

Reception At Winema Hotel July 21 Honors Vice Admiral (Ret.) and Mrs. Howard E. Orem

THE RECEPTION also served to bring members of the Orem family together for the first reunion in many years.

In the group picture, part of the receiving line is shown. From the left, Mrs. Beard, Admiral and Mrs. Orem, now of Summit, New Jersey; their son, Lt. Charles A. Orem, USN, and his wife, Gerry, who is the daughter of Vice Admiral Charles Wellborn. Lieutenant Orem, graduated from Annapolis in 1950, is presently studying for his master's in guided missiles at naval post school, Monterey, California.

Not pictured in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Orem, their son, Preston, his wife and son, all of Portland (Mrs. Roy Orem was Hazel Goeller, sister of Harry and Fred Goeller); Mrs. Elsie Orem Williamson, her son-in-law and daughter, Edward W. Thrall and Betty, with their two sons, also Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Orem, Fort Klamath; and their son, Harry, his wife and children from Merrill. Roy Orem is senior vice president of the U. S. National Bank of Portland, and Ira Orem is a rancher.

—All reception photos by Don Kettler

OLD FRIENDS—nearly 200 of them—greeted Vice Admiral (Ret.) and Mrs. Howard E. Orem last Monday night in the Camas Room of the Winema Hotel, when his sister, Mrs. Joseph Ivan Beard, was hostess at a reception in their honor. During the 7 to 10 p.m. reception hours clusters of old friends were noted greeting each other as they gathered in conversation groups about the room.

Admiral and Mrs. Orem will spend some time in California and go from there to Bermuda, before returning to New Jersey and home.

The girls at the punch bowl are Susan Goeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goeller; and Carol Shannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Shannon.

Herald and News
Klamath Falls
Oregon
July 27, 1958

Mr. and Mrs. James Maguire

AT THE LEFT, Mrs. Victor Palmer and Mrs. Maud Holsey, childhood friends of the Orem brothers and sisters, are shown as they took time out from visiting to patronize the punch bowl.

MRS. F. CECIL ADAMS pours coffee for Mrs. Brady Narey and Mrs. Clifford Shuck, and Mrs. H. E. Getz offers them a tray of the colorful and tasty cookies. Also pouring, but not shown, is Mrs. Kenneth Klahn.

Coffee Given "To Meet" Mrs. Harold R. Peyton

MRS. CALVIN P. PEYTON, second from the left, entertained with an informal 10 a.m. to 12 noon coffee for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harold R. Peyton, second from the right, on Thursday, July 10, in the Pelican Party Room. With the hostess and her honored guest are Mrs. Ralph Stearns Jr., extreme left; and Mrs. Ted Pepple, daughter of the hostess, far right.

Harold and Patricia Peyton and children, Linda, 7, and Paul, 6, were summer visitors from Fairbanks, Alaska, at the home of his parents, 826 North Sixth Street. She and the youngsters, here for about two weeks, left the afternoon of the coffee for Newberg, Oregon, to visit Mrs. Glenn Vaughn, Linda's and Paul's maternal grandmother.

Harold has been teaching part-time at the University of Alaska at Fairbanks, and has also been doing research work for the Geophysical Institute through the university. He left on Sunday, July 6, and went directly to Point Barrow, Alaska, to continue his work with the institute on a full time basis. His family will join him there.

At the coffee, many who called during the morning hours were friends that Patricia Peyton had met during the two years she and Harold lived here—before the move to Fairbanks four years ago.

—Photos of Peyton Coffee by Otto Ellis

A RECENT SUNNY DAY found the Maguires in their yard at 103 Washington Street, where they are settled after a wedding trip to the Bay Area and several shorter business trips that took them out of town during much of June and part of July.

Virginia Kuykendall and Jim Maguire were married in Reno at the Park Chapel on May 10, the Rev. Gareth Hughes officiating.

Both are well known local residents. Jim grew up here and his charming bride has lived in Klamath Falls for about 15 years.

—Photo by Otto Ellis

SOCIETY

MRS. A. M. HATTAN, far left, and Mrs. Frederick Ehlers pause for a chat during the coffee given by Mrs. Calvin Peyton for Mrs. Harold Peyton. Mrs. Carl Hagel presides at the coffee urn.

The Esther Reed daisies and larkspur in the handsome table arrangement were all brought by the hostess from her own garden.

Others pouring during the morning were Mrs. Ross Ragland, Mrs. Frank Peyton and Mrs. A. C. Olson.