High School Romance Leads Couple To Altar In Weed Catholic Church

WEED—The Holy Family Catholic Church in Weed was the setting on June 23 for the wedding of Elizabeth June Seitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Seitz, to Samuel Joseph Mazzei, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mazzei.

The Rev. James Vaughan officiated at the 12 noon nuptial Mass read in the presence of approximately 400 guests. Gold vases of white gladioli flanked the altar and two tall basket arrangements of white gladioli flanked the altar rail.

The wedding selections "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" and "Lily of the Valley" were sung by Mrs. James Brunello, accompanied by Mrs. Virgil Gropp, organist, who also played the traditional wedding music.

"Betty June," escorted by her father who gave her in marriage, wore a white gown of white nylon organza. Elaborate floral embroidery on the bodice delineated the scalloped Sabrina neckline; the shoulder and upper half of the long, tapered sleeves, and bordered the hemline and sweeping train; and gleaming satin streamers fell on the train from the Empress waist. An Empress Eugene crown set with pearls held her fingertip veil of organza tulle and she carried an arrangement of red roses centered with a single white orchid and outlined with stephanotis flowers. For something old she carried a white hankie, and a hooped skirt was the borrowed item in her trousseau.

Best man, a lifelong friend of the groom, was Vince Tallero. Ushers for the attendants were Peter Patella and Claudin Fabiani. Peter Baldo, cousin of the bride, and Peter Mazzei, brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

Dressed in a floor length white nylon organza frock similar to the bride's gown and carrying a white bridal basket of flower petals, was flower girl little Frances Belcastro, Klamath Falls, a niece of the bridegroom.

Timothy Andrezza, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer for the double-ring rites.

Acolytes were Frank Belcastro and Anthony Mazzei. The bridegroom's brother

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Seitz chose a mauve late frock with matching mauve accessories, and she wore a white orchid pinned at her shoulder. Mrs. Mazzei, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue lace frock with matching blue accessories and she, too, wore a white orchid.

Also honored for the occasion with a white orchid corsage was

Mrs. Roma Andrezza, maternal grandmother of the bride.

Blossoming branches of mock orange and arrangements of Esther Reed daisies decorated St. Michael's Hall for the reception immediately following the wedding ceremonies.

Mrs. Gerald Gifford, San Francisco, college classmate of the bride, registered the wedding guests who were from Southern Oregon and all points in California. A buffet smorgasbord luncheon was served with Mrs. Fred Harris, Mrs. Pete Lepore, Mrs. Carmen Mazzei, Mrs. Jerome Calkins, Mrs. John Tallero, and Josie Scialie assisting.

Mrs. H. L. Vidricksen, Mrs. Edwin Adams, Mrs. H. C. York and Mrs. Leslie Ardill presided at the coffee and tea services. The punch bowl was placed on a bed of Esther Reed daisies and huckleberry greens centering a lace cloth covered table. The punch was served by Janet March and Mrs. Gerald Abney, high school classmates of the bride.

Others assisting with refreshments were Russell Bradshaw, Jerome Calkins, Fred Harris and Sam Catalano.

The bride and bridegroom cut the initial slice of the ornately decorated four-tier wedding cake which centered the white cutwork cloth-covered table. Gardenias on mats assisted at the tables.

About 100 friends attended a trousseau tea given in the garden patio at the home of the bride's parents on Friday afternoon, June 17. Barbara Ewing, a WHS classmate, assisted at the tables.

For travel, the bride changed to a green pure silk sheath with beige accessories and a white orchid corsage. Her black onyx drop choker was a gift from the bridegroom.

The wedding trip took them to points of interest in Canada and along the Pacific Coast.

The newlyweds, whose marriage culminated a Weed High School romance, will be at home in Weed where both are employed. The bridegroom served with the U.S. Army at Fort Lewis following his high school graduation—and is now employed with International Paper Company and with the Andrezza Brothers Buick Garage.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's College of Nursing, San Francisco, and is employed at the Weed Clinic as a registered nurse—a position she has held for the past year.

TO WED this summer is Lucy Carol Cornelius, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cornelius, 2365 Vine Avenue, who announced her engagement to Duane H. Morris, son of Mrs. Alice Morris of Racine, Wisconsin. Lucy is a graduate of Augustana Academy, Canton, South Dakota, and is a junior at St. Olaf College, Minnesota. Morris was graduated from St. Olaf and received his B.A. degree and a commission in the USAF on June 8 of this year. —Photo by Guderian

MONTAGUE FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Akin and their two daughters, Marilyn and Elaine, of Montague, were hosts for an Akin family reunion at the Robert Akin home over the weekend of June 28 and 29.

Those present included Akin's mother, Mrs. Temperance Akin of Corvallis; his two brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Akin of Chiloquin, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Akin of Grants Pass.

Also present were three of his sisters and one brother-in-law, Mrs. Ina Christy of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Andy Madison, Port Orford, Oregon; Mrs. Henry Krauss and daughter, Willa Ann, both of Selma, Oregon; also Mrs. Krauss' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robert Krauss, of Grants Pass.

Lavender was also the color featured in the three attendants' dresses. Their dresses, in varied shades of lavender nylon organza over purple taffeta, were identical in style—full skirted and ballerina length with taffeta sashes. Lattice frame crowns of lavender

Hartell-Kirkland Vows In Baker Presbyterian

Pink and orchid gladioli decorated the Baker First Presbyterian Church on June 22, when Kenneth Wayne Hartell of this city, claimed Barbara Lee Kirkland of North Powder, Oregon, as his bride.

Lighted tapers illuminated the setting for the 8 p.m. candlelight service read by the Rev. John Grey in the presence of some 110 guests.

The bride, a native of eastern Oregon, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kirkland, North Powder. The bridegroom, a graduate of KUHS, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hartell, also of this city.

Maid of honor for her sister was Phyllis Kirkland, North Powder; and bridesmaids were Shirley Lyman, Gold Hill, close friend of the bride; and Joyce Phillips of Baker, her cousin.

Greg Hartell of Klamath Falls was best man for his brother—Bill White and Allen Phillips, both cousins of the bride—and both from Baker, were ushers.

Organist for the wedding, Glena Maxwell, accompanied vocal soloist William Morris, the bridegroom's cousin from Milton Freewater.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was gown in Chantilly lace and nylon organza. A crown of seed pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of lavender orchids and stephanotis.

Lavender was also the color featured in the three attendants' dresses. Their dresses, in varied shades of lavender nylon organza over purple taffeta, were identical in style—full skirted and ballerina length with taffeta sashes. Lattice frame crowns of lavender der nylon tulle, matching lavender slippers and baskets of baby orchids and white carnations, completed their ensembles.

Focal point of the church reception hall where guests were received after the wedding, was the large four tiered cake topped with miniature figurines of a bridal couple in a floral spray. Candlelight from tapers in crystal candelabra completed the table decor.

Assisting were Mrs. N. W. Southard, aunt of the bride; Margaret Hartell, the bridegroom's sister; Mrs. William Morris, Mrs. Robert Cable, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Loren White and Mrs. Harry Phillips, both aunts of the bride. Guests were registered by Marda Newman.

The couple went to Payette Lake, Idaho, for a brief honeymoon, and for travel the new Mrs. Hartell wore a blue and white print sheath with a blue duster, white accessories and an orchid corsage.

They are now at Crater Lake where Hartell is employed by the Park Service. His bride is a graduate of Oregon State College, Class of '57, and this fall she will return to Gervais High School where she is a home economics teacher. Kenneth enrolled at OSC after his graduation from KUHS, and returns to the Corvallis campus this fall as a senior.

Attending the wedding from the Klamath Basin besides the bridegroom's immediate family were Howard MacDonald, Klamath Falls; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cable, Fort Klamath.
