SUMMER FUN (and some are Indians). This wide-awake boy wears a summer sleeper by Carter's. The two-piece, short sleeve and short pants pajamas are made of the softest cotton knit and patterned in bright two-color toy soldier prints on white. This is Style No. SL-74.

CARTER'S SLEEPERS

There is a lot of summer and much vacation time still to come and be enjoyed this year.
The practical sleep wardrobe for the whole family is one which requires no ironing.
Carter's summer sleepers are made of the softest cotton knit and this year's patterns are the most engaging ever.
In addition to sleepers for the small fry, it is well to investigate the beachwear for youngsters. One item in the line is a knit terry robe and boxer trunks (Style No.
BR-5 for the robe and SP-5 for the trunks). Both items come in blue, mint or pink stripes on white.
The robe doubles for at-home wear and the trunks for playwear.
When you know the style number of the items desired, it is easier for the stores to order for you if they don't happen to have those items in stock.

Seasoned Butters

One reads a great deal about seasoned butters. The idea sounds intriguing and one thinks it would be a good idea to develop. Here are some ideas from the National Dairy Council on seasoned butters and how to use them:

PARSLEY BUTTER

Combine ¼ pound (1 stick) of butter, melted, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and ¼ to ½ cup finely minced parsley. Use for seasoning potatoes, noodles, shellfish and fish.

MUSTARD BUTTER

Combine ¼ pound (1 stick) butter, softened, with ¼ cup of prepared mustard. Use your choice of mustard so that it is as hot or mild as your taste directs. Use as a spread for sandwiches and canapies; as a seasoning for fish, ham and eggs.

LEMON BUTTER

ter, melted, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 1 teaspoon grated lemon juice. Use for seasoning fish, shellfish, chicken, veal and vegetables.

GARLIC BUTTER

ter, softened, and 1 small clove of garlic, thoroughly mashed. Use for seasoning French or other crisp-crusted breads, steak or fish or shellfish.

HERB BUTTER

ter, softened, with 1 teaspoon mixed salad herbs. If using fresh herbs, such as rosemary, etc., chop the leaves fine; if using dried herbs, rub in the palm of the hand before adding to the butter.
Your own experiments will dictate your final recipe. Try tarragon, sweet basil and oregano as well as rosemary and thyme. Use for spread for canapies, for seasoning poultry, veal and vegetables; for seasoning stuffings for meat, poultry and fish.

CHEESE BUTTER

ter, softened, with desired amount of grated sharp cheese such as Parmesan or Romano. A mashed clove of garlic may be added or ¼ cup finely chopped chives. Use for seasoning French bread, as spread for canapies or as seasoning for vegetables such as steamed cauliflower.

FRIED POTATOES

Wash but do not peel, then slice the little round red potatoes for frying. Fry in butter, add salt and pepper and put the lid on the pan over medium heat for about five minutes to let them cook through more quickly. Remove lid and finish cooking.

ROCKY ROAD PIE

Prepare cooked chocolate pie filling according to your recipe or package directions. Stir miniature marshmallows and coarsely chopped walnuts into the hot filling. Turn into a baked pastry shell for a handsome and delectable "rocky road" pie.
