HE WAS TEMPTATION
HONOLULU (AP) - The First Transpacific Conference on Alcoholism was in session at a local hotel. Into the session strolled a hotel waiter, pushing a cart of mixed drinks. "He obviously had the wrong place," commented James A. Pell, an official on the Hawaii Committee on Alcoholism,

'Drunkard' Audience Eats, Drinks Free, Hisses Freely

By HUBBARD KEAVY
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—This is a report on that Methuselah among melodramas, "The Drunkard," by one of its oldest living patrons. How well I remember — thanks to some clippings — July 9, 1933. "The Drunkard" was then three nights old. Last night I saw performance No. 9,225 — the silver anniversary show, plus three.

Neely Edwards is the only member of the original cast still in "The Drunkard." I saw Neely again last night, for perhaps the 30th time. He was as spry as ever, although he's 74. He was a mere 49 when he first became the father of the girl who is tearfully wronged. In 25 years, Neely Edwards has missed only about 50 performances. "The Drunkard" became a musical five years ago and now is called "The Wayward Way." It is pretty corny stuff, but it was taken so seriously as a dramatized temperance lecture when P. T. Barnum produced it in the 90s. The current cast plays it very broadly indeed. The audience sits at tables and drinks free beer and eats free pretzels and hisses the villain. Very freely. They cheer and applaud, always a little more loudly by about the fifth act, when the heroine escapes from the clutches of the leering you-know-who.

Neither the drama nor the moral explains the success of "The Drunkard." It's the sociability, the fun, the taking part in the performance that have attracted 2½ million. July 6 is the actual anniversary, but that date fell on Sunday, when there never is a performance. "The Drunkard" has more figures than the Bureau of Statistics. If all the empty beer bottles — an average of three per adult customer — were laid end to end, it would take forever to pick them up. If all the pretzels for sale on the street were crushed together, they'd crush you.
