Scott Valley 6, Yreka 4

Manager Irv Whitt's Klamath Falls saved their base hits and runs until it counted over the weekend as they dropped an exhibition game to the visiting Cuban Giants Saturday night then turned in a Northern California League triumph over Dunsmuir Sunday afternoon.

In Saturday evening's kings-X fray at Gem Stadium, the Cuban Giants had on their hitting shoes as they walked away from the out-gunned Kubs 15-0. But Sunday, the shoes were on the other feet, as Klamath pounded out 15 base hits and rapped Dunsmuir 10-2 in a counting game.

The win over Dunsmuir pushed the Kubs into a second place tie with Yreka one game off the pace being set by the Weed Sons. In other league play Sunday afternoon, Weed bounced Mount Shasta 5-4, while Scott Valley upset Yreka 6-4. The win boosted Scott Valley from the cellar position it has held since the first week of the season, and lowered Dunsmuir into the basement.

Big Dave D'Olivo, Klamath's all-star pitcher, scattered six hits over the Dunsmuir lineup as he won himself another NCL victory. The Kub hurler gave Dunsmuir single runs in the third and sixth innings and was in control all the time.

Klamath had to come from behind in the bottom of the third to erase a 1-0 deficit. Scott Hartley opened the Klamath third with a double and Donn Taucher moved him to third with a single. Dorn Martin singled Hartley home and Taucher scored on the next play — a fielding error by Dunsmuir third baseman Duke Hamilton.

In the fifth the Kubs countered three more insurance scores on a walk to Taucher, single by Floyd Linderman, Fran Miller's two-run triple and George Hanson's sacrifice fly. The Kubs picked up two more in the seventh on a double by Hanson and singles by Linderman, Ron Conner and Bob Kelly.

For added protection, Klamath extended their 7-2 lead with three more runs in the eighth inning. Hartley opened the rally being safe on an error then Martin delivered a run-scoring double, his second of the game. With two outs, Whitt was safe on an error allowing Martin to come home. Whitt scored later on Conner's single. Kelly ended the inning by flying out to centerfield.

Conner banged out four hits in five trips. Martin added to his batting average a three-for-five effort and Linderman collected a pair of singles in five trips.

Saturday night, it was just a case of too much talent for the local club. The Cuban Giants boasted several Washington Senators farmhands and a few others who play a mighty mean game of baseball. Whitt said jokingly after the game, "If we knew they were going to be that tough, we would have passed them by."

The Giants, with undoubtedly their finest touring team in history, scored twice in the third and five times in the fourth to leave

Mike Balcom Nabs First A-Main Win

Mike Balcom drove his K-3 hardtop to victory in Saturday night's A-main race at Klamath Speedway to walk off with the top honors of the evening's hardtop program. It was Balcom's first main event triumph in five years of racing.

Balcom led the last 20 laps with Bud Cook on his tail all the way home to the finish line. Cook finished second with Mel Allman third, Ken Kime finished fourth ahead of Hal Stewart.

There was no B-main event, and track officials put all of the cars into the A-main for more excitement.

Dale Hankins snared a major share of the evening's prizes. Dale rolled up the hot time with a 19:50 turn around the local oval. Hankins also won the A-trophy dash and final heat.

The junior hardtoppers were led in time trials by Tony Bonotto with a 20:30 showing. The junior trophy went to Jim Hackinson. Hackinson also won the first and second junior heat races.

Roy Stubbs won the first heat followed by Allman and Bill Chambers. The second heat winner was Jim Reis with second and third places going to Cook and Hankins.

KF Legion Playoff Host

Hi Hatfield's Klamath Falls Legion baseball team hosts North Bend Wednesday night in the first game of a subdistrict playoff and a chance to move into state tournament competition.

The first of a best-of-three playoff will open at Gem Stadium at 8 o'clock. The second and third games of the Klamath-North Bend meeting will be played at North Bend Saturday and Sunday. Even if the third game is not necessary, the two clubs will play out the full three games for the additional practice.

Blake Griggs is expected to get the starting call for Klamath as they meet the Coast League's undefeated champions. North Bend ran up eight straight league wins in coming out on top of the District 3 Coast League race. Klamath finished the Southern Oregon League race with a 7-1 record, losing only to Central Point in the first league game of the season.

North Bend's strength lies in its well-balanced pitching staff. It is not known who will start for the visitors from the coast. A strong possibility may be Tom Younkens, who clinched the league championship last weekend for the North Bend nine.

Hatfield said Sunday he was planning a heavy session of batting practice for his club this week in hopes of coming up with an offensive attack that may give North Bend's pitching staff some trouble. "They have a good club," Hatfield remarked, "but if we get a few base hits, we can beat them."

Bunning Throws No-No; SF Wins

Tiger Tames BoSox; Yanks Gain Ground

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

When Jim Bunning shelled the home run ball for the strikeout pitch, he was on the way back to his brilliant 1957 form.

Detroit's 20-game winner of a year ago pitched a no-hit, no-run game against Boston's sluggers at Fenway Park yesterday. Six weeks ago he couldn't get anybody out.

In his first 11 games Bunning allowed 11 homers. Then he went on his strikeout spree.

He fanned 12 Red Sox June 11, 14 New York Yankees June 20, 10 Yanks July 16 and 12 Red Sox in his no-hitter. His total of 108 strikeouts puts him ahead of New York's Bob Turley for the American League lead.

Despite Bunning's magic, Detroit lost ground in the chase of the Yankees as did every other club. The Tigers won behind Bunning 3-0 but lost the second game to Boston 5-2 as Ike Delock ran his amazing won-lost record to 10-0 and 13-0 over a two-year span.

Yogi Berra hit a two-run homer as the Yanks took two from Kansas City 3-1 and 8-0. As a result, New York leads the league by 11 games.

Roy Siever's ninth-inning homer in the second game aroused Washington fans to run around the bases with him, celebrating a 5-4 victory over Chicago. Dick Donovan's five-hit pitching gave the White Sox a 4-2 opening game decision.

Joe Ginsberg came through with a single with the bases loaded in the 10th inning for Baltimore's 3-2 edge over Cleveland.

In the National, San Francisco ran its winning streak to six with a 7-3 romp over Pittsburgh, clinging to a half-game lead. Warren Spahn won his 12th for Milwaukee, 4-2 over the Chicago Cubs.

Los Angeles finally escaped from the cellar with a 6-0 victory

Tigers 3-2, Sox 0-5

The big excitement was in Boston, where Bunning snapped a six-game Red Sox winning streak. He walked two and hit one. He faced only 30 batsmen.

Giants Stop Bucs; Dodgers Jump Cellar

Tiger Hurler Gets Ted For No-No

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chavez Ravine may still be a dream but the Dodgers have won one fight. For the first time since May 12, Los Angeles is out of last place. By one skinny percentage point.

Los Angeles and Pittsburgh are tied for sixth and Cincinnati is last, thanks to the percentage table. Each is nine games behind league-leading San Francisco.

Johnny Podres won his ninth in 10 Coliseum starts, shutting out Philadelphia 6-0 on four hits yesterday.

The Giants routed Bob Friend with five runs in the first inning and went on to down Pittsburgh 7-3, protecting their half-game lead over Milwaukee.

Milwaukee scored two in the ninth for a 4-2 victory over Chicago. It was Warren Spahn's 12th of the season. Joe Adcock homered for the Braves, Cal Neuman and Dale Long for the Cubs.

Sam Jones struck out 12 Cincinnati batters as St. Louis dropped the Redlegs into the basement 3-1.

All clubs in the American League lost ground to the New York Yankees, who now lead by 11 games. The Yanks took two from Kansas City, 3-1 in 10 innings on Yogi Berra's two-run homer and 8-0 on Whitey Ford's second straight shutout. Detroit beat Boston 3-0 behind Jim Bunning's no-hit, no-run pitching but lost the second to the Red Sox 5-2. Chicago beat Washington 4-2 on Dick Donovan's five-hit effort but lost the second 5-4 when Roy Sievers homered in the ninth. Joe Ginsberg's 10th inning single with the bases loaded brought Balt-
