Lakeview Boy Hero In 7-6 Semi Triumph

By WAYNE SCOTT (Special Dispatch Via The Associated Press)

PORTLAND — In what went into the books as the most thrilling ball game of the Oregon State Babe Ruth Tournament to date, Gary Peters, from Lakeview, walked a last-inning, two-out, three-ball, two-strike pitch into short left field that scored two runs to give the Klamath County All-Stars a 7-6 victory over Mid-Portland No. 1 in the first game of semi-final play at Lents Field Monday night.

The win, the second in Portland for the County nine, pushed them into the championship game to night at 9 o'clock, when they face Portland's Southeast National on the Lents diamond. Should the Klamath County crew get past Southeast they will have earned the right to represent Oregon as state champions in the Pacific Northwest Regional slated for Klamath Falls starting August 6.

In Monday night's thriller, Peters, who had come into the ball game in the last half of the sixth stanza as a replacement for his brother, Larry Peters in left field, waited until the last possible moment, then smashed a blow that might have gone for extra bases if anyone had wanted to see what had happened. The happy youngster was swarmed over by teammates, coaches and fans, seconds after Dean Haskins and Dennis Salvadori had crossed the plate with the tying and winning runs.

The never-say-die County club, which is getting the reputation of a bunch of come-from-behinders, jumped into a three-run first-inning lead, and then got wobbly to let the Portlanders take command with a four-run fourth inning.

Credited with the win for the Klamath squad was Chiloquin pitcher Norman Jackson, who went the full distance, allowing eight hits, striking out eight, and issuing only four walks while his mates suffered a mild case of jitters and committed four errors.

The loser, Mid-Portland's Larry Frager, started the game at third base but was called to the mound after starter John McCord had walked the first three men to face him. Frager gave up eight hits, walked five and whiffed six during the balance of the test.

Collecting the hits for Klamath Falls were Dean Haskins, who poked a single and a double in three at bats, and shortstop Bucky Wilson who lashed a pair of singles in three trips. Peters, Bruce Brickner, Salvadori and Don Willey contributed the rest of the Klamath safeties.

The big man at the plate for both clubs was Portland's center-fielder Harry Cartales, who got four-for-four.

The County Stars broke the ice in the first as Wilson and Mobley, who had gotten free passes scampared home on Haskins' double to right field. Haskins scored from second base when Brickner, County first sacker, beat out an infield hit and the Portland first baseman threw the ball into the dirt trying to catch Haskins at the plate.

From here on the Stars went hitless until the bottom of the fifth when Willey and Wilson each collected a single. The effort went for nothing, however, as Bob Mobley smashed a towering fly to left field that Pat Donnelly hauled in. Willey was caught off second by the alert Portland leftfielder and the side was retired.

Another Klamath surge in the bottom of the sixth canto aroused false hope until some neat Portland fielding stranded three Klamath runners on the bases.

In the bottom of the seventh the County chances seemed slim as they were on the small end of a 6-3 count. Leadoff man Don Johnson, who entered the game as pinch hitter for Jackson, grounded out to second base for one out. Willey got aboard on a walk and then advanced to third on a single by Wilson. With one away and two men on, Mobley, who had started in centerfield and then switched places with catcher Haskins in the fourth frame, went down swinging for the second out. Following Mobley was Salvadori who drove in Willey with a well hit single. Wilson scored when Haskins singled to center and Salvadori romped around third.

With runners on second and third, Brickner worked a full count off Frager into a base on balls, bringing up Peters. Peters took one cut, three balls and a called strike before tagging the game-winning hit.

The Portlanders had their big inning in the fourth when Dave Lewis led off with a single, stole second and then scored on Cartales' singles. Cartales stole second and third and scored when Donnelly laid down a beautiful squeeze bunt. Donnelly and Phil Thompson, who got on with an error, tormented the Klamath team on the bases until both scored when Ed Newbegin pushed out another successful bunt. The side was retired when Mobley caught Newbegin at third and Jackson struck out Frager.

Portland collected a tally in the fifth off two singles, an error and a stolen base. In the sixth they pushed another run across on a base on balls, a bobble and a fielder's choice.

The starting pitcher for tonight's championship game with Southeast National will be Salvadori. Salvadori, who won the opening game Sunday against Astoria with a sore arm, has responded well to treatment, according to Coach Fred Taylor, and will be ready to go tonight.

The line score:

Klamath Falls	7
Mid-Portland	6

McCord, Frager (1) and Davis; Jackson and Haskins, Mobley (4);

Heavy King Floored In Sparring Session

OCEANSIDE, Calif. (UPI) — Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson is "grateful" he got clobbered by the deck by his mid-dleweight sparring partner, Manager Gus D'Amato explained today.

And, as a matter of fact, Gus went on, "He's grateful for the opportunity of having something called to his attention he didn't realize before."

The man who sent Patterson sprawling in his training camp here was Jose Torres, a Puerto Rican who was a member of the U.S. 1956 Olympic boxing team. Floyd maintained he "was slipping" at the time the well-placed blow landed. He wasn't hurt.

"Patterson wants his sparring partners to be good," D'Amato continued. "The harder they are to hit, the harder he has to work to hit 'em. He welcomes any improvement in them."

"If a fighter hits him, he has to think that much harder. He has to figure out why he got hit and this is very helpful."

D'Amato, deploring press handling of the affair, added that after a workout, Patterson tells his partners why he hit them "so they won't make the same mistake again."

Did Torres tell Floyd this time that he did wrong?

"There's even rumors around that he got knocked out and all. I was sitting only six feet away from four newspapermen and it didn't look like a knockdown to me. But right away they all say it's a knockdown. Everybody made a big thing out of it. He wasn't hurt. He got right up and started fighting again. It was one of the most furious rounds we've seen in a training camp. No one was hurt, though, and no one was mad."

Immediately following the bout, Gus gave Floyd today off.

"But I was going to give him the day off, anyway," Gus declared.

Soviet Thinclads Post Win

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviets are closing in, surely and speedily, on American leadership in sports. And even a controversial ruling and a debatable scoring system can't make it appear otherwise.

In the first United States vs. Soviet Union track and field meet, which ended last night, the Soviets outscored the Americans 172 points to 170; their women athletes defeated the American women 62-44, and, most important of all, the American men could only defeat the Soviet men 126 to 109.

"This was the greatest day in Soviet track and field history," said the Soviet men's coach, Vavriol Korobkov.

"Who would have thought we could beat the American pole vaulters, that we could finish one in the high jump and javelin? Or who would have thought a Soviet sprinter would finish second in the 200 meters, that another would be second in the broad jump and that we would set a world hop-step-jump record? It was a wonderful showing."

As the U.S. team packed to go on to meets in Warsaw, Budapest and Athens, the American women could look back with considerable pride on their performances here. So could some of the men. Unquestionably, the greatest feat of the two-day meet was Rater Johnson's world record score of 8,302 points in the decathlon, wiping out his own accepted record and the unofficial 8,013 points made by his Soviet rival, Vasily Kuznetsov.

The only things that rankled a bit were the Soviet system of lumping together the scores of men's and women's competition and the disqualification of Gordon McKenzie in the 10,000 meters.

There was no real bitterness; just some discontent among U.S. coaches and officials.

McKenzie's disqualification in a controversial ruling cost the U.S. team a point. He tried to quit the 10,000-meter race and was sent back by Coach George Eastman. Soviet officials without hearing the American side ruled he was disqualified for leaving the track.

The American men won every running event up to 5,000 meters. Bill Dellinger finished second in the Soviet Union's Hubert Pyranov in the 5,000 by a matter of inches in a great performance and Phil Coleman finished second in the steeplechase.

American men scored one-two sweeps in 7 of 19 individual events and also won both relays. Of the 22 men's events, the U.S. won 14. But they had expected to score 20 to 19 points better.

Market Basket Wins Twinbill

Market Basket Klamath Falls' all-star men's softball team made it four straight over Redmond Sunday afternoon by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader 9-0 and 6-2. The double win was the second twinbill triumph by the locals over Redmond in a home-and-home series.

Frank Detz pitched Klamath to a 9-0 triumph over Redmond in the first game, giving up only two hits. Detz didn't allow a Redmond base runner to pass second base in the five inning contest.

Ralph Beard hammered out three hits in four trips to lead the Market Basket team.

In the second game, Klamath hitters clubbed out 10 hits to give Dale Himmelwright some fine offensive support as he pitched five-hit ball to claim the nightcap win. Himmelwright gave up single runs to Redmond in the first and fifth innings.

Danny Derrah hit a home run for Market Basket with one runner on. Jerry Johnson also homered for the winners with no one on in the fourth. The longest blow of the game was a triple by Redmond's John Hudecker in the first. Beard continued his hitting assault with two hits in four times at bat.

Giants Win Pair From Philadelphia

By United Press International

Bill Rigney loves kids, especially those San Francisco youngsters of his who may surprise the "Old Man" by getting him named the "manager of the year."

"Ain't those kids of mine terrific?" Rigney beamed with obvious pride after they swept a two-night twin-bill from the Phillies Monday night to move into a virtual first-place tie with Milwaukee only one percentage point off the pace.

Rigney, who was down in sixth place 14½ games off the pace a year ago today, had ample reason to be proud of his young players.

Mickey Mantle slammed his 27th and 28th homers and Gil McDougald entered into the spirit of the occasion by rapping his 9th and 10th home runs. Bob Cerv of the As also hit two, his 27th and 28th, and Hal Smith belted his third of the season.

Rookie Zack Monroe was credited with the victory although he gave way to Johnny Kucks in the sixth. Dick Tomaneck yielded the Yanks' first eight runs and was charged with the loss.

The New York Yankees stretched their American League lead to 15 games again when they bombarded five Kansas City pitchers for 16 hits in a 14-7 victory.

J-M Clinches At Least Tie For LL Crown

Johns-Manville all but clinched the 1958 Little League championship Monday night at Wright Field by taking a pair of victories from second-place Park-Moyina. The double win assured the J-M team of no less than a tie for first place in the final standings with only two games left to play.

In the "deep freeze" game called in their last meeting with the score tied at 3-3 after six innings, Johns-Manville came up with a pair of runs in the first extra inning to edge P-M, 10-9.

In the regularly scheduled clash between the two teams, J-M whipped the Park-Moyina baseballers, 6-1.

In the other action at Wright Field Monday evening, Bob's Union added a win to its credit with an 8-0 win over Hal's Sport Shop.

Larry Binney was the winning pitcher in the "deep freeze" game for Johns-Manville. Binney walked four batters and gave up one run to Park-Moyina, but leftfielder Mike Soran ended the P-M threat by hauling in a long fly ball for the third and game-winning out.

J-M scored twice in their half of the seventh on walks to Steve Good and Binney, Eddie Weaver's single, an error and a passed ball. Binney, Weaver and Bobby Tucker each had two hits in the play-off game for the winners.

In the regular game, Weaver hurled four hit balls. He struck out 11 and walked just one in besting P-M's ace pitcher Rommie Yuneck. J-M collected seven hits off Yuneck, two each by Binney, Weaver and Tucker. Binney had a double and Weaver a triple.

Marvin Yuneck scored P-M's only run in the fourth after singling and advancing on a single by Danny Woster and scoring on a passed ball. Marvin Yuneck had two of the hits off Weaver, Woster and Denny Coleman getting the others.

Weaver's triple scored two runs in the second inning for the winning margin. John Jendrzewski and Good scored the eventual winning run after a single.

Mack Cunningham hurled Bob's to their single victory over Hal's, giving up only one hit. The lone base rap off Bob's fine right-hander was a double by Eddie Young in the fourth inning. Young advanced to third, but didn't score.

Hal's held Bob's to a 1-0 game until the top of the sixth when the Union Service club exploded for six runs. Jim Patzke's single and triple and another three-base hit by Gary Benson were the big hits of the six-run inning.

Patzke had three hits for the winners.

Bums Cleaning House Before Alston Goes

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The faltering Los Angeles Dodgers, in past years a pennant contender but now a doormat, today shook up their roster in a move to get out of the collar and possibly save Manager Walt Alston's job.

General Manager Buzz Bavasi gave hint to the wholesale personnel shift earlier in the day in denying an exclusive United Press

International dispatch from New York. The report, quoting an official authority, said that the Dodger skipper was "out" unless the club changed to winning ways in "the next 10 days."

"We will probably change some horses (players) before the team returns, but there's not a thought of changing our manager," Bavasi said.

He wasted little time. He got Alston on the phone in St. Paul, where the Dodgers stopped off for an exhibition game with farm club St. Paul, and came up with the following checker moves:

—The voluntary retirement of relief hurler Ed Roebuck, who has been nursing an aching shoulder season-long. ("He might be back next season," Bavasi clarified.)

—Optioning of rookie third baseman Dick Gray to St. Paul of the American Association.

—Optioning rookie starting pitcher Bob Giallonardo to Montreal of the International League.

—The recall from St. Paul of southpaw hurler Danny McDevitt, who began the season with the Dodgers only to be shipped down after the first month with a 1-3 record. He brings back a 9-4 mark from Montreal.

—Purchase of hurler Werner (Babe) Birrer from Montreal, a right-hander with a 12-5 record to date and an impressive 2.30 earned run average.

—Recall from St. Paul of infielder Bobby Lillis.

Earlier in the day Bavasi said the Dodgers had "no plans" to replace Alston with Coach Charley Dressen, Bobby Bragan (former Pittsburgh and Cleveland manager and now skipper of the Dodgers' Spokane, Wash., farm club), or Leo Durocher. He did admit talking to Durocher, recently out of the club, but added:

"I'm not embarrassed about it. I consider Leo the most intelligent manager out of baseball."

Webb struck out 10 in seven innings and walked only three. Two fielding errors on the part of Superior Troy failed to hinder Webb's shutout.

Rich Depew homered for the winners in the fourth. Don Gresdel had two hits in four at bats for Superior Troy.
