23 Years Ago

Monday, July 29, 1935—Mrs. J. T. Totton, 1436 Crescent Avenue, has just been awarded a Certificate of Recipe Endorsement by Better Homes & Gardens for her recipe, "Cottage Cheese Salad." This certificate, which brings national recognition to Mrs. Totton is given by Better Homes & Gardens only to distinguished recipes which pass its testing kitchen's tests for dependability, excellence of taste, and family usefulness.

Tuesday, July 30, 1935—Fifteen hundred persons witnessed the annual Lake of the Woods regatta. Hugh Campbell and Wilbur Jones, both of Klamath Falls, finished first and second in the hydroplane division. Art Vroman, Klamath Falls, was first and Dan Diven, Klamath Falls, second.

Wednesday, July 31, 1935—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hancock have returned from a vacation trip to Brookings and the mouth of Smith River, where Mr. Hancock enjoyed the salmon fishing. They were away for five days.

Thursday, August 1, 1935—Just what has become of the red-headed fighter Cantwell took south from Klamath Falls hasn't yet been learned. This was Murray Britton, former Legion Hall preliminary boy. In Murray, Cantwell thought he had another heavyweight champion. As far as is known, the trainer still has Britton under his wing, slowly working him up to a position of prominence in pugilism.

Friday, August 2, 1935—Mr. and Mrs. John H. Houston were among the Klamath Falls people who enjoyed a holiday vacation visit at coast resorts. They have returned to Klamath Falls.

Saturday, August 3, 1935—Fifty-three Klamath residents, members of the Kiwanis Club and their wives, made a good will trek to Lakeview Tuesday night. Feature of the entertainment program included cowboy songs by a trio composed of Mrs. E. J. Clanchan, Dr. Bill Peak and Fred Southwell.
