

Snead, Bolt Backed

PGA Golf Tourney Opens Thursday

HAVERTOWN, Pa. (UPI)—They were betting on old Sam Snead today to win the PGA golf tournament and on U.S. Open champion Tommy Bolt to escape heavy punishment on charges his conduct has been detrimental to the game of golf.

There were no official odds in either case.

But old Slammin' Sammy, 46, was the sentimental favorite in the field of 163 play-for-pay golfers scheduled to tee off Thursday in the first four rounds of medal play which will decide the professional golfers championship.

And they figured that Bolt, the temperamental thunderbolt of the links, would be in that field.

The odds on Snead were better. Bolt received a 24-hour reprieve Tuesday when the PGA executive committee failed to take any action against him during a three-hour meeting.

Tommy, although he knew the meeting was being held to weigh his case and had appealed the $500 fine assessed against him in the Pepsi Open two weeks ago, didn't show up.

PGA President Harold Sargent

On Course, In Court

received a telephone call from Bolt, advising him he had been delayed at Odessa, Tex., but would be here today.

So Sargent called a special meeting at 6 p.m. at which Bolt's immediate golfing future will be decided. Bolt could, under the PGA regulations, be suspended from tournament play and be assessed other penalties, including a fine.

The fact the executive committee failed to act at Tuesday's meeting indicated to Bolt's fellow pros that any penalty imposed upon Bolt would not take effect until after this tournament. After all, the PGA championship has not been a financial success for years, and the powers that be in that golfing body would not want to eliminate one of its top gate attractions for this tourney.

IN BARGAINING POSITION

Bolt's fellow pros also pointed out that Tommy was well aware of this situation and that he was in a position where he could bargain for his rights. Thus, the consensus was that Tommy will be let off with a reprimand and be allowed to join the old golfing fraternity in a chase to beat Snead's bid for his fourth PGA title.

Snead has won more tournaments and more money than any golfer in history but if he should win the PGA again it would be a new first for the PGA, because of a dwindling gate over the years, changed the format of its championship this year. It will be four rounds of medal play instead of the old match play system.

Snead wasn't the only favorite in the field. Ranked right up there with him were such shotmakers as Cary Middlecoff, Jackie Burke, defending champion Lionel Hebert, and a host of others in the star-studded field. In all, 11 former PGA champions are in the field.

Four Homers Deal PCL Leaders Woe

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Home runs played a major supporting role in the Pacific Coast League's show Tuesday night as the San Diego Padres and the Phoenix Giants, the loop's No. 1 and 2 clubs, both took it on the chin.

The Padres dropped an 8-5 game to the Salt Lake City Bees as R. C. Stevens and Carlos Bernier accounted for five runs for the winners with a home run apiece. Vancouver used two homers to rout the Giants 5-1.

The Sacramento Solons went 10 innings before they tacked a 1-0 defeat on the Spokane Indians. The Portland Beavers edged out Seattle 5-4.

Vancouver jumped into within two games of San Diego by turning back the powerful Giants, who are only one-half game off the pace. Buddy Peterson got a solo homer for the Mounties in the first and Ray Barker got a three-run, inside-the-park homer for the home club in the fifth.

The victory went to George Bamberger and gave the veteran righthander his 100th Pacific Coast League pitching triumph. Bamberger fanned six and walked none in chalking up his 8th victory of the season against seven defeats. He gave up eight hits.

The Bees were in control from the start. They gave San Diego one run in the first and then came back with two of their own in their half of that frame. They picked up one more in the third and then got three on Bernier's blast in the fourth. Stevens clouted a two-run homer in the eighth.

The Padres got three runs in the sixth on a single, a walk, Bill Glynn's double and a single by Gene Lary, the second of three San Diego hurlers. Jack Lamabe won it, his third victory in four games.

George Freese and Jack Littrell, good for three runs, sparked the Beavers to their decision over Seattle. Freese's blast came in the first and chased in Don Nicholas, who had doubled. Littrell's solo homer came in the second inning.

The Rainiers were held scoreless until the seventh, when they collected two on a wild pitch, two singles and Jack Bloomfield's double. They got two more in the eighth and threatened to break the game wide open in the ninth before Portland pulled the stopper with a double play.

Joe Stanka of Sacramento and Larry Sherry of the Indians in a tight pitching duel before Stanka scored the winning run on Jim Westlake's liner into center field in the 10th frame. Stanka had reached first on an error and moved up on an infield out.

Stanka and Sherry both went the route, with the Sacramento hurler fanning six and giving up only four hits while walking four. Sherry walked five, whiffed three and issued six hits.

T-C Hurler Gives 2 Hits In NWL Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A two-hit shutout, a 27-hit donkeybrow and a one-man team that briefly tells the story of Northwest League baseball action Tuesday night.

Jack Kelly expertly twirled a 1-0 win for Tri-City over Wenatchee, striking out nine and allowing only one runner as far as third base. Both hits off Kelly were scratch singles.

The Braves' run scored in the third inning, after Reggie Hamilton doubled, moved to third and scored on two successive infield outs.

Meantime, Yakima moved a game and a half in front by belting out a 7-4 win over Lewiston's Broncs. Salem edged Eugene, 5-4.

The Broncs outbit the Bears, 15-12, in a wide open affair, but couldn't concentrate their attack as efficiently as Yakima and finally bowed.

Winning pitcher Ted Karnhow aided his own cause by getting three hits, while Pepper Thomas, Walt O'Neil and Herman Lewis contributed a double apiece. Lewis also slammed a two-run homer in the sixth.

The one-man team was Milt Martin, Salem catcher, who clouted a third inning grand slam home run and drove in the winning run as the Senators dumped the Emeralds at Eugene.

Martin's roundtripper eliminated a four-run budge, which Eugene had gained on two runs in each of the first two innings.

Martin's outfield sacrifice fly drove in Cal Bauer for the winning tally in the seventh stanza.

Tuesday's results left Lewiston and Wenatchee knotted for second position, with 9-7 records. Yakima now has a 10-5 mark in the race for second-half honors.

Unique Bow Meet Slated

GRAYLING, Mich. (UPI)—The largest and most unique archery event of its kind will be staged near this Northern Michigan community July 29-August 1 as bowmen compete for a $5,000 purse.

This is the first time in the history of the sport that tournament shooters will be aiming at a major cash prize.

Fred Bear, internationally famous archery tackle manufacturer and round-the-world bowhunter, dropped the "cash bomb" on the archery world during a convention this spring in Detroit.

Bear said the top 16 contestants (8 men and 8 women) from the 13th annual National Field Archery Association Tournament to be held at the Michigan National Guard camp July 29-31, will be invited to compete for the purse at the Bear Invitational—August 1 at the same site.

The famous bowman explained that he is offering the cash purse to "determine whether or not the rapidly growing sport, now estimated to have more than two million devotees, was ready for a professional effort similar to golf."

KAISER IS PILOT

LEXINGTON, Neb. (AP)—The college baseball season is over for Jack Kaiser, coach of the St. John's Redmen of Brooklyn, but he's in for a long summer anyway. He is managing the Lexington Red Sox for the Boston Red Sox in the all-rookie Nebraska State League. Last season his team finished second.
