SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Forty Niners, who tied for the Western Division title in the 1957 National League pennant race, opened training camp at nearby St. Mary's college Saturday with the rookies in the spotlight.

"We expect to have 36 or 37 rookies trying out for the squad," said head coach Frankie Albert. "If two or three of them come through to take over as regulars, I'll be real happy."

FINE ROOKIES

Last year the Forty Niners came up with a fine crop of rookies who were major cogs in the machinery that lifted the club from an expected second-division finish. Among these were R. C. Owens, the high-jumping halfback; giant center Frank Morze; line-backer Karl Rabke, and fullbacks

Gene Babb and Larry Barnes. They all played more than they sat on the bench.

"It is unusual when a club can put more than three or four rookies into the starting offensive and defensive lineups," says Albert. "So we'll be happy to develop the average this year."

The Forty Niner backfield figures to be about the same as last year: quarterback Y. A. Title; halfbacks Hugh McElhenny and R. C. Owens, and fullbacks Joe Perry and Gene Babb.

But defense men still must be found to fill in the most glaring weakness of the San Francisco club—and that is where Albert will be pointing.

WOODSON AND PACE

"We have high hopes for Abe Woodson from Illinois and Jim Pace from Michigan for the backfield," either on defense or offense," says Albert. "They'll get a full try-out at both sides. If they don't make it on offense, I'm hoping they'll prove to be defensive standouts."

Albert, who still is recovering from a siege of the mumps, also is high on the prospects of tackle Charley Kruer of Texas A. & M., and end Fred Dugan of Dayton.

"We'll give Dugan a shot on the offensive side and then we'll try him out on defense, too," said Albert. "He looked real good to us in the Shrine East-West game."

Only a handful of veterans will be reporting tomorrow. The major force of experienced personnel will report in one week.

NY, Tigers Clash After Ryne Decked

DETROIT (AP)—The New York Yankees and the Detroit Tigers had a mild rhu-barb going today over the pitch that felled Yankee relief ace Ryne Duren.

The 29-year-old right-hander, credited with 16 saves and a leading candidate for Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player awards, was hospitalized after he was struck high on the left cheek by one of Paul Foytack's fast balls in the ninth inning of yesterday's contest at Briggs Stadium.

He was being observed Friday for possible concussion and attendants at the Detroit Memorial Hospital reported he was in "fair" condition, a term used for persons being observed for concussion.

The Yankees won the game 10-7 to complete a sweep of the three-game series, but Duren—who was credited with the victory—is to spend several days in a Detroit hospital. He suffered a bruise and a cut that required several stitches to close.

Doctors said X-rays were negative and that there was no cranial injury.

The Tigers denied the incident was deliberate but some of the Yankee players maintained that it was. One New York player said Foytack "looked into the Tiger dugout just before he threw the ball."

Duren, who had to be carried from the field on a stretcher, nearly hit the first Detroit batter he faced. His first pitch, a high inside fast ball, sent Al Kaline sprawling into the dirt. Just last week the Kansas City Athletics accused Duren of deliberately hitting slugger Bob Cerv.

Detroit Manager Bill Norman said, "I would never tell any pitcher to throw at any batter. Sure, the pitchers brush the batters back. That's baseball. But I wouldn't want my pitchers throwing at anybody. You could kill or maim a guy doing that."

Foytack denied he threw at Duren. "I was just trying to get out of the inning," he said, "and the pitch got away from me."

Betty Jameson Holds Golf Lead

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (UPI)—A tough fight shaped up in the French Lick Women's Open golf tournament today with Betty Jameson holding a slim, one-stroke lead going into the second round.

Miss Jameson came in with a one-under-par 73 Thursday on the 6,700-yard course, dampened by recent rains. Right behind her with a 74 was Faye Crocker, another leading money winner from Uruguay.

Beverly Hanson was in the third spot with a 75. Marily Smith and Marlene Bauer Haggie were tied for fourth place at 77. Joyce Visky had a 78, followed by Gloria Fecht and Jackie Pung with 79.

Market Basket increased its Men's Softball League lead to two full games over idle National Guard Thursday night at Conger Field by beating the Air Force Jets 10-4. In the other game, Mouldingcraft whipped the Air Force Jets 2-1.

The Jets took a 3-0 lead in the first half of the first inning, but Market Basket scored four times in the last half of the inning. Then the Air Force team tied the score in the third only to have the league leaders score three times in the fourth and fifth innings to notch the win.

Mike Janzou homered in the first with two on for the Jets. Dick Wicks drove in the three winning runs in the fourth for Market Basket on a single and an outfield error.

Gus Gestvang hurled the Mouldingcraft victory, allowing only three hits to Hal's Norbert Schleeper, who pitched a home run for the winners in the sixth with the bases empty.

Oregon Foods whipped the Tulalakers 21-17 in the second round and also dropped Hal's Sport Shop 20-14. Hal's also fell to the Bell's Hardware five by a narrow 21-19 margin.

In other games the Fatmen defeated Huley 20-13, and Bell's clobbered Huley 20-8.

The next action is scheduled for Pelican Court Tuesday, July 29. Game time is 7 p.m.

Threesome Holds Lead In Golf Open

BALTIMORE (AP)—Gary Player, the successful South African invader, and two domestic golfers desperately trying to regain the winning touch went into the second round of the Eastern Open Tournament today sharing the lead with 4-under-par 68s.

Deadlocked with Player were Bob Rosburg, Palo Alto, Calif., and Mike Fetcheck, Yonkers, N.Y. Although he has won a cool $15,000 this year by consistently finishing in the money, Rosburg hasn't won a major tournament since the San Diego Open in October 1956. Fetcheck's last No. 1 haul came two months later in the Sanford Open.

Behind the three leaders over the rain-soaked Mt. Pleasant course came four players with 69—Art Wall Jr., Pococano Manor, Pa.; Lionel Hebert, Lafayette, La.; Wesley Ellis Jr., Ridgewood, N. J.; and Walker Inman Jr., Eglin Air Force Base, Fla.

Lionel's brother, Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., was among five players who posted 70. The others were Bill Ezinicki, the former hockey player from Lynnfield, Mass.; Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill.; Don Stough, York, Pa.; and John O'Donnell, pro at Mt. Pleasant.

The 71 shooters included National Open champion Tommy Bolt, former Masters, PGA king Jack Burke and 10 others.

The veteran Sam Snead had a 72.

Police Seek Frank Carbo

NEW YORK (UPI)—Police in 15 states were on the lookout today for Frankie Carbo, the reputed underworld "Mr. Big" of professional boxing who has been indicted by a New York grand jury on charges of acting as an undercover manager and matchmaker.

The nationwide alarm for the 34-year-old mobster was issued Thursday after Carbo eluded a trap at the Joe Brown - Kenny Lane lightweight title fight at Houston, Tex., Wednesday night. Detectives were waiting at the Sam Houston Arena with warrants, but Carbo never appeared.

According to District Attorney Frank Hogan, Carbo was last seen at Tijuana, Mexico, last month.

"He has a home in Hollywood, Fla., but he's rarely there," said Hogan, who added he held up his release of the lengthy detailed indictment against Carbo until Thursday in the hope of taking him into custody.

The 10-count indictment specifically charges Carbo with conspiracy, acting as an undercover manager for seven fights and serving as an unlicensed matchmaker for two bouts.

Hogan said Carbo pulled the strings in main events at Madison Square Garden and St. Nicholas Arena.

Carbo has been arrested 17 times in the past 43 years, police said, but has served only one prison term. That was back in 1923 when he put in 20 months at Sing Sing for manslaughter.

Ted Sorry, But Pays Fine

CHICAGO (UPI)—It's more than spitting distance from Kansas City, Mo., to Chicago but Boston Red Sox slugger Ted Williams today felt a $250 impact for a spitting incident back in Kansas City's ball park.

Ted apologized and readied a check in payment of a $250 fine levied by American League President Will Harridge, after the Boston star retaliated to boos from Kansas City fans Wednesday night with a stream of saliva.

Williams said Thursday night he was "very sorry" over the incident which occurred during a "fit of temper."

"Mr. Harridge was very nice about it," Williams said. "I'm sorry I did it."

"I lost my head in a fit of temper, and I'm principally sorry I lost the $250."

Fans jeered Williams with a flurry of boos when he failed to run out a fourth-inning dribbler down the first base line.

As the Red Sox slugger turned toward the Boston dugout, boos went up from the crowd. Williams spat and the fans turned it on more loudly.

It was the second time Williams was fined for expressing his resentment with saliva. He was slapped with an unusually severe fine of $5,000 in 1956 by Boston Manager Joe Cronin when he spat at the crowd in Boston's Fenway Park during a game with the New York Yankees.

Pete Has Boxing Lesson To Learn

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Pete Rademacher, the Olympic heavyweight champion who took his lumps from Floyd Patterson, faces another lesson tonight in the old adage that it's better to start at the bottom and work up than vice versa.

Pete, who lost his one and only pro bout, climbs through the ropes in Los Angeles against Zora Foley. And, while his aspirations are not as lofty as before, it must be recognized that Foley is ranked No. 2 among the heavyweight challengers.

At the risk of belaboring a tired horse, let it be said that Pete's prospects aren't much brighter against Foley than they were against Patterson.

It simmers down, as always, to a question of experience. Those in charge of the festivities are making much out of the fact that Rademacher and Foley fought twice as amateurs and split even.

LUCKY TO BE ALIVE
They conveniently ignore the fact that since those fabled days Foley has fought 44 times in the professional jungle and has learned the cash savagery well by winning 40 of those bouts.

There are some who contend that Rademacher was belabored rather severely in this corner as a prelude to his abortive shot at Patterson and the heavyweight championship. I still think he was lucky he didn't get killed. And you can show me all the pictures in the world purporting to attest to his "knockdown" of the cham-chion and I'll still say he couldn't do it with a meat axe.

It is the contention here that, barring his one bout, he still is an amateur who would be better off learning the professional wiles in the usual manner. Of all the men who reached the top in their various professions, boxers are at least one species who cannot start off as champions.

Patterson has brought along with extreme caution by his manager, Gus D'Amato. Even when they finally did throw him in against a smart old pro like Joey Maxim, who couldn't knock off your hat with a baseball bat, he didn't know enough to escape defeat even though he had the superior weapons.

BROUGHT UP SLOWLY
Every man who won a championship in the ring had to make it the slow, cautious way. Rocky Marciano never tasted defeat because he was guided in superlative fashion. Roland Lasterza gave him a tough time of it early in his career and the Rocky's pilots by-passed road Rolle until they were dead certain Marciano could finally handle him.

Sugar Ray Robinson, with the greatest talents and punch these tired old eyes have ever seen, fought his way up slowly through the ranks. So did such Olympians as Fidel Labarba and Jackie Fields.

It's the same in any sport. Ball players fight their way up from the minors except in very rare instances. The intercollegiate champion would be a pushover for Ashley Cooper, and grandma was in finishing school the last time an amateur won the U. S. Open golf championship against those tournament-toughened professionals.

Rademacher is a nice young fellow and there is no animosity here toward him. It's simply that I'm the kind of a fellow who still winces when I think of how they threw the Christians to the lions.
