did you hit the umpire with the baseball last night?"

"Son," replied the father in a gentle but firm voice, "if there's one thing I want you to learn in Little League, it's this: Never, but never, trust an umpire. Most of 'em are crooked and the ones that aren't don't know anything about the game. Learn it now, because it's the same wherever you play ball."

"But daddy, I heard somebody say something about you bein' a poor sport or something like that. What's that mean?"

"Sonny, the jerk who said that was undoubtedly from the other team. Just because we lost the game he thought I was mad about it. The only reason I clobbered the ump was to teach him a lesson."

"How come you yell all the time daddy? Every time I get up to bat you yell real loud and make me nervous. And you yell at the ump when he calls a strike on me."

"All I am doin' kid is tryin' to encourage you. And that blind ump had no business callin' those strikes on you last night. You missed the plate a mile."

"Gee, I dunno, dad, they looked alright. It's just I couldn't decide whether to swing."

"Looked alright? Look, they missed the plate. They weren't strikes. That crooked ump wuz robbin' you blind. And you sit there takin' it. If it wasn't for guys like me hangin' around those ball games, those ump would have you kids on the run. You gotta learn not to trust 'em."

"Well, the coach says that winnin' isn't everything. That we got to learn to be good losers and..."

"Yeah, well, we gotta get rid of that guy, too. Look, son, there's no such thing as a good loser. That went out with the Model-T. You win, you're happy. You lose, you clout the ump. It's that simple."

"Then when we play tonight, you want me to argue with the ump when he calls a strike on me? And call him names and stuff?"

"That's it. Now you're gettin' the idea. Give him a bad time and he'll be afraid to call 'em against you. Another thing, get on the other team. Tell the other..."

"Right. Don't be a sissy. Light right into 'em, and if the ump calls one against yuh, jump on him."

"I gotcha dad. Just watch me tonight."

End quote.

And as Dick adds: And another good sportsman is born, a credit to sports and well on his way toward becoming a solid, upright citizen. The group in question above is still small, but it's making itself felt.

To add to what Nafsinger has said, we have only one comment. Parents—give the game back to the kids. You had your chance and if you were born too soon, that's not your boy's fault it is supposed to be played. And let the umpires call it according to the rules and not to your whims—even though the ump may only be one-third your age, they still know more about the games and the rules which govern it.

"Nuff said, now let's see if things straighten out before the oldsters kill the kids recreational program.

Briefs from here and there:

Despite the unrest and trouble in the Pacific Coast Conference, the forthcoming football season may be one of the best as far as public interest is concerned. . . . Oregon State College—loaded with lots of talent—reports a very brisk advance season ticket sale while Washington State College announces this week that its advance selling promotions are heading for an all-time high. . . . both schools report that ticket requests are far above those of recent years, which shows the "rebels" to the South that there are sports fans interested in the type of football played in the Pacific Northwest.

Gem Gets Legion, Kub Frays

Gem Stadium will be getting plenty of baseball activity this week as the Klamath Falls Junior Legion and semi-pro forces turn on an all-out assault with four games scheduled from Wednesday night to Sunday afternoon on the local stadium's base paths.

Opening the busy schedule will be the legion team, Manager H. Hatfield's club, which won the District 3 Southern Oregon League championship Sunday by beating Grants, Pass, take on the Chilcoot Cubs of the Klamath Basin Independent League Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

Following tonight's clash against the Cubs, the local legion team will meet the American League all-stars of the Klamath Falls Babe Ruth League Friday night at Gem. The American League all-stars will be the host team in the upcoming Northwest Regional Babe Ruth League Tournament to be held here August 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10.

The Klamath Cubs, one of the contenders in the Northern California League race, face a pair of games here Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

The Saturday night billing sends the Cubs against the nationally known Cuban Giants in an exhibition game at 8 o'clock. Sports fans are urged to turnout early and watch the Giants handle their hitting and infield practice prior to game time. This is the same touring ball club that plays from coast to coast and claims some of the top Latin American baseball heroes who star in Mexican and other winter league circles during our "off" season.

Tickets for Saturday's game are now on sale at Hall's Sport Shop, O'Brien's Union Service on East Main and at the Starr Inn in Dorris. Ticket prices for this special attraction are 90 cents for adults and 50 cents for students and children.

Sunday afternoon at Gem, Irv Whitt's Cubs return to Northern California League action as they host the Dunsun Merchants. After dropping out of first and two games off the pace, Klamath now rests only a game away from the lead and Whitt says his club is ready to move back into the driver's seat of the league standings, with Dunsun being its second straight win in as many weeks.

Hatfield will probably start Blake Griggs on the mound tonight against Chilcoot, with either Keith Ferrell or Dean Dunsun getting the nod against the Babe Ruth all-stars Friday evening.

Whitt said he plans to use Gerry Burcher on the hill Saturday night against the Cuban Giants and Dave D'Olivo Sunday when the Cubs and Dunsun meet. Burcher pitched one of the best games ever seen in Gem Stadium last Saturday night as he beat Prineville 4-1 on two hits, one an infield single. Burcher struckout 12 while not giving up one walk. In fact, he had a three-ball count on the batter only twice in the nine innings. He is a Fresno State College athlete and teammate of Kub shortstop Dorn Martin.

Yankees Stopped By Lary

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frank Lary, the pinball addict who makes lights flash and buzzers hum when he throws his knuckleball against New York, is practically a cinch to become the first pitcher in 14 years to beat the Yankees six times in one season.

The 27-year-old Detroit right-hander had no real trouble beating the Yankees 12-5 yesterday. That was his fifth over the American League leaders this season.

No one has beaten the Yankees six times in one year since 1944, when a pair of Tige Aces, oddly enough, did it. Dizzy Trout was 6-0 and Hal Newhouse 6-2 against New York that year.

While third-place Detroit took a 9-4 edge over the Yankees for the year and cut their lead to 12 games, Boston retained second place by beating Kansas City 5-2 on Jackie Jensen's 27th home run. Baltimore tied the A's for fourth by defeating the White Sox in 12 innings. Washington beat Cleveland 5-4.

In the National League, Milwaukee retained a half-game lead by beating St. Louis 4-1. Second-place San Francisco defeated Philadelphia 1-0, Pittsburgh beat Los Angeles 6-2 in the only other game scheduled.

Tigers 12, NY 5

Lary had a string of 27 shutout innings over the Yankees until a two-run seventh, and finally gave way in a two-run eighth, when Mickey Mantle hit his 24th home run. Lary now is 9-8 for the season.

Gail Harris, who hit two triples, drove in four runs for the Tigers, while Al Kaline and Charlie Maxwell each brought home three. Kaline tripled with the bases loaded as Detroit built a 6-0 lead against rookie Zach Monroe (1-1) in two innings.

Gus Triandos hit a solo 17th homer and counted the clincher with a bases-loaded, two-out single in the 12th for the Orioles against reliever Turk Lown (0-2). Arnie Portocarrero (8-5) went all the way, giving up seven hits and blanking the White Sox on one hit for nine innings after a two-run first.

Herb Score made his first start since April 30 for the Indians, and trailed 4-0 when he left in the second. Tex Clevenger (5-8) won it, blanking the Tribe on one hit in 6 1-3 innings of relief, retiring the last 14 in order.

GREENSBORO, N.C. (UPI)—Retired heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano set out today as a potato promoter.

He began a tour of supermarkets in North Carolina, Tennessee and the Virginia automobile industry. Marciano is carrying a 10-pound bag of "carefully selected" potatoes that carry a picture of Rocky in fighting pose, a picture of his championship belt and a list of his fights over a nine-year span.

"We're just in the preliminary stages now. . . . just fighting the four-rounders," he said in telling newsmen of plans for his Salem, Va., packing partnership, "Rocky Marciano Enterprises, Inc."

From potatoes, he and partner Jim Cerniglio plan to branch out into packing onions, tomatoes and citrus fruit, some of it from farms they own in South Carolina, Virginia, Florida and New York.

Frick Expecting Larger Leagues

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick declared today that expansion of the major leagues is "inevitable" but predicted it will come through larger leagues rather than franchise shifts.

Frick made the statement in testimony supporting the Senate sports bill which would grant broad anti-trust immunity to professional team sports. To apply the anti-trust laws to baseball, he said, would be "inappropriate and disastrous."

The baseball commissioner urged Congress to extend baseball's court-endowed anti-trust exemptions to apply to other team sports.

"Baseball firmly believes that the anti-trust laws are not appropriate for regulation of any organized team sports and that basketball, football and hockey as well as baseball should have exemption for their sports practices," he said.

The Justice Department came out Tuesday against a provision of the House-passed sports bill—roughly paralleling the Senate bill now under study—which would grant anti-trust immunity to rights to broadcast and telecast sports games.

Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission also made it clear he considers that provision inimical to the public interest. The Federal Trade Commission took no direct stand on the bill but a spokesman said it always has "tended to oppose any exemption to the anti-trust laws."

Frick said orderly expansion of the major leagues would be "impossible" if anti-trust suits could be filed against the territorial rights of baseball clubs.

He described the territorial rules imposed on baseball clubs and the reserve clause binding players forever to the teams which hold their contracts as "the keystones of organized baseball."
