

Wartime Incident Started Writer On Way To Fame

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—When Harry Junkin, serving in the Royal Canadian Air Force, was stationed at Ottawa in 1940, he unexpectedly received a leave.

Paraplegic Sent To Cuba

NEW YORK (AP)—A paraplegic who escaped twice with his wheel chair from Welfare Island and spent some of his free time at the movies was put on a plane for Cuba yesterday by immigration authorities.

This was the third time that Luis Oswaldo Lavin-Gardin was deported from the United States. He entered the country illegally three times.

Two immigration officers to whom he surrendered in mid-Manhattan yesterday went with him to Idlewild Airport. The officers took no chances, and remained at the airport until the plane left.

Last Wednesday an immigration officer went to Bird S. Coler Memorial Hospital on Welfare Island to take Lavin-Gardin into custody. He had escaped.

On Thursday the fugitive was picked up by a federal agent and returned to the hospital. The next day he escaped again.

Lavin-Gardin told the inspectors he had outside help in making both escapes. He is a paraplegic as the result of having been shot by a state trooper six months ago while resisting arrest.

Lavin-Gardin said he was taken to the home of a friend Wednesday and visited two moving picture theaters.

SCOUT NEWS

LAKEVIEW — Eight boys of Scout Troop 76 and Scout Committee member Delbert Milholland from Lakeview attended the summer camp at Camp Makualla, Crescent Lake, during the week of July 6 through July 12. The boys, all of whom received their second class badges while at camp, were James Ackerman, Vernon Buckley, Michael Hale, Robert Johnson, James McDonald, David Milholland, Dennis O'Malley and James Tooke. On the camp staff were Dick Wyatt, scout executive, and Mike Deming, Eagle Scout, both of Lakeview.

ACTOR TO MARRY
NICE, France (AP) — Sydney Chaplin, 34, musical comedy star son of Charlie Chaplin, said today he and French dancer Noelle Adam are planning to marry. The couple met in New York about three months ago when the blonde dancer starred in the Francoise Sagau ballet "The Broken Date."

BEGGING
GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — An offer to outfit 10 semifinalists in the Miss South Carolina beauty pageant went begging. The Carolina Blouse Co. offered size 32 blouses, the only size on hand. The smallest of the pageant's 45 contestants measures 33-22-34.

person would do if the message were a matter of life and death," he said. "And then I sat down and wrote 'Long Distance.'"

And "Long Distance" has turned out to be a broadcasting classic. It was first performed on radio by the Canadian Broadcasting Co. in 1941 (Junkin was a CBC writer). It was repeated by CBC in 1943, 1945 and 1947. It was played by the Australian Broadcasting Co. in 1946, and done by the British Broadcasting Corp. in 1947.

In 1948 Junkin got a job with NBC radio in New York. "Long Distance" was his first show and it was such a popular success it was repeated three months later.

In 1950 it turned up on television, as "The Clock." Three years later Miriam Hopkins did it on Vieda Theater and it was repeated the next year. It was used in Canada, France, Switzerland and Germany.

Now it is coming up again—on July 25 on the Playhouse of Stars. This time Jessica Tandy is the heroine and it is a filmed show.

In all, "Long Distance" has been played about 29 times—each time Junkin reaps new financial rewards—and thus has established some sort of a record, if only by the translation into African for Durban and Capetown listeners.

It is a suspense story, showing the mounting tension as the wife of a man scheduled for execution attempts to get through a telephone call about newly discovered evidence and finds the circuits busy.

Junkin himself has gone on to become one of television's busiest free-lance writers, turning out scripts for all the top live dramatic shows and many of the series and serials.

WALLET FOUND
MAUD, Tex. — Justice of the Peace Paul Jones didn't succeed on his first attempt, so he searched the waters of Lake Texarkana every day for a month and a half. Monday he proved the timonored theory that persistence pays off by finding a wallet he had dropped in the lake six weeks ago.

"But you HAVE taught me that one has to work for what one gets—especially if he gets it from you!"

Mate, Heiress Reach Accord

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP) — Gregg Juarez and his 18-year-old estranged British heiress wife have reached a custody agreement on their baby daughter.

Juarez, an interior decorator, snatched the baby, 7-month-old Bianca, from his wife's arms July 8 just before a plane was to take off for Nassau, the Bahamas. He also handed separation papers to his wife, the former Frederika (Bobo) Sigrist.

In the settlement, reached here yesterday at a conference with State Supreme Court Justice Mar-to Pitoni, Mrs. Juarez will have custody of the child each year except between June 15 and Sept. 15.

Juarez, 33, will have the child the rest of the time. Both parents have unlimited visiting rights. In the custody tussle Juarez accused his wife of consorting with other men. She has charged him with living on her money during their 17-month marriage.
