KF Club Topples Astoria '9'

By WAYNE SCOTT (Special Dispatch Via The Associated Press)

PORTLAND — The Klamath Falls County All-Stars took the 102-degree temperature in stride as they swept to an 8-3 victory over Astoria in the opening game of the 1958 Oregon State Babe Ruth Tournament at Lents Field in Portland Sunday afternoon.

In their first round games played Sunday, Tualatin downed Cleveland Majors of Portland 5-2, Mid-Portland No. 1 defeated North Clackamas 9-4 and Southeast National of Portland moved out Cascade Mt. Hood 3-2.

The win sends coach Fred Taylor's All-Stars into the second round where they will face the Mid-Portland nine at 7 o'clock Monday evening on the same field. Continued success in the Portland meet will earn the squad a berth in the Northwest Regionals to be held at Klamath Falls.

The winning pitcher, Dennis Salvadori, of Merrill, started strong as he dispatched the first six Astoria batters to face him in 1-2-3 order before the oppressive heat began to tell on him. Salvadori went the full distance however, issuing only five hits, all singles, walking three men and striking out seven. The Klamath Falls team committed only two errors over the seven-inning route.

The loser, Astoria's Jim Wori, came into the game in the second stanza as welcome relief for starter Newton Taylor. Taylor had given up two Klamath scores in the first frame off a pair of walks, one hit and an error, and had doled out three free passes to the next three batters in the second before being replaced. Wori was reached for five more Klamath hits, walked three and fanned four in finishing up the game. The Astoria club was charged with three costly errors.

Klamath Falls broke into the scoring column early in the bottom of the first as shortstop Buckley Wilson, Merrill, who had slipped a solid single, scored on a sharp rarp to third base by catcher Dean Haskins on which Kenny Moss, Astoria third sacker, made a poor throw to first. Also scoring on the miscue was Bob Mobley, Klamath centerfielder who had been awarded a walk.

In the second inning another Klamath tally crossed the plate as Garry Peters was moved around the sacks after his base on balls was followed by two more and a neat sacrifice bunt by Wilson.

In the third stanza Astoria threatened as two runners got on the paths, both by virtue of walks. Moss reached second on a balk by Salvadori. The uprising died, however, as Salvadori resumed command and retired the side.

In the top of the fourth Astoria first baseman Ricky Williams lashed a clean single, followed by a sacrifice grounder by Bruce Wesche. A hit by Taylor, who was moved to right field after being relieved on the mound, scored Williams. Wori got on by an error by Peters and then Moss pounced on a one-base blow that scored Taylor and brought the count to 3-2. Paul Soderman, centerfielder, flted out to Don Willey and Salvadori shifted pinch-hitter Jeff Williams to relieve the pressure.

In the first of the fifth stanza, Salvadori ran into trouble as he walked the leadoff man, George Oja, and then hit a batter to put two on base with only one out. Oja scored when Salvadori flipped a fielder's choice ball wide of the play at the plate. With the score tied 3-3, the Astoria rally halted as Salvadori struck out Taylor and forced Wori to ground out to Willey.

The County stars counted three markers in the last of the fifth as Salvadori, Haskins and Hubert LeBeau all scored after taking advantage of two walks, a fielder's choice, a hit, an error and a trip to first base handed LeBeau when the Astoria catcher interfered with his bat.

In the top of the sixth Astoria's hopes were short-lived after Moss collected a single only to be doubled off second base when replacement catcher Jim Lovell grounded to Wilson who tossed it to Willey, who relayed it to Brickner for the double play. Soderman popped up to the pitcher for the last one.

Klamath Falls gained a pair of insurance runs in the sixth. Wilson got his second hit of the afternoon, then stole a base and went on to third when Bob Mobley grounded out to the shortstop. Salvadori intervened to the shortstop when he broke for first base when Lovell dropped the ball after Salvadori's third strike. Hesitating to throw to first because of the capering Wilson, who was waiting on third, no play was made, and Salvadori romped on to second in the confusion. Both men scored when Haskins poled a liner to short center. Haskins was thrown out trying to stretch it to a two-bagger. The flurry subsided when Brickner grounded to first base.

In the top of the last inning the end appeared near as Salvadori whiffed Oja for the first out. The next batter, Bill Canessa, Astoria second baseman, lashed a single to gain a short reprieve, but Williams and Wesche fled out to short

Reports Say Walt Alston May Be Out

NEW YORK (UPI) — Walter O'Malley is "ready to make a change" and manager Walt Alston is "it" — unless the last-place Los Angeles Dodgers do a complete turnaround in the next 10 days — the United Press International learned on excellent authority today.

Should the Dodgers show no marked improvement during that time, a new manager probably will be named to coincide with the club's return home to Los Angeles on Aug. 8, according to the source.

O'Malley's likely choice as Alston's successor will be Los Angeles Coach Charles Dressen, whom Alston replaced as Dodger manager in 1954. Two other men — Bobby Bragan and Leo Durocher — also are in the managerial picture.

"That recent vote of confidence the Dodgers gave Alston was tantamount to handing him his hat," said the UPI source. "O'Malley already has decided to make a change and he's debating among three choices — Dressen, Bragan and Durocher."

"All three are popular on the West Coast. Durocher might prove too hard to get. Bragan is in the Dodgers' system at Spokane and could be brought in easily, but Dressen is right there with the club and O'Malley still thinks highly of him despite their past differences, so he looks like the logical man."

Alston, who is operating on one of those famous one-year contracts O'Malley hands out, will be offered a place in the Dodgers' organization from which he emerged to lead the team to its only world championship in 1955.

Since taking over as Dodger manager, Alston has made a good showing every year except this one.

He finished second in 1954; won the pennant and the World Series against the Yankees in 1955; won the pennant again in 1956 but lost the World Series, and wound up third last year.

The team really fell apart on him this season through no fault of his own.

Roy Campanella's tragic accident during the winter was the major blow. Then Don Newcombe, baseball's outstanding pitcher only two years ago, failed to win and was traded to Cincinnati.

Right now, Duke Snider and Carl Furillo are nursing injuries that keep them from playing.

Wall Sweeps Golf Tourney With Playoff

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI) — When it comes to playoffs in golf tournaments, put your money on Art Wall.

That appears to be the lesson taught by the Eastern Open golf championship which ended here Sunday with Wall beating Jackie Burke and Bob Rosburg in a "sudden death" playoff for the title. It was Wall's sixth major golf victory — and his fourth via a playoff.

The tourney veteran from Pocomo Manor, Pa., tied Burke and Rosburg at 276 for 72 holes by sinking a 20-foot putt for a birdie on the last hole, and then he beat them on the first extra hole by sinking an eight-footer for another birdie.

Wall picked up $2,800 for his victory and must now be reckoned the hottest golfer on the pro tour. In his last four starts, he won at Akron, was second at Hartford, 11th in the PGA, and now first here.

Burke and Rosburg matched Wall at five-under-par 67 for the final round. Only one stroke out of the three-way tie was young Gary Player of South Africa, who had a last-round 69 for a 277 total.

No. Bend Captures 4-2 Game

NORTH BEND—Klamath Falls hopes of gaining a spot in the state American Legion junior baseball tournament fell through here Sunday as the Tower Motor Company team of North Bend posted a 4-2 win in the third and deciding game of the sub-district playoff.

North Bend now goes up against Roseburg's Lockwood Motors club in another best-of-three game playoff starting Wednesday night at North Bend. The winner will advance into the semi-finals of the state tournament with the District 3 crown tucked away.

Sunday, North Bend scored three big and important runs in the fourth inning to wipe out a 1-0 Klamath Falls lead, then the Towermen called upon Gary Wallace to come on in relief and stop Klamath's attack that threatened to tie the game up in the final two innings.

It was the third appearance in three games for Wallace who came on in relief in the opening game at Klamath Falls and then returned Saturday night at North Bend as a starter to throw a no-hitter. In all, Wallace worked 11 innings and gave up only one hit, a single in Sunday's game to Smiley Herrera.

Klamath opened the day's offensive action in the top of the fourth inning when Herrera led off with a base on balls and went to second on an error. A single by Steve Binney chased Herrera to third. Smiley scored later on a sacrifice bunt by Estin Kiger. Binney was left stranded on third and Bill Worlein on second when North Bend starting pitcher Tom Younkens got Dean Dunson to ground out and Blake Griggs to pop up.

North Bend came back in their half of the inning to score three times, which proved to be the winning margin. Colin Rush opened with a single and went to second on a passed ball. A sacrifice by Gene Gates pushed him to third and an error on Kiger allowed Rush to score the first Tower Motor run. Younkens singled, putting runners on first and third, and an infield out advanced Younkens to second with Gates holding third. The big blow of the inning came from the smallest player on the field as little Terry Leininger, North Bend "short stuff" shortstop, blasted one of Griggs' left-pitcher for a two-run double to left. Leininger was thrown out at third trying to stretch his hit into a triple to end the inning, but it was too late for Klamath.

North Bend added another run in the sixth on a single by Bill Swain and Younkens' triple. Younkens was picked off third base on a nice throw from catcher Dunson to Kiger on an attempted double steal after Jim Kersey had walked and Leininger had popped up.

Hi Hatfield's Klamath Falls team, winner of the District 3 Southern Oregon League race, had another big chance in the sixth inning but could muster only enough of an attack to push one run across the plate.

Herrera responded with a single and advanced to second on an error by Binney. Herrera was forced at third on Kiger's grounder back to the mound but Worlein walked to load the bases. Binney scored on a single by Dunson that chased Younkens and brought in Wallace.

The North Bend rightshander got Griggs to fly out in short left field and Bob Yuncck to ground out to shortstop to end the inning and the threat with the bases left jammed. Klamath put two runners on in the top of the last inning, but couldn't get a rally started.

Herrera led all hitters, getting three singles in three official trips to the plate. Binney had a two-for-four afternoon at bat. Younkens' single and triple in three trips led North Bend hitters.

Americans Leading In Soviet Oval Meet

MOSCOW (UPI) — The U. S. track team got off to a flying start against Russia today in the concluding events of their two-day meet when Ed Collymore, Cambridge, Mass., won the 200-meter dash in 21.3 seconds.

Olympic champion Tom Courtney, Livingston, N. J., then gave the U. S. its ninth victory in 12 men's events by romping home first in the 800-meter run. The former Fordham University star was timed in 1:43.8.

The Americans say that points should be counted separately. Under that system, the U. S. men were leading, 61 - 45, in their events; the Russian women were leading, 30-22, in their events.

The surprising U. S. lead after the first day was the result of two upset wins by American women — lanky Barbara Jones of Chicago, who took the 100-meter dash in 11.6 seconds, and the women's 400 meter relay.

In the events that wind up the two-day meet today, the United States was favored to win six men's events; the Russians favored in four; and two were wide open. In women's competition, the Russians were favored in four and the Americans are given a chance in only one, the shot put.

That forecast indicated a nip-and-tuck race down the wire for the team title.

If so, the victory could hinge on the one dispute Sunday — the disqualification of Gordon McKenzie of New York in the 10,000 meter run. McKenzie slowed to a trot because he was far behind and officials ruled him out, costing the United States team one point.

The final result could hinge on the outcome of the spectacular decathlon duel between Rafer Johnson of Kingsburg, Calif., and Russia's Vasily Kuznetsov.

After the first five events Sunday, Johnson was slightly ahead with 4,529 points to Kuznetsov's 4,420.

Americans won seven of the 10 men's events contested Sunday and surprised by taking two of the five women's events.

Among the men, Harold Connolly of Boston took the hammer throw with a heave of 220 feet, 8 inches; Ira Murchison of Chicago won the 100 meter dash in 10.2 seconds; Ansel Robinson of Fresno, Calif., won the 110 meter high hurdles in 13.9 seconds; Ernie Shelby of Los Angeles won the broad jump with 26 feet, 5 1/2 inch; Glenn Davis of Columbus, Ohio, won the 400 meter run in 45.8 seconds; Parry O'Brien of Los Angeles won the shot put with a toss of 62.78 feet; and the 400-meter relay team of Murchison, Ed Collymore of Cambridge, Mass., Jim Segrest of Abilene, Christian, and Davis won in 3:9.6 seconds.

Valdimir Bulatov of Russia surprised by winning the pole vault with a leap of 14 feet, 9 1/2 inches. As expected, Leonid Spiritsin of Russia won the 20 kilometer walk in 1:33.43.2 and Evgeny Zukov of Russia won the 10,000 meter run in 29:59.8.

Klamath Falls Clubs Victors

Yreka's traveling men's softball team bowed twice at Conger Field Saturday night in an exhibition doubleheader against two Klamath Falls teams.

In the first game, Mouldingcraft whipped Yreka 7-6, scoring three runs in the last of the seventh inning. Gus Gestvang limited Yreka to five hits. Norm Guyer and Dick Young's three-run homer and first-inning two-run double in the seventh were the big blows for the winners. Joe Accotto homered for Yreka in the first.

In the second game, National Guard topped Yreka 11-7 behind the three-hit pitching of Frank Detz. Sperm Hawkins homered for the National Guard cause in the first and Ralph Beard had a three-run roundtripper for the Guards in the second. Richard Hayes had a homer in the fifth for the losers.

Suggs Wins French Open

FRENCH LICK, Md. (UPI) — Louise Suggs, Atlanta, Ga., held the French Lick Women's Open golf championship today—mainly by reason of four missed putts by her title opponent.

Mariene Bauer Haggge looked good to win the crown. After a touch-and-go match Mrs. Haggge had a one-stroke edge, but collapsed with five putts on the 17th green to yield the championship Sunday to the Atlanta golfer.

Miss Suggs carded a 72 for the final round and wound up with 300 for the $7,500 72-hole tourney.

Fay Crocker of Uruguay finished in second place with 302. Mrs. Haggge, who had a 78 for the final 18, was third with 303.

Townies Win Over Lakeview

Chuck Ruff and JoJo George hurled the Chiloquin Townies to 10-8 victory over Lakeview Sunday in the only Klamath Basin Independent League game reported.

The win moved the Townies into a tie for the league lead with Lakeview. Both teams own 5-2 records for league play.

NY Giants Open Camp At Salem

SALEM (AP) — Twenty four rookies and a handful of veterans were on hand here Friday for the opening of the professional New York Giants football training camp.

Among the top names present were Don Heinrich, former University of Washington All-American quarterback, and Kyle Rote, veteran halfback.

Frank Gifford, star halfback, was missing but is expected to report by early next week. He is in Hollywood making a movie, but has said he has changed his mind about retiring and will play one more season with the Giants.

Kub Stars Spark South To Victory

DUNSMUIR — The South put to good use the pitching of Dunsmuir's Larry Moulton and the big bats of three Klamath Falls Kubers here Sunday to whip the North 9-7 in the annual Northern California League all-star game.

The 1957 all-star class was won by the North.

Manager Irv Whitt, Klamath Falls playing manager, pulled a minor shift in his starting lineup prior to game time Sunday afternoon as he named Moulton to start in place of Klamath rightshander Dave D'Olivo. Moulton hurled three innings of hitless ball and allowed the North just a single unearned run while his mates were building up a 4-1 lead in the three innings he worked.

D'Olivo and Mount Shasta's Bob Lawary pitched three innings apiece and preserved the win for Moulton.

Three Klamath Falls players named to the South squad did more than their share in helping to down the Northerners. Outfielder Donn Taucher picked up three hits, drove in three runs, stole a base plus scoring a run himself; outfielder Floyd Linderman collected two hits in four trips, drove in three and scored one plus getting a double; infielder Dorm Martin collected a two-for-six showing at the plate, handled six chances perfectly in the field, scored three runs and stole two bases.

Spider Webb Pick In TV Boxing Scrap

NEW YORK (UPI) — Middleweight contender Spider Webb is favored at 14-5 to beat Germany's Fran Suzina at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night in a TV 10-rounder that tops this week's boxing schedule.

The Chicago Spider, ranked fifth (Ring) and sixth (NBA), is favored because of his combined boxer-puncher ability, although he took the bout on short notice as a substitute.

Ex-champion Gene Fullmer was originally slated as Suzina's opponent but Gene had to withdraw when partially healed cuts were re-opened in training.

Stocky Suzina is unranked but his slam-bang attack has beaten Virgil Akins, Randy Sandy, Al Andrews and Charley Cotton. This year he lost two disputed decisions to high-ranked Joey Giardello and knocked out Johnny Penn.

RECORDS COMPARED
Webb's 28-3-0 record includes 14 knockouts. Suzina's 42-19-13 list includes 23 kayoes.

It will be the first Wednesday night fight staged at the Garden in nearly two years, and it will be televised nationally by ABC.

Friday's TV-radiol (NBC) bout at Syracuse, N.Y., pits light heavyweight contender Tony Anthony against heavyweight Archie McBride. Anthony, who may soon step up a class and campaign for the heavyweight crown, is favored at 13-5 because of his skill and punch.

Anthony is from New York; McBride, from Trenton, N.J.

Tony's 34-5-1 record includes 27 knockouts; McBride's 21-13-8 has eight kayoes.

OTHER FIGHTS
The week's boxing schedule also includes:
Monday—New York (St. Nick's) — Jimmy Archer vs. Tony DiBiase, Las Vegas, Nev. — Neal Rivers vs. Tony Dupas, Norwood, Mass. — Barry Allison vs. Jackson Brown, Tijuana, Mex. — Davey Moore vs. Kid Anahuac, New Orleans — Charley Joseph vs. Joe Snow.

Tuesday — Miami Beach—Jesse Bowdry vs. Bobby Lane and Bob Boyd vs. Jimmy Morris, Richmond, Calif. — Vic Cardot vs. Luke Easter.

Thursday — Fall River, Mass. — Georgia Araujo vs. Pat McCoy, Los Angeles — Henry Marquez vs. Dwight Hawkins, Albuquerque, — Jimmy Martinez vs. Ramon Fuentes.

Saturday — Hollywood, Calif. — Ernest Figueroa vs. Billy Walker. Sunday — Sherbrooke, Que. — Burke Emery vs. Johnny Hollins.

Bill White Back In Giant Uniform

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Big Bill White, the San Francisco Giants regular first baseman of two years ago, has rejoined the club from the service — and found his old position being capably handled by rookie Orlando Cepeda.

White returned to the Giants Sunday in Pittsburgh while on terminal leave from the army. It appeared that White may go into the outfield now that Cepeda has done so well at first.
