

Dodger Pitcher On Road

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The pitching tide which has been running against the Dodgers this season may have turned, it appeared today.

Rookie Stan Williams won his third straight victory Thursday when the Dodgers defeated the Pirates, 5-3. Tonight, Sandy Koufax takes his turn on the mound against the Phillies after having been laid up two weeks with a sprained ankle.

Koufax blossomed out on the Dodgers' last road trip and he was expected to do a major share of the hurling until he was injured. But he made a quicker recovery than team physicians expected and Manager Walt Alton decided to use him against the Phils tonight.

Facing Koufax will be left-handed pitcher Curt Simmons, who in previous years had rarely been used against the Dodgers. But Manager Mayo Smith threw him in earlier this season against the Dodgers for a successful effort.

Koufax sports a 7-3 record, while Simmons is 6-9 for the season. Thursday, Williams ran his string of scoreless innings to 19 until Pirate catcher Hank Foiles homered in the seventh.

The big rookie then gave up a two-run homer to Roberto Clemente in the eighth and was lifted. But veteran relief hurler Clem Labine came in and preserved the win for Williams with two hitless innings.

Gino Cimoli, replacing Duke Snider in center field, smashed a 380-foot homer into the left-center field stand to start the Dodger scoring in the fifth. Don Zimmer followed with a two-run homer in almost the same spot in the sixth and Gil Hodges brought a big cheer from the crowd of 18,677 by hitting his 13th homer in the eighth after having been inserted in the lineup for defensive purposes.

Alton praised Williams for his fine pitching performance and said the ball Clemente hit was a good pitch. He said Williams was tiring in the late innings and he was forced to throw in Labine for his fourth successful relief job in the week.

KRAUSE TRADED AGAIN
DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Lions have traded tackle Ray Krause to the Baltimore Colts for an undisclosed draft choice next year. Krause originally had been traded to Green Bay, but the deal was nullified.

Denver, Colorado, has been awarded the 1960 Women's International Bowling Congress tournament. The 1959 WIBC will begin April 16 in Buffalo, New York.

J-M, P-M Score LL Wins; Babe Ruthers Rained Out
The weather was credited with a pair of wins Thursday evening as both the scheduled Babe Ruth League contests were rained out at Gem Stadium. The Little League fared better, however, at Wright Field as the storm held off long enough for Park-Moyina to tighten its grip on second place in the standings with a 5-4, six inning decision over Bob's Union Service.

On the other end of Wright Field the league-leading Johns-Manville nine jumped to a six-run first inning lead then stretched it to a 13-1 victory over the luckless Weyerhaeuser-Dons. The J-M-Dons' contest reverted to the end of the fourth frame when the game was called because of the increasingly darkening sky.

The P-M nine collected nine hits off the losing Bob's hurler, Mackey Cunningham, to take a two run lead in the top of the second stanza. They added another in the fourth frame and picked up two in the fifth to gain the necessary edge.

Credited with Park-Moyina win was Bonnie Yuncck who spaced five Bob's safeties, walked only one batter and struck out eight. Cunningham walked one batter and struck out six.

P-M earned their first two tallies off three consecutive hits; a pair of singles by Marv Yuncck and Larry Barnes followed by a double by pitcher Bonnie Yuncck. Barnes and B. Yuncck repeated in the fourth for the next counter. The P-M pitcher banged out his third hit of the test in the fifth to score the last two runs.

Bob's earned their first mark-off a single and a double by Keith Jessup and Garry Mayfield respectively. Mayfield and Cunningham scored in a thrilling last inning surge as catcher Jim Patzke smashed a high, hard one to left field for a cinch double then was caught trying to stretch it to a triple for the last out. Then the rains came.

Johns-Manville set the stage for their win as they took advantage of four walks, an error and a hit batter to count six runs without the benefit of a single hit in the top half of the first inning.

The loser, Verne Netzer, gave up four hits, walked seven and fanned one J-M batter. The winner, Larry Binney, allowed one hit, walked two and whiffed six Dons.

Hutch Brings Up Spit Ball Talk Again

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The somewhat tarnished fortunes of the Milwaukee Braves, fighting each day to remain first in the National League, may be on the upswing — the opposition is again tossing spit ball charges at Lew Burdette.

"He throws it all the time," charged Cardinal Manager Fred Hutchinson Thursday after the three-game series with St. Louis and their fourth straight triumph. The decision also kept the Braves a half game in front of San Francisco's Giants.

Burdette claimed the latest victory with a neat three-hit, five-inning relief performance, and Hutchinson continued the discussion of the right-hander's pitching, saying: "There's nothing you can do about it. He's got a clean bill of health from the league President (Warren Giles) and the umpires.

"He threw a lot of them today." The first big protest about Burdette's pitching came from the Dodgers as the Braves took 2 out of 3 in Los Angeles last week.

There was no comment from Burdette, but Milwaukee Manager Fred Haney had a few things to say about his world series hero. "It's just terrific when a guy comes up to you and says, 'If you want me to crank up in the bullpen, I'm ready,' Burdette did that Wednesday night and he came to me again before today's game. And then they say we don't have any spit on this ball club."

Middlecoff Eyes First PGA

By OSCAR FRALEY United Press International

HAVERTOWN, Pa. (UPI) — Cary Middlecoff, shooting for the one title which has eluded him, went out in the second round of the PGA golf championship today with high hopes even though he is "the most un-wired guy on the premises."

The lean, slender dentist from Memphis at 37 has a host of titles to his credit including two U. S. Opens and the Masters. His best finish in the PGA was runner-up in 1935 and, while his opening 71 was four shots off the pace, he still is optimistic.

This despite the fact he is having almost as many physical difficulties as the average hospital ward.

IGNORES ACHES

—And, to top it off, "some much-needed dental work."

But, while he faces a battery of doctors come September, Cary is ignoring enough aches and pains to flatten an ordinary hiker by shooting at the one which "would be a real feather in my cap."

The personable, tall golf ball buster goes under the knife in September—in a doubleheader.

"I figured why should I be anesthetized twice when we can kill two birds with one stone," he chuckled. "So I got my two doctors together and they'll operate simultaneously — one removing the cyst and the other working on the hernia.

"After that," he grimaced wryly, just like any other incisor sufferer, "I'll have to go see my dad and get the dental work done."

WORRIED ABOUT WRIST
The operations and recuperative period will keep Cary on the sidelines for more than eight weeks. And it is easy to understand why he is more worried about the comparatively insignificant wrist operation than over the other.

"One slip," he nodded, "and competitive golf would have seen the last of Cary Middlecoff."

Cary is competing in the PGA for the first time in three years. The old match play system, changed to medal play this year, was too difficult for him because of his hip troubles. But he still doesn't think the PGA is "right."

"We should change it to a 90-hole tournament," he suggested. "That would remove it from the realm of the ordinary, run-of-the-mine 72-hole tournaments which fill out the tour. They have done that in Great Britain with the Dunlop event, which is comparable to our Masters."

With that he heaved himself painfully out of his chair and walked slowly off sipping a kapectate cocktail.

U Of W Crew Received OK
MOSCOW (UPI) — Despite the current Middle-East tension, a University of Washington crew finds itself in a cordial atmosphere on the eve of a return rowing engagement against the Trud club of Leningrad.

Coach Al Ulbricksen and his Huskies said crew members of the five rival Russian eights have been friendly. There were no signs of anti-American feelings as the West Coast squad mingled with the Soviets at Moscow's newest hotel or at the Khimi Reservoir rowing grounds.

The Huskies, beaten by Trud in the Henley Regatta two weeks ago, stepped up their beat Thursday in two light workouts over the 2,000 meter course.

Ulbricksen said he still was not satisfied with his crew's performance despite the Huskies' display of a faster stroke than at Henley. The Washington mentor said he feared the crosswinds and choppy waters of the reservoir would hamper his youngsters in Saturday's race.

The Seattle stokers, however, feel they have a good chance against their opponents. Their morale is high for the international regatta.

Scanlon Vies With Kerwin In Video Tiff
NEW YORK (AP) — Irish fist fighters are few and far between these days. No John L. Sullivan, Mickey Walker or Jimmy McLarin in the lot. Perhaps the best to come along in recent years is Bobby Scanlon, a handsome young lightweight who fights his first main event in Madison Square Garden tonight.

Scanlon, only 22, never has lost a bout. He has won 28 and fought one draw in 29 professional starts. The draw was back in his days as a four-round prelim boy and he evened the score with his opponent, Frankie Madison, next time they met.

Gale Kerwin, the gabby Canadian who tells you "I'm quite a puncher" is Scanlon's opponent in the 10-round Garden match. There will be the usual network (NBC) radio and television coverage.

Although Scanlon has been made favorite at 7 to 5 on his line record, there is a chance they will go into the bout at even money. Kerwin might turn out to be the choice at ring time.

Kerwin has been seen locally against better than fair competition.

Kerwin has a 27-6-1 record for 34 starts. He has six knockouts and was stopped once.

Easter Leads Bison Victory
By United Press International

The Buffalo Bisons, doormats of the International League, rallied for seven runs in the 13th inning to clobber Toronto, 11-4, in a Thursday night schedule that saw all games going into extra innings.

Buffalo, behind 2-0, scored a run in the sixth and tied the game in the ninth on Luke Easter's 22nd home run of the season. The Bisons went ahead in the 12th when they scored twice, but Toronto countered with Rocky Nelson's 29th roundtripper and Archie Wilson's 11th to knot the score at 4-4.

Ken Johnson, who relieved in the 12th, picked up his sixth win against 11 defeats.

The league-leading Montreal Royals scored three times in the 10th inning to defeat Rochester, 7-4, and give Jackie Collum his second win in two nights and eighth in 10 decisions. Montreal broke a 2-2 tie with a pair in the ninth, but Rochester scored twice in their half of the frame to send the game into extra innings.

Bob Chakales went all the way for Richmond as the Vees scored a 10th inning run to defeat Miami, 2-1. Chakales notched his sixth win against two setbacks. George Green went the route for the Marlins as he lost his eighth game. He has won three.

Columbus and Havana were not scheduled.
