Hank Aaron Leads Braves To Win; Giants Beaten, 2-1

By United Press International

Hear all that hammering?

It's only Hank Aaron keeping the front door open for the Milwaukee Braves and preventing National League pitchers from getting any sleep.

Aaron did some pretty loud knocking Sunday when he drove in three runs with a homer and a single that beat the Cubs, 4-1, and moved the Braves a full game in front.

Braves 4, Cubs 1

Hammerin' Hank unloaded his 22nd homer with one on in the first inning off Dave Hillman and singled home Bill Bruton in the third. All that hitting brought rookie Carlton Willey his fourth victory although he needed help from Don McMahon when the Cubs threatened in the ninth. Chicago collected only five hits, all off Willey.

Chicago 000 100 000— 1 5 2
Milwaukee 201 010 00x— 4 10 1

Hillman, Henry (7), Hobbie (8) and S. Taylor. Willey, McMahon (9) and Crandall. Winner— Willey (4-3). Loser — Hillman (2-2). HR—Aaron.

Pirates 2, Giants 1

Pittsburgh nipped San Francisco, 2-1, in a 14-inning opener and the second game was suspended with the score tied 3-3 in the eighth because of Pennsylvania's Sunday curfew law.

Dick Groat's sacrifice fly scored Frank Thomas with the winning run in the 14th inning of the opener. Reliever Don Gross was the winner. Ray Jablonski homered off starter Ronnie Kline in the seventh and Bob Skinner tied the score with a homer off Al Worthington in the ninth.

(1st game, 14 innings)
S. F. 000 000 100 000 00— 1 9 2
Pitts 000 000 001 000 01— 2 8 0

Worthington, Miller (1), Monzant (14) and Schmidt. Kline, Porterfield (8), Face (9), Gross (14) and Hall, Foiles (10). Winner—Gross (3-2). Loser—Monzant (6-8). HRS—Jablonski, Skinner.

(2nd game, suspended with Pittsburgh batting in 8th inning, curfew—to be completed later date)
San Fran. 020 100 00 — 3 11 0
Pittsburgh 000 102 0 — 3 6 1

Giel and V. Thomas. Blackburn, Porterfield (7) and Hall. HR—F. Thomas.

Phils 7, Dodgers 4

The Phillies and Dodgers wound up in "suspense," too, in their twin-bill at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia won the opener, 7-4, with the aid of Willie Jones' two homers and the second game was suspended because of the curfew law with the Phils ahead, 2-1, in the sixth.

Jones' two homers plus a pair of triples by Solly Hemus and another homer by Carl Sawatski gave Robin Roberts his 10th win in the opener.

(1st game)
Los Angeles 001 010 011— 4 12 0
Philadelphia 000 013 03x— 7 8 0

Williams, Kipp (6), Labine (8) and Roseboro. Roberts (10-9) and Sawatski. Loser— Williams (6-6). HRS— Sawatski, Jones (2), Zimmer.

(2nd game, suspended after 6 innings, curfew — to be completed at later date)
Los Angeles 100 000 — 1 3 3
Philadelphia 000 002 — 2 2 0

Giallombardo and Pigantano. Simmons and Lopata. HR— Zimmer.

Cards 4-1, Reds 3-10

Cincinnati charged back for a 10-1 victory in the nightcap of a double-dip after St. Louis won the opener, 4-3, behind Larry Jackson's six-hit pitching.

Ex - American Leaguer Alex Kellner set the Cards down on seven hits in the finale while the Redlegs nicked loser Bob Mabe for six hits and seven runs during the 4 2-3 innings he pitched. Joe Cunningham and Frank Robinson each hit homers in the opener.

(1st game)
Cincinnati 010 000 002— 3 6 0
St. Louis 100 021 00x— 4 11 0

Nuxhall, Acker (5), Schmidt (8) and Bailey. Jackson (7-8) and Smith. Loser— Nuxhall (6-6). HRS—Cunningham, Robinson.

St. Louis 000 010 000— 1 7 0

Kellner (3-1) and Bailey. Mabe, Brosnan (5), McDaniel (6), Paine (8) and Landrith. Loser— Mabe (0-3).

Tribe 7-7, Yanks 2-2

Over in the American League, the Cleveland Indians halted the New York Yankees' seven - game winning streak with a pair of identical 7-2 victories. It was the Indians' first victories over the Yanks in Cleveland this season following seven straight losses to the league leaders.

Cal McLish gained his ninth victory in the opener by holding the Yankees to eight hits. In the nightcap Jim (Mudcat) Grant hurled a three-hitter for his eight victory and Rocky Colavito contributed a grand - slam homer off Bob Turley, who lost his fourth game against 15 victories.

(1st game)
New York 000 001 100— 2 8 1
Cleveland 300 210 10x— 7 9 2

Sturdivant, Trucks (7) and Howard. McLish (9-6) and Nixon. Loser— Sturdivant (1-5). HRS — Harrell, Colavito, McDougald, Throneberry.

(2nd game)

Cleveland 000 024 10x— 7 9 3

Turley, Trucks (8) and Berra. Grant (8-8) and Nixon. Loser—Turley (15-4). HRS — Averill, Colavito.

Boston 7, ChiSox 3

The Red Sox snapped a four-game losing streak with a flurry of four home runs that sunk the White Sox, 7-3. Jackie Jensen hit his 29th homer while teammates Don Buddin, Frank Malzone and Jim Piersall also hit for the circuit.

Boston 100 012 300— 7 8 0
Chicago 102 000 000— 3 13 1

Brewer, Wall (3), Byerly (5) and White. Pierce, Shaw (6), Staley (9) and Loallar. Winner—Byerly (3-0). Loser— Pierce (10-7). HRS— Piersall, Buddin, Jensen, Malzone.

Athletics 11, Birds 6

Roger Maris drove in five runs while leading Kansas City to an 11 - 6 decision over Baltimore. Maris had a pair of triples and a single to pace the Athletics' 16-hit attack while Bob Cerv collected two singles to take over the league batting lead with a .330 average.

Baltimore 300 002 001— 6 13 1
Kansas City 241 003 01x—11 16 1

Brown, Zuverink (2), O'Dell (2), Beamon (6), Lehman (7) and Triandos, Ginsberg (7). Garver (9-7) and Smith. Loser— Zuverink (2-2). HRS— Nieman (2), Carrasquel, DeMaestri.

Nats 4-6, Tigers 3-1

Washington swept a doubleheader from the skidding Detroit Tigers, 4-3 and 6-1, on a pair of fine pitching performances by Camilo Pascual and Pedro Ramos.

Detroit 000 000 010— 1 5 2

Ramos (8-9) and Korcheck. Aguirre, Foytack (2), Morgan (7), Fischer (9) and Hegan, Wilson (9). Loser— Aguirre (3-4). HRS—Lemon, Hazle.

Russian Fans Differ On Eats

MOSCOW (UPI) — Capitalist Americans may munch hot dogs and drink beer at their track meets, but fans in this land of the proletariat nibble caviar sandwiches and drink champagne.

At giant Lenin Stadium, where the first Russian - American dual track meet in taking place, thousands of Soviet citizens take time out from watching to eat, drink, and talk with friends.

But unlike American stadiums where the hot dog and soft drink vendor is a familiar sight, Lenin Stadium boasts dozens of buffets under the stands where fans can buy thick sandwiches, cold drinks, tea, coffee — and champagne. For three rubles you can buy an open caviar sandwich, a quarter-inch of black caviar spread on an inch-thick slice of bread. For three rubles and 50 kopeks you get a glass of Soviet champagne, sweet and semi-dry.

But most Russians settle for beer, mineral water, herring and cheese or sausage sandwiches.

Curfew Law Leaves Doors Open For SF

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The dull bong of the curfew echoed again through the state of Pennsylvania Sunday and the Giants fell back into second place behind Milwaukee.

There also were several dull thuds into the bleachers as far as the San Francisco pitching staff was concerned while the Giants were dropping a 2-1 game to the Pirates in the 14th inning of the opener then played to a 3-3 suspended tie in the nightcap.

Tonight they return to this city of Brotherly Razzberries where they tangle in a twi-night doubleheader with the Phils. Ruben Gomez (5-7) and Mike McCormick (7-2) are slated to go for San Francisco against Roman Semproch (12-6) and John Meyer (1-2).

Manager Bill Rigney of the Giants was chased just before the second contest was suspended when the umpires claimed he was stalling after he had come out of the dugout to talk with pitcher Paul Giel. Just after Rig got the thumb, the fatal hour struck.

BRAVES BELT CUBS

In the meantime, the Braves had defeated the Cubs, 4-1, to take a full game lead over San Francisco.

The Giants blew leads in both of Sunday's contests. Al Worthington was working on a 1-0 cushion in the bottom half of the ninth in the opener when Bob Skinner sent it into overtime with a tremendous home run into the right field stands.

Then the teams battled into the 14th inning where Ramon Monzant took over for Stu Miller. Frank Thomas hit into a force play for the first out and went to second on Skinner's single. Monzant intentionally walked Bill Mazeroski to load the bases and Thomas scored on Dick Groat's sacrifice fly to Willie Kirkland in short right. It was Monzant's eighth loss while Don Gross got his third win after going one in nine.

Thomas bombed his 28th home run of the year off Giel with Roberto Clemente on base in the sixth inning of the second game to tie the score, 3-3.

SO LONG, RIG

Then with one out in the eighth inning, Giel worked the count to two balls and no strikes on Roberto Clemente. Rigney came out to gab with Giel, got the hook and by then the curfew had rung.

Singles by Daryl Spencer and Valmy Thomas gave the Giants a 2-0 lead off starter Ron Blackburn in the second inning of the the fourth by scoring Orlando Cepeda on a sacrifice fly.

But then Pittsburgh scored a run in the fourth on a pair of doubles by Dick Stuart and Frank Thomas followed by Skinner's sacrifice fly.

The game will be resumed at the point where it halted on a later date. It marked the second time this season the curfew has caught up with the Giants in this state. A game with the Phillies was halted on June 22.

San Francisco blanked the Pirates, 1-0, on Saturday with Marv Grissom assisting Johnny Antonelli who won his 11th.

Lakeview Tops Swim Meet; Klamath 2nd

Lakeview captured a six-team swimming meet Saturday at the Klamath Falls Municipal Pool, defeating the host Klamath team 192-109. Third place was Bend with 78 points followed by Grants Pass with 57 points. Lorella had four and Malin three to complete the team scoring.

Ted Akinson Gains Spot In Turf Fame

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — You can add horse racing to mice and men today when it comes to plans going astray.

What brings this to mind is the recently concluded election which this summer will send three jockeys, trainers and horses galloping into the National Museum of Racing at Saratoga Springs.

The ballot brought to light that Ted Atkinson already is in—while a couple of gents named Eddie Arcaro and Johnny Longden aren't.

Not that "The Slasher" doesn't belong. But, as you might say in donning your undergarments, first things first. Atkinson in such classic halls ahead of Eddie and Longden is like putting your socks on before your shoes.

Mister Longden is merely the leading jockey with more than 5,000 winners.

Aside from quantity, Arcaro is only the mostest in such items as money won, stakes won, derbies won — and ability.

ALL A MISTAKE

The scattered powers who control the Hall of Fame voting naturally are reluctant to account for this horsey faux pas. It seems that in a recent election the harried selection board needed one more nominee. Someone dropped in Atkinson's name on the mistaken theory that Arcaro and Longden assuredly were already ensconced in the shrine.

So what happened? "The Slasher" came rushing down on the outside and wound up in the Hall of Fame.

Arcaro and Longden look to be shoo-ins this time around with the third spot up for grabs among Eric Guerin, Bill Hartack, Conn McCreary and Willie Shoemaker.

Three trainers also are to be voted in and the two leading candidates would seem to be "Sunny Jim" Fitzsimmons and "White Hat Ben" Jones.

Mr. Fitz, who observed his 84th birthday anniversary last Wednesday by traipsing to the track in usual pre - dawn fashion, has been saddling winners since Jim Jeffries was the heavyweight champion of the world. He won the Triple Crown with Gallant Fox and Omaha and also has trained such champions as Seabiscuit, Bold Ruler, Nashua, Johnstown, Fighting Fox and Busanda.

HORSES A PROBLEM

Jones, one of the most successful trainers in history, set a record by saddling six Kentucky Derby winners: Lawrin, Whirlaway, Pensive, Citation, Ponder and Hill Gail.

The third spot is a race among Preston Burch, Hirsch Jacobs, Willie Molter, Bert Mulholland, George Odom and Carey Winfrey.

It is a bit more difficult for the voters when it comes to picking three of the 20 horses placed on the ballot. For they have listed a great number of the great ones and you can make a case for all of them.

If you're a racing fan you'll remember most of them: the tragic Phar Lap, the hard - luck Seabiscuit, Bold Venture, Cavalcade, Equipoise, Gallant Fox, Johnstown, Omaha, Twenty Grand, War Admiral, Challedon, Dark Secret, Discovery, Faireno, Granville, Jamestown, Ladysman, Pompoon, Questionnaire and Sun Beau.

Even Clem McCarthy would have had trouble calling three winners there — but if they bypass riders like Arcaro and Longden and trainers such as Mr. Fitz and "White Hat Ben," then this whole business has to be a complete joke.

Airways Do Business If Yankees, SF Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP) — If the Giants and Yankees win pennants, the subway series will move to the elevated in October. This particular elevated will be cruising over 20,000 feet up and the fare won't be 15 cents.

In fact, the round trip plane fare, tax included, runs somewhere between $185 and $348 depending on what kind of accommodations you wish.

Chartered flights make the long hop west in about 8 hours and 15 minutes. The trip back is faster, about 7 hours and 45 minutes because of the prevailing winds. Of course, the cheaper flights take a bit longer.

One airline that is putting jets into service in the fall would like nothing better than a chance to buzz the cast back and forth. They say the time would be about 5 hours out and between 4:15 and 4:30 back.

The Giants fly all the time in a chartered job to make all the long hops of the National League from their new San Francisco home. The New York club has taken three flights this year, usually taking a charter for the long haul from Kansas City. Although some of the Yanks aren't too keen about it, they all have been flying.

Nobody can force a man to fly if he doesn't want to. But as far as the World Series is concerned, the "train man" probably would be out of luck. It is most unlikely that the schedule would be adjusted to permit a reluctant athlete to make the trip by rail.

This business of the Giants winning the pennant no longer is ridiculous. They have been up there all year, first or close to it, and show no signs of any serious tailspin. If they can escape a serious slump on their current eastern swing, they should be in it all the way.

They crammed 23,448 into Seals Stadium, smallest park in the majors, for San Francisco's opening day game with Los Angeles. Perhaps that could be increased a bit with temporary stands but not too much. San Francisco's new stadium with 45,000 seats won't be started until August. It is a question whether it will be ready for the 1959 season.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick is the authority for the statement that there is absolutely no possibility of any shift of Giant games to any other city (Los Angeles and its 100,000 Coliseum, for instance) if the Giants win.

Years ago clubs used to shift series games to the rival league's park in the same city. In 1918 the Cubs played their series games with the Boston Red Sox in Comiskey Park. And in 1915 and 1916 the Red Sox played their series games at Braves Field because of its greater capacity.

With players sharing in the receipts of the first four games and the first two set for the National League city this year, you couldn't blame the Yankees if they rooted for Milwaukee with its 45,000 seats.

The series schedule won't be adopted until late August or early September but there is little doubt that it will start Wednesday, Oct. 1 in the National city.

Frick said the matter of series scheduling hadn't been discussed yet. But he thought there would be no need for any more than one off day for travel if the clubs had to go from California to New York.

You have to go way back to 1920 and the Brooklyn park before it was enlarged to find anything comparable to San Francisco's small capacity. The Brooklyn team packed in 25,088 for one series game in 1920. The smallest crowd ever to see a series game was the 6,210 at Detroit in 1908 for the final game with Chicago.

As far as television is concerned there will be no major problems, except the deep cut into the prime early evening hours when the games originated in California.

Any private deals the Giants or Dodgers may have with pay-as-you-go television is not valid in a World Series. Commissioner Frick has complete charge of all series play. He engineered the sale of the telecasts and broadcasts to the National Broadcasting Co. for a $3,250,000 annual fee. The five-year pact runs through 1961.
