

THE PHANTOM SHIP is a familiar sight to visitors to Crater Lake National Park and is perhaps the most photographed scene anywhere in the big establishment. This picture was shot on a clear day with a light breeze turning the lake into a glittering world of ripples.

VIDAE FALLS is another of the interesting sidelights of a trip to Crater Lake National Park. This picture shows the falls as they cascade down the sheer mountainside just off the Rim Drive.

BEGGING FOR FOOD from passing cars is a frequent habit of the park bears. This youngster was caught in the act just below Government Camp. Tourists are urged to use caution around the animals, however, and take no chances. The bears are of an uncertain nature.

AN EARLY START

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Lloyd Glenn Schiltz is three years old. The only Sunday he missed going to Sunday School was the one following his birth. "We thought he was too young to go the first week," said his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Schiltz.

MORMONS ESTABLISH STAKE

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Latter - Day Saints (Mormons) Church has established its first stake (similar to a diocese) below the equator. It is located at Auckland, New Zealand. The stake is the eighth to be located outside the United States.
